

Basic Skills: The Vanishing Act

Presented by
The ASCCC Noncredit Taskforce

Why are we talking about credit basic skills disappearing?

Noncredit Basic Skills Instruction

Credit Basic Skills Instruction

Discussion Forum

Prompt #1

Given equitable funding, what are academic reasons for serving basic skills students in:

- o Credit
- o Noncredit
- o Adult education

Discussion Forum

Prompt #2

- If the Community College system were to move credit basic skills courses into noncredit or adult education, what are the statewide issues that must be addressed?

Discussion Forum

Prompt #3

How do we ensure that students who exit from noncredit basic skills courses are ready to enter credit basic skills or transfer level credit courses?

What are some innovative solutions?

Resources

- AB86 Adult Education Transition Grant
- AB 86 Stakeholder Sounding Board
- The LAO Proposal: "Restructuring California's Adult Education System"
- Non-credit at a Glance
- Non-credit Progress Indicator Pilot
- Non-credit Instruction: Opportunity & Challenge
- The Role of Non-credit in the California Community Colleges

Thank you!

ASCCC Non-Credit Taskforce Members

- Kim Harrell: ASCCC Area A Rep. & Chair, Folsom Lake College
- Ray Hicks: ESL Faculty, Santa Ana College
- Ginni May: Math Faculty, Sacramento City College
- Wheeler North: ASCCC Treasurer, San Diego Miramar
- Diane Oren: English Faculty, Delta College
- Allison Tom-Miura: Non-credit & Continuing Education faculty, Los Angeles Trade Tech