2016 Academic Academy Institute: Call for Proposals

October 7-8, 2016
Costa Mesa, CA

The Academic Senate for California Community Colleges (ASCCC) strengthens and supports the local senates of all California community colleges. The ASCCC is committed to bringing individuals and institutions together and building personal and professional development throughout the year.

At the 2016 ASCCC October Academic Academy Institute (AAI), join us to explore the theme: Better Together: Faculty Collaboration for Improved Student Services, Increased Student Equity, and More Effective Educational Pathways.

The AAI features essential breakout topics, keynote panel discussions, and unlimited networking opportunities. The ASCCC Equity and Diversity Action Committee together with the ASCCC Transfer, Articulation and Student Services Committee are seeking proposals that reflect the best thinking in the field informed by theory, research, and best practices of issues on the topics of diversity and inclusion.

The committee invites proposals that:

- Address current challenges faced by professionals in the field and are solution-oriented
- Suggest innovative paradigms of counseling and student support services in and out of the classroom
- Stimulate and provoke discussion and audience engagement around equity and cultural competency
- Explore best practices on cultivating partnerships between counseling faculty and instructional faculty

Highlighted topics may include:

- Basic Skills Transformation grants and connecting to SSSP Student Equity
- Faculty advising on student success
- Intersections of mental health and veteran's services
- Inclusive spaces for formally incarcerated students returning to higher education
- Career counseling and case management
