VII. ADJOURNMENT
Executive Committee Community Norms
Approved February 2-3, 2018

Authenticity
- Commit to being your authentic, truthful self.
- Be honest. Speak truth as you see it and ensure that your words and actions match.
- Allow others to speak their truth and listen without prejudice as they do.
- Listen with respect as others speak. Be informed by what they say.
- Be open to outlying opinions or ideas and share the air to allow time for others to speak.

Practice Self-Awareness, Presence, and Patience
- Be mindful of your own possible assumptions or biases, reflect on them, and set them aside. Forgive someone if they fall short or express bias.
- Be positive and respectful when speaking of others (e.g., if the person heard what you said would it be hurtful)
- Forgive yourself if you need to stop, rewind, and change your mind.
- Practice patience when others dig deeper or change their minds.
- Be mindful when communicating. Be mindful of behaviors that may appear to be a macroaggression and passive aggressive behaviors.
- Recognize your potential attachment to issues. Bring options and interests to the group for discussion and be open to other possibilities.

Collegiality, Criticism, and Feedback
- Honor experience, knowledge, and the diversity of our perspectives
- Critique, with respect and humility, not maliciousness
- When an issue or conflict arises, engage individuals directly to resolve the issue or conflict.
- Support others to find a positive way to express concerns or conflict and to find resolution.
- Be a trusted ally who can be a sounding board and will help you redirect negativity into positive action.
- Recognize that we are more than one opinion or position and avoid labeling or stereotyping someone based on past decisions or opinions.

Honor the Space and the Dedication of The Committee
- Give thought and attention to innovative ideas during a meeting and avoid making rapid decisions or reacting to an idea too quickly or derisively.
- Establish clarity between what comments should be kept in confidence and what can be expressed outside the meeting. Respect that shared expectation of privacy.
- Acknowledge and celebrate the work of all of the Executive Committee members and Staff
- Praise publicly and provide constructive criticism and other critique privately.

Please note: Staff will complete the grey areas.

Annually each fall and spring, the ASCCC Curriculum Committee holds two Curriculum Regional Meetings, one in the north and one in the south.

The regional meetings have been used to provide updates to local curriculum chairs, local curriculum committee members, deans, and CIOs as well as facilitate the gathering of feedback or problem solving with the field if needed; the 2020 regionals are intended to continue to do this along with being a venue for these timely topics:

- Transfer alignment efforts
- Onboarding: placement of students into English, math, and ESL, including review of need to review or assign CB21, CB25, and CB26 codes to courses
- Competency-based education – updates from 5C conversations
- Policies for IB (International Baccalaureate) and GE

Proposed dates: Friday, April 24 (North) and Saturday, April 25 (South)

Alternate dates: Thursday, March 19 (North) and Thursday, April 2 (South) OR Thurs, April 23 & Fri, April 24.

NOTE: Cypress College has already volunteered to host the south regional, pending a specific date.

The following format is proposed for the regional workshops.

Draft Schedule:

9:30-10:00 Check-in/Breakfast
10:00-11:00 General Session
11:00-11:10 Break

1 Staff will review your item and provide additional resources to inform the Executive Committee discussion.

BACKGROUND:

All tax-exempt organizations are required to submit a Form 990 to the Internal Revenue Service each year. The requirement to file a Form 990 is a condition for maintaining tax-exempt status. Furthermore, nonprofit organizations are required to make their Form 990s available to the public on request. The ASCCC submits its Form 990s to Guidestar, which posts information about nonprofits (http://www.guidestar.org/Home.aspx). During the nonprofit board training in September, the Board was reminded that reviewing and approving submission of the Form 990 is part of its fiduciary duty. The Form 990 for fiscal year 2018-2019 is being presented to the Executive Committee for review and approval, prior to filing with the IRS.

The following formula was approved by the Executive Committee in March 2018 to calculate the weekly hours for representatives.

- Calculations were based on the Reassignment Time Percentages for 2018-19.
- Assumption was the "purchase" of 30 units or 100% of time is equivalent to 9 months.
- Standard annual hours in one year = 2080 hours. 9 months of hours (75%) = 1560 hours.
- Annualized: 1560 hours/52 weeks = 30 hours per week average for an individual with 100% of their time reassigned.
  - Pres & VP - 30 hour per week, plus summer = 40 hour per week.

Part II Declaration and Signature Authorization of Officer

Under penalties of perjury, I declare that I am an officer of the above organization and that I have examined a copy of the organization’s 2018 electronic return and accompanying schedules and statements and to the best of my knowledge and belief, they are true, correct, and complete. I further declare that the amount in Part I above is the amount shown on the copy of the organization’s electronic return. I consent to allow my intermediate service provider, transmitter, or electronic return originator (ERO) to send the organization’s return to the IRS and to receive from the IRS (a) an acknowledgement of receipt or reason for rejection of the transmission, (b) the reason for any delay in processing the return or refund, and (c) the date of any refund. If applicable, I authorize the U.S. Treasury and its designated Financial Agent to initiate an electronic funds withdrawal (direct debit) entry to the financial institution account indicated in the tax preparation software for payment of the organization’s federal taxes owed on this return, and the financial institution to debit the return to the amount. To revoke a payment, I must contact the U.S. Treasury Financial Agent at 1-888-353-4557 no later than 2 business days prior to the payment (settlement) date. I also authorize the financial institutions involved in the processing of the electronic payment of taxes to receive confidential information necessary to answer inquiries and resolve issues related to the payment. I have selected a personal identification number (PIN) as my signature for the organization’s electronic return and, if applicable, the organization’s consent to electronic funds withdrawal.

1b Enter the number of voting members included in line 1a, above, who are independent.

2 Did any officer, director, trustee, or key employee have a family relationship or a business relationship with any other officer, director, trustee, or key employee?

3 Did the organization delegate control over management duties customarily performed by or under the direct supervision of officers, directors, or trustees, or key employees to a management company or other person?

4 Did the organization make any significant changes to its governing documents since the prior Form 990 was filed?

5 Did the organization become aware during the year of a significant diversion of the organization’s assets?

6 Did the organization have members or stockholders?

7a Did the organization have members, stockholders, or other persons who had the power to elect or appoint one or more members of the governing body?

7b Are any governance decisions of the organization reserved to (or subject to approval by) members, stockholders, or persons other than the governing body?

8 Did the organization contemporaneously document the meetings held or written actions undertaken during the year by the following:

a The governing body.

b Each committee with authority to act on behalf of the governing body.

9 Is there any officer, director, trustee, or key employee listed in Part VII, Section A, who cannot be reached at the organization’s mailing address? If “Yes,” provide the names and addresses in Schedule O.

Section B. Policies  (This Section B requests information about policies not required by the Internal Revenue Code.)

10a Did the organization have local chapters, branches, or affiliates?

b If “Yes,” did the organization have written policies and procedures governing the activities of such chapters, affiliates, and branches to ensure their operations are consistent with the organization’s exempt purposes?

11a Has the organization provided a complete copy of this Form 990 to all members of its governing body before filing the form?

b Describe in Schedule O the process, if any, used by the organization to review this Form 990.

12a Did the organization have a written conflict of interest policy? If “No,” go to line 13.

b Were officers, directors, or trustees, and key employees required to disclose annually interests that could give rise to conflicts?

c Did the organization regularly and consistently monitor and enforce compliance with the policy? If “Yes,” describe in Schedule O how this was done.

13 Did the organization have a written whistleblower policy?

14 Did the organization have a written document retention and destruction policy?

15 Did the process for determining compensation of the following persons include a review and approval by independent persons, comparability data, and contemporaneous substantiation of the deliberation and decision?

a The organization’s CEO, Executive Director, or top management official.

b Other officers or key employees of the organization.

If “Yes” to line 15a or 15b, describe the process in Schedule O (see instructions).

16a Did the organization invest in, contribute assets to, or participate in a joint venture or similar arrangement with a taxable entity during the year?

b If “Yes,” did the organization follow a written policy or procedure requiring the organization to evaluate its participation in joint venture arrangements under applicable federal tax law, and take steps to safeguard the organization’s exempt status with respect to such arrangements?

Name of the organization: Academic Senate for California Community Colleges

Employer identification number: 95-2707667

Form 990 - Organization's Mission

The organization fosters the effective participation by community college faculty in all statewide and local academic and professional matters, develops, promotes, and acts upon policies responding to statewide concerns, and serves as the official voice of the faculty of California Community Colleges in academic and professional matters. The organization strengthens and supports the local senates of all California Community Colleges.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4d - All Other Accomplishments

The organization provided support and assistance to 114 local Academic Senates through both formal and informal mechanisms. The Senate also provided speakers and tailored workshops as well as strategic advice and direct support to local senates. The Senate provided two major conferences (with approximately 300 attendees each) and six institutes as well as implementing five grants to benefit higher education in California.

Form 990, Part VI, Line 6 - Classes of Members or Stockholders

Organization members are California Community College Academic Senates.

Form 990, Part VI, Line 7a - Election of Members and Their Rights

The Executive Committee shall consist of the officers and ten representatives which comprise the Board. All members of the Executive Committee, except the officers, shall be elected by the plenary session on the basis of geographic representation as prescribed in the senate rules. and shall serve two-year staggered terms. All elected officers shall be elected at a general session of the Academic Senate for California Community Colleges for a one-year term. Each year, the Academic Senate appoints faculty members to The Statewide Standings Committees, Chancellor’s Office Advisory Committees, and Task Forces. We actively solicit nominations to serve from faculty through plenary sessions, institutes, mailings, and personal contact. Last year the senate appointed more than 150 faculty members to serve at the state level in shaping statewide policies.

Form 990, Part VI, Line 11b - Organization’s Process to Review Form 990
The Academic Senate will engage a tax preparer to complete the Federal Form 990, Return of Organization Exempt from Income, and the State Form 199, California Exempt Organization Annual Information Return each year. Both annual information returns are due November 15, unless extended. The Board of Directors will review the information returns prior to electronic filing.

Form 990, Part VI, Line 12c - Enforcement of Conflicts Policy
Each September, during the orientation of new Board Members and Executive Committee Members, The new members pledge to observe The Code of Ethics and agree to fully disclose the existence of any financial interest that may result in a perceived or actual conflict of interest. The expenditures for grants are reviewed to ensure there are no conflicts of interest. The Executive Director and Treasurer monitor expenditures as well.
All Executive Committee Members are expected to maintain the highest standards of conduct and ethical behavior and to adhere to the Executive Committee Code of Ethics. The President of The Academic Senate and the Executive Committee will be prepared to investigate the factual basis behind any charge or complaint of conduct that is not in keeping with the Executive Committee Code of Ethics. Violations of the Executive Committee's Code of Ethics Policy will be addressed by the Academic Senate President, who will first discuss the violation with The Executive Committee Member to reach a resolution. If a resolution is not achieved and further action is deemed necessary, the President may appoint an Ad Hoc Committee to examine the matter and recommend further course of action to the Executive Committee.

Form 990, Part VI, Line 15a - Compensation Process for Top Official
The Budget and Finance Committee sets the staff salary budget. The Executive Director's Salary and Benefits are determined by the Executive Committee using comparable data and annual review procedures.

Form 990, Part VI, Line 15b - Compensation Process for Officers
The Budget and Finance Committee sets the staff salary budget. All pay rates other than the Executive Director's salary and benefits are approved by the Executive Director and Documented in the personnel file. Stipends and salaries paid to the executive and other advisory committee members are approved by the president.

Form 990, Part VI, Line 19 - Governing Documents Disclosure Explanation
The Organization makes its Governing Documents, Conflict of Interest Policy, and Financial Statements available to the public upon request.
Form 990, Part XII, Line 2c - Change in Financial Review Process

New auditors were hired to audit, based upon thier selection criteria.

TYPE OF BOARD CONSIDERATION:

Please note: Staff will complete the grey areas.

BACKGROUND:

At its meetings on January 17 and February 6, Relations with Local Senates Committee reviewed and revised the Local Senates Handbook. In particular, the committee was asked to address resolution 17.02 from Spring 2018, Increase Participatory Governance on Colleges’ Satellite Campuses.

Noted revisions:

- Inclusivity Statement included in Part V
- 50th Anniversary hyperlink to page 5
- Inclusion of reference to the paper Effective Practices in Accreditation: A Guide for Faculty on page 17
- Inclusion of information regarding remote participation on page 29
- Addition of section: Equity and Access to Participatory Governance Meetings and Training to page 37
- Updates to section: Soliciting Diverse Faculty Participation on page 39
- Addition of section: Increase Participatory Governance on Satellite Campuses on page 44

Preface

This Local Senates Handbook has been compiled by the Academic Senate for California Community Colleges’ Relations With Local Senates Committee to be a resource for new and experienced academic senate presidents, providing them with information and context to support them being effective faculty leaders.

USING THIS HANDBOOK

This handbook is organized into five parts:

- Part I: The Academic Senate for California Community Colleges: A Brief History
  This section provides a short history of academic senates in the California Community College System with links to important historical documents that provide the context for how senates operate today.

- Part II: Roles and Responsibilities of the Academic Senate
  This section provides an explanation of the legal framework that senates function within. This includes sections on California Education Code and Title 5 that relate to the academic and professional responsibilities of the senate; information on local board policies, regulations, and delegation of decision making authority; the Academic Senate for California Community Colleges statement on collegial consultation; effective practices to foster effective relationships between the union and the senate; and the role of the academic senate regarding accreditation.

- Part III. Duties as a Local Senate President
  This section breaks out some of the duties and responsibilities of academic senate presidents, including the general duties, reports and documents requiring senate sign-off, and committee appointments.

- Part IV. Ensuring the Effectiveness of the Local Senate
  This section provides effective practices regarding the placement of the senate within the college’s governance structure, constitutions and bylaws, effective participatory governance, and strategies to institutionalize an effective senate.

- Part V. Linking Local Senates to the Academic Senate for California Community Colleges
  This section contains information on how the Academic Senate for California Community Colleges operates and the services that it offers to assist local senates.

This handbook has been prepared to be read cover-to-cover by new senate leaders or to be used as a specific problem solving reference handbook. The California Community College System is complex. Often in this handbook information seems to be repeated in different sections. This repetition was purposeful to both serve a user who is looking for the answer to a specific question and to allow for different nuanced approaches to the information pertaining to the different sections. The committee has made an effort to hyperlink connected sections to allow for quick navigation. [Rita, I’m not sure what to do with this in the printed version.]
Part I: The Academic Senate for California Community Colleges: A Brief History

The Academic Senate for California Community Colleges (ASCCC) has its roots in an Assembly Concurrent Resolution adopted in 1963. The resolution required the State Board of Education (which at that time had jurisdiction over community and junior colleges) to establish academic senates "for the purposes of representing [faculty] in the formation of policy on academic and professional matters" (Assembly Resolution 48, 1963). While some local academic senates existed before this resolution, this action gave local senates legal recognition and specific jurisdiction over academic and professional matters. There were several statewide faculty organizations that supported the formation of local senates, including the California Teachers Association (CTA); California Federation of Teachers (CFT); the California Junior College Faculty Association (CJCFA), now known as the Faculty Association of California Community Colleges (FACCC); and the California Junior College Association (CJCA), now the Community College League of California (CCLC), which at that time included representation of faculty (it now represents CEOs and Trustees at the state level).

In 1967, legislation was enacted to create the Board of Governors and the Chancellor's Office for the California Community Colleges. The following year, Norbert Bischof, a professor of mathematics and philosophy at Merritt College, called the first statewide meeting of local academic senate presidents to explore ways to create a state senate, which would represent local senates at the Chancellor's Office and before the Board of Governors. Working with Ted Stanford, a history professor from Chabot College, Bischof wrote the constitution for the Academic Senate for California Community Colleges, which was adopted by the body in May 1968. Subsequently, the constitution was ratified statewide, and approved by the Board of Governors in October 1969. The Academic Senate for California Community Colleges was incorporated as a nonprofit organization in November 1970.

These organizational milestones, and many others, prepared the Academic Senate for the responsibilities arising from the 1986 report of the Commission for the Review of the Master Plan for Higher Education which focused exclusively on the community colleges. This document, The Challenge of Change: A Reassessment of the California Community College (Commission for the Review of the Master Plan for Higher Education, 1986), led the way for the reform legislation, The Community College Reform Act (AB 1725, Vasconcellos, 1988) which was passed by the legislature in 1988. Commonly referred to as AB 1725, the legislation established many new responsibilities for both local senates and the Academic Senate for California Community Colleges. Subsequently, the document California's Faces. was supported community college reform and contextualized the Master Plan within California's shifting demography.

The Community College Reform Act (AB 1725, Vasconcellos, 1988), changed the role of the California community colleges within the educational framework of California. Community colleges were uncoupled from K-12 and given status as institutions of higher education. As a result, the legislature also created pre-and post-tenure reviews, lengthened the tenure period, and strengthened the role of the local academic senates as central to the effort of institutional development. John Vasconcellos’s Reform Act is a remarkable and aspirational piece of legislation. The official chapter language of the law includes significant intent language concerning what the legislators wished to see accomplished. All college leaders should be familiar with this document.

The ASCCC’s proposal for the implementation of AB 1725 as outlined in the paper Policies for Strengthening Local Academic Senates (ASCCC, 1989). The proposal was approved by the ASCCC in the 1989 Fall Plenary Session and by the Board of Governors in July of 1990. The ASCCC and the trustees’ organization (the Community College League of California (CCLC), then issued the Guidelines for Implementation of Section 53200 - 53204 of Title 5 of the Administrative Code of California (ASCCC & CCLC, 1991), a Memorandum of Understanding that offered a joint interpretation of these regulations; it was adopted at the 1991 spring session of the Academic Senate. Subsequently, Participating Effectively in District and College Governance, a revised Q&A document, was jointly produced with CCLC and adopted by the ASCCC at the Fall 1998 Plenary Session. Scenarios to Illustrate Effective Participation in District and College Governance (ASCCC & CCLC, 1995), a companion document, applies the interpretations to specific scenarios. These earlier legislative actions and their subsequent codification in Title 5 Regulations, as well as the legal and interpretive documents that emerged, provide the framework for the following discussion.

Today, the Academic Senate for California Community Colleges continue to be the voice for all California community college faculty in academic and professional matters. A variety of documents regarding the growth and development of the Academic Senate for California Community Colleges can be found on the ASCCC website; for example:

- Establishing Academic Senates in California Community Colleges (Case, 1971)
- 60 Milestones in the History of Senates and the Academic Senate for California Community Colleges (Conn, 1986)

Part II: Roles and Responsibilities of the Senate

This section of the handbook deals with the legal underpinnings which define and support the operation of academic senates. The first part of this section, The Legal Basis: Education Code, Title 5, Accreditation, and Local Implementation, explains pertinent legislation, California Education Code, Title 5 Regulations, and local board of trustees' policies and regulations. The second part of this section, Consultation, Senate/Union Relations, and Senate Roles in Accreditation, presents effective practices and information regarding collegial consultation, building and maintaining effective relationships between senates and unions, and the role of the senates in accreditation.

THE LEGAL BASIS: EDUCATION CODE, TITLE 5, ACCREDITATION, AND LOCAL IMPLEMENTATION

The rules governing the operations of California community colleges come from a number of sources. The roles and responsibilities of local senates and faculty are spelled out in several places:

- Legislation: Legislation originates in either the California Senate or the Assembly. If the piece of legislation originates in the Assembly, it is referred to with the prefix “AB” and the bill number (e.g., AB 1725). If a legislative bill originates in the Senate, it is referred to with the prefix “SB” and the bill number (e.g., SB 860). Bill numbers are reused in each legislative session; for example, AB 1725 in 1988 famously dealt with community college reform, whereas in the 2013-14 session AB 1725 was a bill regarding mental health hearings for the gravely disabled. The legislation language provides the intent of the legislation and specifics of which codes should be amended or created.

- Education Code: When a piece of legislation pertaining to education is passed by the legislature and not vetoed by the governor, it is “chaptered” into the California Education Code. The requirements found in the California Education Code are therefore a result of legislation and can be modified only by subsequent legislative action. They appear in their full text, including the intent language of the original authors, on the legislature's website California Legislative Information website.

California Education Code is divided into three sections:

- Title 2. Elementary and Secondary Education [33000 – 64100]
- Title 3: Postsecondary Education [66000 – 101060]

Most of the codes pertaining to the California Community College will be found in two sections:

- Education Code. Division 7. Community Colleges, Section 70900 - 88651

While most of the codes pertaining to California Community Colleges may be found in sections 66700 to 66764, other codes pertaining to community colleges may be found throughout the California Education Code. The California Legislative Information website has a powerful search feature to help locate specific codes. The California Education Codes change as new legislation is chaptered, usually on January 1 of each year, and a senate president should always check the California Legislative Information website for the most up-to-date Education Codes.

- Title 5: The California Community College Board of Governors codifies the rules for the implementation of Education Code in Title 5. Title 5 is published as part of the California Code of Regulations. These regulations have the force of law, though they can be modified by action of the Board of Governors without legislative intervention. Most of the sections regarding California Community Colleges will be found in Division 6: Community Colleges of Title 5. Because Title 5 can be changed more easily and frequently than Education Code, local senate presidents need to check for the most up-to-date versions on the official California Code of Regulations website.
Local Senates Handbook
Part II: Roles and Responsibilities of the Senate

The Legal Basis: Education Code, Title 5, Accreditation, and Local Implementation

- Standing Orders: The Board of Governors enacts "Standing Rules" that instruct the Chancellor's Office on how to carry out its functions. The Standing Rules of the Board of Governors are reviewed annually and may be found on the State Chancellor’s Website.

The Legislative Index (2015), created by former ASCCC President Kate Clark, contains an index of topics “cross-walked” from the intent expressed in the legislation Community College Reform Act (AB 1725, Vasconcellos, 1988), to sections in the California Education Code and then to the specific sections in Title 5.

Defining and Understanding the Role of the Academic Senate: Selected Passages from the California Education Code Specifying the Roles of the Academic Senate

The following section highlights some of the significant segments of the California Code of Regulations with links to the sections on the California Legislative Information website. Education Code changes with new legislation, so this handbook hyperlinks to the most current versions of the codes, rather than excerpting them here. These important legal strictures are designed to ensure faculty's full participation in the educational and governance processes at community colleges.

- Education Code: § 70902 (b)(7) Governing Boards; Delegation Requires the local Board of Trustees to establish procedures to ensure participatory governance.

- Education Code: § 87359 (b) Waiver Of Minimum Qualifications; Equivalency
  Requires the local Board of Trustees to rely primarily upon the advice of the senate regarding faculty meet minimum qualifications.

- Education Code: § 87360 (b) Hiring Criteria
  Requires the local Board of Trustees to develop hiring criteria, policies, and procedures for new faculty members.

- Education Code: § 87458 (a) Administrative Retreat Rights
  Requires the local Board of Trustees to rely primarily upon the advice and judgment of the academic senate regarding procedures regarding administrators retreating into faculty positions.

- Education Code: § 87610.1(a) Tenure Evaluation Procedures
  Requires that collective bargaining agents, or faculty unions, consult with the academic senate prior to negotiating tenure evaluation procedures.

- Education Code: § 87663 (f) Evaluation Procedures
  Requires that collective bargaining agents, or faculty unions, consult with the academic senate prior to negotiating faculty evaluation procedures.

- Education Code: § 87743.2 Faculty Service Areas
  Requires that collective bargaining agents, or faculty unions, consult with the academic senate prior to negotiating Faculty Service Areas (FSA).

See Senate/Union (Part II.A.5 of this handbook) for a discussion on how union-senate consultation may differ from the “collegial consultation” in which senates and administrations engage.

Defining and Understanding the Role of the Academic Senate: Selected Passages from California Title 5 Specifying the Roles of the Academic Senate

The following section excerpts some of the significant segments of Title 5, Division 6: California Community Colleges. The California Code of Regulations website is maintained by Thomson Reuters, which does not create persistent links to sections of Title 5. While Title 5 changes often and one should always check the website for the most current version, local academic senate leaders can find the fundamental structure of how academic senates should and may interact with boards of trustees in Title 5, Division 6, Chapter 4 Employees, Subchapter 2 Certificated Positions, Article 2 Academic Senate

Part II: Roles and Responsibilities of the Senate
The Legal Basis: Education Code, Title 5, Accreditation, and Local Implementation

TITLE 5: §53200 Definitions
Academic Senate means an organization whose primary function is to make recommendations with respect to academic and professional matters.

Academic and Professional matters means the following policy development matters:
1. Curriculum, including establishing prerequisites.
2. Degree and certificate requirements.
3. Grading policies.
4. Educational program development.
5. Standards or policies regarding student preparation and success.
6. College governance structures, as related to faculty roles.
7. Faculty roles and involvement in accreditation processes.
8. Policies for faculty professional development activities.
9. Processes for program review.
10. Processes for institutional planning and budget development.
11. Other academic and professional matters as mutually agreed upon.

Consult Collegially means that the district governing board shall develop policies on academic and professional matters through either or both of the following:
1. Rely primarily upon the advice and judgment of the academic senate, OR
2. The governing board, or its designees, and the academic senate shall reach mutual agreement by written resolution, regulation, or policy of the governing board effectuating such recommendations.

TITLE 5: §55202 Formation; Procedures; Membership
The following procedure shall be used to establish an academic senate:
(a) The full-time faculty of a community college shall vote by secret ballot to form an academic senate.
(b) In multi-college districts, the full-time faculty of the district colleges may vote on whether or not to form a district academic senate. Such vote shall be by secret ballot.
(c) The governing board of a district shall recognize the academic senate and authorize the faculty to:
   (1) Fix and amend by vote of the full-time faculty the composition, structure, and procedures of the academic senate.
   (2) Provide for the selection, in accordance with accepted democratic election procedures, the members of the academic senate.
(d) The full-time faculty may provide for the membership and participation of part-time faculty members in the academic senate.
(e) In the absence of any full-time faculty members in a community college, the part-time faculty of such community college may form an academic senate.

TITLE 5: §53203 Powers
A) The governing board shall adopt policies for the appropriate delegation of authority and responsibility to its college academic senate.
B) In adopting the policies described in section (a), the governing board or designees, shall consult collegially with the academic senate.
C) While consulting collegially, the academic senate shall retain the right to meet with or appear before the governing board with respect to its views and recommendations. In addition, after consultation with the administration, the academic senate may present its recommendations to the governing board.
D) The governing board shall adopt procedures for responding to recommendations of the academic senate that incorporate the following:
1. When the board elects to rely primarily upon the advice and judgment of the academic senate, the recommendation of the senate will normally be accepted, and only in exceptional circumstances and for compelling reasons will the recommendations not be accepted.

2. When the board elects to provide for mutual agreement with the academic senate, and an agreement has not been reached, existing policy shall remain in effect unless such policy exposes the district to legal liability or fiscal hardship. In cases where there is no existing policy, or when legal liability or fiscal hardship requires existing policy to be changed, the board may act, after a good faith effort to reach agreement, only for compelling legal, fiscal, or organizational reasons.

E) An academic senate may assume such responsibilities and perform such functions as may be delegated to it by the governing board.

F) The appointment of faculty members to serve on college committees shall be made, after consultation with the chief executive officer or designee, by the academic senate. Notwithstanding this Subsection, the collective bargaining representative may seek to appoint faculty members to committees, task forces, or other groups.

TITLE 5: §53206 Academic Senate for California Community Colleges.

(a) An Academic Senate for the California Community Colleges has been established through ratification by local academic senates or faculty councils so that the community college faculty of California may have a formal and effective procedure for participating in the formation of state policies on academic and professional matters.

(b) The Board of Governors recognizes the Academic Senate of the California Community Colleges as the representative of community college academic senates or faculty councils before the Board of Governors and Chancellor's Office.

In addition to these regulations, other sections of the Education Code identify responsibilities the academic senate has, for example, in working with the local bargaining agent, in considering staff and student input, and in meeting both obligations and privileges delegated to the senate.¹

Incorporating the Law at the Local Level: Board Policy, Regulations, and Delegation of Authority

Board Policy, Regulations, and Administrative Procedures

The state laws and regulations noted above are put into operation at the local level by the local board of trustees. Education Code and Title 5 Regulations grant certain powers and call for specific actions on the part of local boards. Local boards of trustees codify the operations of their colleges and districts by formally adopting board policies. One purpose of board policies is to define how external regulations and policies (Federal Code, California Education Code, Title 5, Accreditation standards, etc.) will be executed at the local level. Board policies inform chancellors, college presidents, and administrations on how the local board of trustees has decided to locally implement federal and state requirements and the approved methods by which the district and colleges may operate.

Board policies are often broad, providing the umbrella definition or intent for compliance with a federal or state requirement. The procedure by which a college or district will follow the requirements is often enumerated in companion board regulations or administrative procedures. Practices and terminology regarding board policies, regulations, and procedures differ among various districts.

State laws and regulations often clearly stipulate the role that a local senate must play in formulating and revising local policies and regulations, particularly if they were generated by mutual agreement between the board and a senate. While many districts post their local policies and regulations on their websites, senate presidents should secure full and current copies of these documents for their local senate files and ask for periodic updates to ensure that the senate’s copies accurately reflect any recent board action. In addition, local senates should work with their administration to ensure that they are consulted as a part of the board policy and regulation review and creation processes, especially in regard to policies and regulations which impact the “10+1” items covered under Title 5.

Delegation of Authority
For an academic senate, the most significant board policy is that which establishes the delegation of authority and responsibility in decision making in accordance with Title 5. Title 5 §53203(a) stipulates,

The governing board of a community college district shall adopt policies for appropriate delegation of authority and responsibility to its college and/or district academic senate. Among other matters, said policies, at a minimum, shall provide that the governing board or its designees will consult collegially with the academic senate when adopting policies and procedures on academic and professional matters. This requirement to consult collegially shall not limit other rights and responsibilities of the academic senate which are specifically provided in statute or other Board of Governors regulations.

The Community College League of California (CCLC) Board Policy Service provides subscribing districts with templates and a common board policy numbering system. This service is used by a majority of college districts, and the template for Board Policy 2510 and Regulation/Administrative Procedure 2510 contain the district’s participatory governance policies. An example of the CCLC’s model board policy on participatory governance may be found in the supporting document CCLC Sample Board Policy on Participation in Local Decision Making (CCLC, 2014). College districts that do not use the CCLC templates either do not have a specific policy delegating authority to the academic senate or have used an alternative number for the policy.

The intent of the Community College Reform Act (AB 1725, Vasconcellos, 1988) as enacted in Title 5 §53200 through §53203 and local policy is to assure "effective participation" of all college constituencies and to ensure that the local governing board engages in “collegial consultation” with the academic senate on matters that are academic and professional in nature. Although local policies that enact these Title 5 sections are often called “shared governance” policies, the term “shared governance” does not appear in statute and, in fact, may contribute to misunderstandings. Moreover, some administrators or other parties may misinterpret the regulations to call for equal voice or mandatory consensus on all matters, even on academic and professional matters over which the faculty have purview and primacy. “Effective participation” means that affected parties must be afforded an opportunity to review and comment upon recommendations, proposals, and other matters. This right of all college constituencies to participate effectively in discussions extends to the academic and professional matters delineated in Title 5, and therefore the academic senate is bound to hear and give due consideration to such input; however, the academic senate retains its primacy regarding academic and professional matters and is not bound to adopt, accommodate, or reach consensus on concerns raised by other constituent groups. To attest to the fact the senate has afforded other groups opportunity to review proposals, the senate may wish to adopt a procedure and sign-off sheet; for an example, see Samples of Decision Review Sign-off Sheets (ASCCC, 2014).

Academic senates should review local policy annually so that all senators understand which of the “10 +1” academic and professional matters are defined as "rely primarily" and which are "mutually agreed" upon. The applications of these two levels of collegial consultation differ significantly, with each

Offering its own advantages and restrictions. If a governing board rejects the recommendation of the senate in regard to issues which fall within the “10 + 1” items, Title 5 has different requirements for the board to meet depending on whether the recommendation regards an item on which the board has agreed to “rely primarily upon the advice and judgment of the academic senate” or the item is one on which the governing board has elected to “provide for mutual agreement with the academic senate.”

If, for example, a governing board has elected to "rely primarily" upon the recommendation of a local senate for one or more of the “10 + 1” items, the board must ordinarily accept the senate's recommendations, except when "exceptional circumstances and compelling reasons" may exist. Participating Effectively in District and College Governance (ASCCC & CCLC, 1998), a document written by a joint task force of representatives of the California Community College Trustees (CCCT), the Chief Executive Officers of the California Community Colleges (CEOCCC) and the Academic Senate for California Community Colleges, makes the following point about the concepts “exceptional circumstances” and “compelling reasons”:

The regulations do not define the terms . . . and these terms are not intended to have a legal definition outside the context of this law. . . . These terms mean that . . . in instances where a recommendation is not accepted[,] the reasons for the board's decision must be in writing and based on a clear and substantive rationale which puts the explanation for the decision in an accurate, appropriate, and relevant context. (p. 4, Question 12) [Note: for a full copy of these discussions, please visit the Participating Effectively in District and College Governance (ASCCC & CCLC, 1998).

Likewise, if the governing board has elected to reach mutual agreement with the academic senate for one or more of the “10 + 1” items, the board can act without such agreement having been reached, as Participating Effectively in District and College Governance explains:

On the other hand, where the board has adopted a policy of mutual agreement on any or all of the “10 + 1” items, the board may not act without having reached agreement with the senate, except when the existing policy "exposes the district to legal liability or causes substantial fiscal hardship." In these circumstances, a board may act without reaching mutual agreement provided that it has made a good faith effort to reach agreement and has “compelling legal, fiscal or organizational reasons” to act without waiting any longer for agreement. (p. 5, Question 14)

The following chart offers a graphic representation of the differing requirements for board action in the absence of successful collegial consultation with the academic senate:

To avoid such action by the local board, senate and administration should come to an agreement on process and definitions before a conflict over a policy develops:

- The senate and the administration should establish a clear understanding regarding which of the 10+1 items on which the board has elected to rely primarily upon the advice and judgment of the senate and on which they will seek to reach mutual agreement with the senate. This agreement is normally defined in local board policy or regulation.
Local Senates Handbook
Part II: Roles and Responsibilities of the Senate
The Legal Basis: Education Code, Title 5, Accreditation, and Local Implementation

- The administration and the senate should define the terms of Title 5 §53203 by establishing what constitutes the following:
  - An exceptional circumstance
  - A compelling reason
  - A good faith effort
  - Organizational reasons
  - The threshold for fiscal hardship and legal liability
- A process should be established through which items that qualify as 10+1, or other academic and professional matters as mutually agreed upon, can be identified and conflicts over whether an item qualifies as a 10+1 issue can be resolved.
- The formal process should be established through which the senate may request a written explanation if the board rejects an item on which it has agreed to primarily rely upon the senate’s recommendation.
- While not required by Title 5 §53203, an effective practice to maintain relations between the senate and administration is to build a process through which the senate may request written explanation on “mutually agree upon” items on which the board has elected to move forward without the agreement of the senate.

The ASCCC Relations with Local Senates Committee has compiled a series of resources to assist local senates in working with their boards:

- A document which contains samples of 62 California Community College districts’ Board Policies, Compiled District BPs on Participatory Governance (ASCCC, 2014), and Regulations on Participatory Governance which shows how different districts have approached creating policy language defining how the senate and administration should work together.
- Decision-making handbooks from various colleges are available in the Resource Documents section at the bottom of the ASCCC Leadership Resources page.
- When the Board of Trustees (ASCCC, 2014), a guide to options for a senate after a Board of Trustees has rejected a recommendation from the senate.
College Governance, Senate/Union Relations, and Senate Roles in Accreditation

Governance, Effective Participation, and Collegial Consultation

The basis of the governance system in the California Community Colleges emanates from a fundamental belief in the importance of participatory decision-making. Education Code §70902(b)(7) directs local Boards of Trustees to “Establish procedures that are consistent with minimum standards established by the board of governors to ensure faculty, staff, and students the opportunity to express their opinions at the campus level, to ensure that these opinions are given every reasonable consideration, to ensure the right to participate effectively in district and college governance. . .” The most critical words in this passage are “participate effectively”: all college constituencies have a right under Education Code to have their voices heard and their positions given fair consideration before a local board takes action on an issue.

The Academic Senate’s 2009 paper California Community Colleges: Principles and Leadership in the Context of Higher Education offers the following characterization of the community college governance process:

The implication is that all members of a college community share a common commitment to the mission of the institution. California community colleges serve a wide range of statutory missions, from career technical education students who seek certificates and degrees, to students who seek to transfer with or without completing a degree, to noncredit, basic skills, and lifelong learners who may still be in the process of discovering (or rediscovering) their educational goals. This fundamental fact makes community colleges very different from California’s public four-year colleges whose student populations are virtually 100% degree-centered; their student population also arrives at a higher skill level, given the reliance of both systems on completion of A-G requirements (the 15 yearlong high school courses that must be completed to establish CSU and UC system eligibility) as a requirement of eligibility and their selectivity as defined in the Master Plan. While the composition of the student population of four-year colleges may be diverse, their nominal goal is homogenous. By contrast, both the composition and the intended goals of California community colleges are enormously diverse. p.23

The same paper goes on to note that a governance system that involves the participation of all college constituencies “is thus especially essential to California community colleges, since it is virtually impossible that any individual administrator or faculty member could be thoroughly familiar with the entire range of students’ educational goals or instructional and student support services necessary to help students meet those goals” and that “Because California community colleges are chronically underfunded, the need for internal collaboration as colleges seek to meet broad and sometimes competing missions becomes even more critical.”

However, while all constituent voices at the college must be heard and respected, Education Code §70902(b)(7) designates a more specific role for faculty by directing local boards to “ensure the right of academic senates to assume primary responsibility for making recommendations in the areas of curriculum and academic standards.” This essential role of faculty is further clarified in Title 5 Regulation §53200 (d), which defines the process through which local boards will consult collegially with academic senates:

Consult Collegially means that the district governing board shall develop policies on academic and professional matters through either or both of the following:

1. Rely primarily upon the advice and judgment of the academic senate, or
2. The governing board, or its designees, and the academic senate shall reach mutual agreement by written resolution, regulation, or policy of the governing board effectuating such recommendations.

California Community Colleges: Principles and Leadership in the Context of Higher Education again explains the reasoning behind this expanded role for faculty:

- Collaboration is necessary not only because of the faculty’s special expertise in curriculum and program development, but also because faculty are in the best position to guide colleges to the most effective use of limited resources capable of meeting the range of challenges community colleges face.
- Administrators who respect faculty are more likely in turn to be the recipients of respect from the faculty; administrators who have the respect of faculty can inspire the analysis and institutional change necessary to help institutions better serve their students.
- Administrators who don’t respect or collaborate with faculty will still lead institutions in which excellent teaching takes place in many classrooms, but such colleges are unlikely to reach the level of excellence that is the result of broad institutional collaboration.

Thus, while Education Code provides for the effective participation of all constituent groups in college governance processes, “collegial consultation” has a more direct and clearly defined meaning and applies specifically to academic senates, thus recognizing the expertise and the importance of faculty in college and district decision-making.

For more information on the importance of Collegial Consultation see the ASCCC report California Community Colleges: Principles and Leadership in the Context of Higher Education which discusses how collegial consultation leads to effective leadership.

Senate/Union Relations
The academic senate and a college’s collective bargaining agent, or faculty union, work together for the benefit of faculty, but questions often arise concerning the roles of the respective organizations. Put in its simplest terms, the academic senate represents the faculty in academic and professional matters and the collective bargaining agent represents the faculty regarding working conditions.
More specifically, the academic senate represents the faculty in the eleven specific areas defined by Title 5. Furthermore, the Education Code assigns additional responsibilities to academic senates, such as minimum qualifications and equivalency processes, faculty hiring, faculty evaluation and tenure review, administrative retreat rights, and faculty service areas. The collective bargaining agent represents the faculty in such areas as workload, assignment, working hours, academic calendar, and salary and benefits. Typically, the role and responsibilities of the collective bargaining agent are evident in the agreement between the bargaining agent and the district.

The roles and responsibilities of the academic senate and the bargaining agent frequently, and with good reason, overlap. For example, policies for faculty professional development is one of the academic and professional matters assigned to the academic senate by Title 5 Regulations. However, many collective bargaining agreements also address such areas, particularly with respect to flex service—though the focus might tend more toward the legal aspects of professional development such as service obligations. Likewise, sabbatical leaves (terms, application process, requirements, pay, etc.) are typically addressed in the collective bargaining agreement. However, as the intent of sabbaticals is to promote professional and personal growth and faculty professional development is among the academic and professional matters, some local senates elect the sabbatical committee chair, appoint committee members, and approve specific sabbatical proposals, which has the effect of making the sabbatical committee a senate committee. Protecting a senate committee's status in the contract does not make it any less a senate committee. The contract language should ensure that the local senate retains its right to appoint and report and to render decisions.

These examples demonstrate how local academic senates and the collective bargaining agents comingle their responsibilities. Those purviews are further entangled as the Education Code requires that bargaining agents consult with the academic senates prior to engaging in bargaining on evaluation, tenure review processes, and faculty service areas. Additionally, the bargaining agent should consult with the senate prior to negotiations to determine any additional areas of mutual interest and concern to be bargained. Some senates and unions may wish to establish joint committees or issues-oriented task forces to exchange information. Each organization has its primary area of responsibility and focus, and each may—and likely will—approach issues differently. In addition, each organization represents the same group of people. Faculty interests are best served when the two faculty representative groups work cooperatively with each other.

Other useful suggestions in negotiating the relationship between senates and unions are contained in the Academic Senate paper Developing a Model for Effective Senate/Union Relations (ASCCC, 1996). The ASCCC also has a number of other papers addressing the issue of the overlapping roles of local senates and bargaining agents, including the following:

- Enrollment Management Revisited (ASCCC, 2009) examines the academic and professional issues surrounding managing enrollment in classes and contains a section on the overlap of senate and bargaining agent interests with enrollment management.
- Program Discontinuance: A Faculty Perspective Revisited (ASCCC, 2012) reviews current regulation and statute, the role of local academic senates, effects on students, the need to balance

4 Specifically §§ 87610.1(a) Tenure Evaluation Procedures, 87663(f) Evaluation Procedures, and 87743.2 Faculty Service Areas of the Education Code requires collective bargaining agents (unions) to consult with the academic senate prior to negotiating faculty tenure and performance evaluation procedures as well as Faculty Service Areas.
Role of the Senate in Accreditation

The Academic Senate for California Community Colleges approved the following statement in Resolution 02.01 ASCCC Statement on Accreditation (Fall, 2013):

The Academic Senate for California Community Colleges (ASCCC) values the peer review process of self-reflection and improvement known as accreditation. Since local academic senates are given Title 5-designated roles within the accreditation process, the ASCCC sees its primary responsibility as helping colleges to meet the adopted standards for which they will be held accountable and to generate comprehensive and forthright assessments of progress toward the standards. Our main tool for supporting colleges is the annual Accreditation Institute through which faculty and other colleagues are encouraged to learn about and address the standards and recommendations from the Accrediting Commission for Community and Junior Colleges. Additionally, the ASCCC shares accreditation information and support through local college visits and regional presentations. As a professional matter, in support of the ideal of a fair and meaningful accreditation process, our secondary responsibility is to recommend improvements to the accreditation standards and processes by providing thoughtful feedback and input to all accreditation participants.

The relationship between the Academic Senate, both locally and statewide, and accreditation is unique. At the local level, academic senates have a legal role in the accreditation process as outlined in Title 5 Regulation’s list of academic and professional matters designated to senates (the 10+1), an official responsibility in the accreditation process that no other faculty constituent group is afforded. At the state level, the ASCCC has supported faculty’s accreditation work since its founding, with even more pronounced involvement in accreditation training and assistance over the past 10 years. Since the senate-accreditation relationship continues to evolve, the current roles of both local senates and the ASCCC with respect to the accreditation process may not be immediately familiar to new faculty leaders or other faculty experiencing accreditation for the first time.

For local senates, the role of faculty in accreditation processes is defined as one of the 10+1 academic and professional matters. As Title 5 makes clear, local senates make recommendations regarding “faculty roles and involvement in accreditation processes, including self-study and annual reports.” Just as with other academic and professional matters in the 10+1, district governing boards must either rely primarily upon or mutually agree with the academic senate on faculty accreditation roles and involvement. As with all academic and professional matters, the determination of whether a board will rely primarily upon or mutually agree with the academic senate with respect to faculty roles on accreditation belongs to the interpretation of the local college or district and is typically defined in board policy. In a day-to-day sense, academic senates are responsible for ensuring effective and meaningful faculty participation in accreditation by participating in accreditation planning, confirming faculty to serve on accreditation committees, providing leadership in the areas of the Accreditation Standards that fall under academic purview, and interacting with the evaluation team during the team’s visit. The academic senate president of a college often serves as chair or co-chair of an accreditation committee, particularly the college-wide accreditation coordinating committee or one of the two standards committees which most relate to academic and professional matters, Standard II (instruction) or Standard IV (governance). At the 2013 ASCCC Accreditation Institute, keynote speaker Nathan Tharp noted that the faculty member with the most accreditation information on virtually every campus he studied was the academic senate president. Because the academic senate president is required to sign all of the reports sent to the Accrediting Commission, including annual reports local academic senates must be significantly involved and familiar with accreditation and all that it entails.5

Since 1986, the ASCCC has passed over 100 resolutions regarding accreditation and published the paper Effective Practices in Accreditation: A Guide for Faculty. This long history of ASCCC positions provides a varied and nuanced series of faculty perspectives on the accreditation process; nevertheless, several key positions permeate the body’s work:

- Faculty and academic senates have a primary role in the accreditation process.
- In order to be meaningful and fair, visiting teams must include faculty representatives who have received appropriate training and have been appointed in a way that allows them to complete an independent evaluation.
- Faculty and senate leaders should be given an opportunity to develop and review accreditation documents for accuracy.
- Faculty and academic senate input is crucial as accreditation standards are being revised.
- Accreditation standards should be based upon evidence and research rather than trends.
- The Academic Senate opposes the reductionist imposition of a corporate/business model of evaluation on the complex reality of teaching and learning.
- The Academic Senate rejects efforts to tie faculty evaluations to student attainment of learning outcomes because so many variables outside the faculty’s control impact student success.
- Although the Academic Senate understands that any accreditation process entails certain necessary expenditures, the Academic Senate is concerned about the growing resource costs and time expenditures required to conform to recent accreditation mandates and processes.
- The Academic Senate is open to exploring other methods and organizations for accreditation purposes.6

Part III. Duties as a Local Senate President

The following section is intended to provide an overview of typical duties performed or delegated by academic senate presidents. This list offers a starting place from which to shape questions about a new senate president’s responsibilities; it should not be taken as an official job description against which a senate president should be measured but rather as a checklist of responsibilities others have encountered.

This part of the handbook contains sections on the general duties of a senate president, recommendations for developing senate participation and leadership, a list of college or district reports which require the sign-off of the senate president, and effective practices in appointing faculty to committees.

A LOCAL SENATE PRESIDENT’S DUTIES INCLUDE THE FOLLOWING:

Being familiar with the statutory and regulatory context in which the senate operates
- Protect and honor the participation of faculty in institutional decision making regarding academic and professional matters as defined by Title 5 Regulations:
  1. Curriculum, including establishing prerequisites.
  2. Degree and certificate requirements.
  3. Grading policies.
  4. Educational program development.
  5. Standards or policies regarding student preparation and success.
  6. College governance structures, as related to faculty roles.
  7. Faculty roles and involvement in accreditation processes.
  8. Policies for faculty professional development activities.
  9. Processes for program review.
  10. Processes for institutional planning and budget development.
  11. Other academic and professional matters as mutually agreed upon.
- Identify and address statutory and regulatory issues in Education Code, and Title 5 Regulations as they relate to academic and professional matters and organize a faculty response in a collegial and timely manner (for more information see Part II of this handbook: Sections of Education Code Affecting Academic Senates).
- Observe the letter and spirit of all applicable laws, especially the Open Meetings Acts (see Part IV of this handbook: Compliance with the Open Meeting Acts for more information).
  - Develop agendas for and chair meetings of the academic senate.
  - Ensure the timely publication of the senate agenda.
  - Disseminate other documents, such as minutes, reports, and supportive evidence, in a timely fashion pertinent to committee or senate discussion and action.
- Ensure the effective participation of faculty in the joint development of institutional policy, e.g., minimum qualifications and equivalencies, faculty hiring procedures, tenure review, faculty service areas, and faculty evaluation procedures.
- Adhere to the specific institutional responsibilities outlined in local constitution and by-laws.
- Implement college and district governance policies, ensuring the effective participation of other governance groups and the primacy of faculty on academic and professional matters.
- As required by Title 5, after consultation with the chief executive officer or designee, appoint faculty representatives to college and district-wide committees (see Committee Appointments later in this section for more information)

Advocating for Faculty Interests
Local Senates Handbook
Part III: Roles and Responsibilities of the Senate
Recommendations for Developing Senate Participation and Leadership

- Serve as the official spokesperson and advocate for the faculty in academic and professional matters.
- Work to resolve academic and professional concerns of individual faculty members.
- In matters not involving academic and professional issues, refer faculty to appropriate processes.
- Provide initiative in identifying and pursuing important institutional issues.
- Meet regularly with the superintendent/president and the vice-presidents and with other administrative staff as needed.
- Advocate for appropriate faculty professional development funding and ask to have such funding called out and earmarked in appropriate grants calling for the senate president’s or designee’s signature.
- Archive the senate's historical records.
- Sign certain institutional documents and reports sent to relevant authorities, e.g., Matriculation Plan, Accreditation Self-study, and Annual Report (for more information see College/District Reports Requiring Senate Sign-Off, Review Or Vigilance later in this section).

Promoting an Effective Relationship with the Board of Trustees

- Attend and participate in meetings of the Governing Board or college administration. 7
  - New faculty and trustees should receive orientation on board, faculty, and administrative responsibilities regarding participatory governance and expectations about faculty involvement in governance.
  - Faculty, administration, and board members must have opportunities to interact, both formally and informally.
  - The governing board’s policies should acknowledge the expectation that faculty exercise expertise and responsibility in the areas of academic and professional matters.
  - The various college constituencies should have an opportunity to provide reasonable input into major college decisions.
  - A predisposition toward and commitment to mutual respect and trust should exist among all parties, even when they seriously disagree.
  - All members of the college community should support successful compromise as the highest end and be willing to negotiate differences.
  - Colleges and districts should establish generally accepted and codified rules for settling disagreements among constituencies.
- Attend other functions of the board, such as retreats and study-sessions, if possible.
- Communicate recommendations of senate positions relating to academic and professional matters to the Board.
- Serve as the primary source of recommendations to the Governing Board on academic and professional matters.
- Participate in the review and creation of board policies and regulations which impact academic and professional matters (see Part II of this handbook: Board Policy for more information).

Maintaining Contact with the Academic Senate for California Community Colleges

- Attend fall and spring pre-plenary Area Meetings
  - Before the Area Meetings, work with the local senate to develop any resolutions that the senate would like to have introduced at the plenary. Bring any such resolutions to the Area Meeting for discussion.
- Attend and participate in the fall and spring Academic Senate Plenary Sessions.

Before the Plenary Sessions, distribute the draft resolutions to the local senate for discussion.

After the Plenary Session, distribute the adopted resolutions.

- Attend ASCCC Institutes such as the following:
  - Curriculum Institute
  - Faculty Leadership Institute
  - Career and Noncredit Education/Vocational Leadership Institute
  - Academic Academy
  - Accreditation Institute

- Attend ASCCC Regional Meetings, a series of one-day regional workshops on such topics as basic skills, student equity and success, and curriculum.

- Use the ASCCC website’s search feature to look for resources, such as resolutions, Rostrum articles, or papers, to help inform the local senate and college discussions.

- Seek information about the deliberations of system-wide organizations that may impact California community colleges.
  - Subscribe to ASCCC Listservs. The ASCCC has over 50 different listservs, from discipline specific to broader governance issues.
  - Read the ASCCC Rostrum.

- Remain vigilant about legislation affecting the California community colleges.
  - The Faculty Association of California Community Colleges (FACCC) website provides an excellent legislation tracker: go to http://www.faccc.org/current-legislation/
  - The California Community College Chancellor’s Office Advocates Listserv provides email updates on current legislation. To receive these updates, interested parties can send an e-mail from the address to be subscribed to listserv@listserv.cccnext.net and put “subscribe advocates” in the body of a blank, non-html e-mail with no subject or signatures.
  - The Community College League of California (CCLC) also publishes a great deal of useful information regarding legislation under the “government relations” tab of its website (www.ccleague.org). This site includes analysis of bills, legislative updates, and even an advocacy handbook.

Maintaining Effective Relationships with Other Governance Groups

- Work with the collective bargaining agent, or faculty union, in the joint development of institutional policy on topics where organizational purview overlaps, such as minimum qualifications and equivalencies, faculty hiring procedures, tenure review, faculty service areas, and faculty evaluation procedures (see Part II of this handbook: Senate/Union for more information).

- Work with students and student organizations such as the local student senate to ensure their effective participation in areas and issues that may have significant effect on students individually and the student body at large.
  - Title 5 §51023.7 defines the following as issues on which colleges and districts must provide students the opportunity to “participate in formulation and development of district and college policies and procedures that have or will have a significant effect on students.”
    1. Grading policies;
    2. Codes of student conduct;
    3. Academic disciplinary policies;
    4. Curriculum development;
    5. Courses or programs which should be initiated or discontinued;

(6) Processes for institutional planning and budget development;
(7) Standards and policies regarding student preparation and success;
(8) Student services planning and development;
(9) Student fees within the authority of the district to adopt; and
(10) Any other district and college policy, procedure, or related matter that the district governing board determines will have a significant effect on students.

- Work with staff to ensure their effective participation in areas that “matter significantly” to them.
  - Title 5 §51023.5 requires that “governing boards of a community college district shall adopt policies and procedures that provide district and college staff the opportunity to participate effectively in district and college governance.”
  - Title 5 does not delineate specific issues which “matter significantly” to staff but instead identifies such issues as those that the local governing board “reasonably determines, in consultation with staff, have or will have a significant effect on staff.” (Title 5 §51023.5 (a) (4)).

RECOMMENDATIONS FOR DEVELOPING SENATE PARTICIPATION AND LEADERSHIP

- Conduct orientations of new faculty to explain the functions of the local senate.
- Foster connections with the faculty beyond the senate (for more on this see Part IV of this handbook: Keeping the Faculty Informed)
  - Visit department or division meetings once each year or term, preferably at the beginning, and explain how the work of the senate can help address each discipline group’s unique perspective on specific academic and professional matters. These visits can be a great tool for recruiting faculty for senate committees.
- Create an orientation for new senators to help them understand their role and the role of the senate in participatory governance.
- Develop a periodic ongoing academic senate training program to reinforce awareness and understanding of senate roles and purview. An example of such a program might be to set aside time in some or all senate meetings to discuss specific governance or policy issues and responses to them. Focusing on one of the scenarios developed jointly by the ASCCC and the Community College League of California, available at http://asccc.org/papers/scenarios-illustrate-effective-participation-district-and-college-governance, can be a good foundation for such discussions.
- Encourage other faculty to participate in the events sponsored by the Academic Senate for California Community Colleges.
- Provide leadership to senate, college, and district-wide committees to ensure productive and efficient completion of tasks and regular reporting to the senate as a whole.
- Identify and mentor potential future faculty leaders, such as committee chairs, task force chairs, and senate officers. (For more on this see Planning—Finding a Replacement in this section)

(For more specifics on faculty participation in participatory governance see Part IV of this handbook: Faculty Participation)

Foster Communication

- Engage in ongoing discussions with faculty on the issues of the day.
- Facilitate the development and vetting of faculty views.
- Facilitate communication among the faculty and with administration and the governing Board.
- Ensure that minutes of the local senate meetings, its Executive Council meetings, if applicable, and other meetings of the body are published in a timely manner and in line with the Open Meeting Act.
Engage in and keep record of local senate correspondence, including electronic communications. (For more information on what types of materials should be archived see Part IV, Resources Available in Senate Files.)

- These records will be invaluable for future leaders to understand previous decision making processes and reasoning.
- These records may provide evidence for accreditation reporting.
- Legal requirements, either local or state, may require certain records to be kept.

Encourage the maintenance of a local senate website.

Communicate with and respond promptly to requests for information from the Academic Senate for California Community Colleges.

(For more specifics on fostering communication see Part IV of this handbook: Keeping the Faculty Informed)

Secure Resources to Ensure Senate Success

- Work with the local administration to identify the types of budget resources, such as reassigned time or travel, available to the senate.
- Work with the administration to put in writing any budget agreements to fund the senate. Informal agreements have a habit of disappearing with rapidly shifting administration members.
- Justify to the college administration why inadequate resources may harm students, accreditation, campus climate, and effective participatory governance in order to convince the college to increase resources.

Further Efforts to Appoint and Retain Qualified Personnel

- Appoint faculty to administrative hiring committees.
- Participate, as permitted by law, in the evaluation of staff, including administrators with whom the senate presidents work, as well as staff serving the local senate.
- Assure effective faculty participation on various institutional groups, e.g., Student Success Committee, Department Chairs, Staff development.
- Assure diverse faculty representation on hiring and evaluation committees.
- Assist in the orderly transfer of authority to the senate president-elect.

Organize and Delegate Authority: Working with a Local Senate Executive Team

The responsibilities of the senate leadership may seem daunting, but delegating specific tasks to each member of the senate’s executive team can make it manageable. A senate’s executive team may be organized in numerous effective ways. While no single way of organizing the executive team is correct, the duties of each of the senate officers should be clearly defined. Senates may decide to assign recurring items such as governance committee representation, recording and dissemination of minutes, and overseeing elections to a specific officer commiserate with compensation or reassigned time. The responsibilities of the senate executive members should be delineated in the senate bylaws or procedures document. [For an example of how this has been done by several senates around the state, see the Senate Constitution and Bylaw Codex. (ASCCC, 2014).]

9 Title 5 §59020 through §59026 define types of records and the length of time that they must be maintained by college districts. Local boards will also often have policies and regulations regarding which records need to be maintained.

Part III: Roles and Responsibilities of the Senate
Recommendations for Developing Senate Participation and Leadership

Senate president should also involve senate officers in decision making and encourage their participation in ASCCC functions such as Plenary Sessions, Area Meetings, and Faculty Leadership Institutes.

Responsibilities within a Multi-college District
In addition to the responsibilities noted above, a local senate president in a multi-college district will have additional duties:

- Serve as the representative of his or her college.
- Serve or appoint others to serve on district committees as requested by the chancellor or district-level administrators.
- Be responsible to see that board rules, particularly those governing curriculum and hiring processes, are adhered to both at the district and college level.
- Be the major conduit for district-wide information that must reach the college faculty—and sometimes other constituencies—in a timely manner.
- Advise the district on the college senate's positions on present and emergent policy matters.

Succession Planning
One of the earliest tasks of a new senate president is to identify a potential successor—his or her replacement. This successor might be a current or past member of the executive board as well as a current or past senate member as appropriate.

- Consult the senate’s constitution and or bylaws for guidelines on term limits, succession patterns, and election procedures. If this process does not appear in the senate constitution and or bylaws, the senate might want to begin the discussion to codify these processes.
- Budget allowing, invite potential senate leaders to attend the ASCCC Leadership Institute along with Plenary Sessions and other events sponsored by the Academic Senate along with the president. This practice is superior to sending potential leaders alone and can help to provide mentoring.
- Show interested individuals how the responsibilities of the senate president are manageable through delegation of responsibilities.
- Cast a wide net. Senate presidents need to have a sufficient pipeline for the future and may identify future senate leaders in unexpected places.
- Assign potential senate leaders increasing responsibility as their interests allow.
- Urge individuals interested in acquiring leadership skills to enroll in the ASCCC Professional Development College.

Utilizing Mentors and Advisors
- Past senate presidents are a valuable resource. A senate president should find individuals with whom he or she can relate and seek out their advice in challenging situations.
- Current senate presidents in a multi-college district can also guide a new president through rough patches. Utilize colleagues’ expertise as appropriate.
- Request a visit from ASCCC leaders, including members of the Relations with Local Senates committee.
COLLEGE/DISTRICT REPORTS REQUIRING SENATE SIGN-OFF, REVIEW OR VIGILANCE

The table below contains a listing of reports or documents calling for the local senate president's signature or senate approval, as well as materials requiring senate vigilance as they move through administrative channels, often without required local senate review. While this table provides tentative due dates as of this publication, these reports are often fluid and districts may sometimes apply for reporting extensions. Further, new action by the legislature or the Board of Governors may eliminate or increase the reporting obligations of a college. Use this table as a starting point to inquire about the responsibilities the senate president may share with the offices of financial aid, matriculation, transfer centers, economic development, research and grants, and elsewhere across the campus.

Grant applications often require a senate president’s signature to attest that the faculty has considered the academic implications. In practice, many local senate presidents report that administrators or grant-seeking faculty solicit needed signatures only days or hours before the document is due; other applicants may submit reports or forms without documentation, necessary budget information, or other essential information. To avoid these pressing circumstances, the Academic Senate recommends the following techniques:

- Inform the college faculty and administrators that materials calling for the senate president’s signature or approval must be submitted in their entirety to provide enough time for a full review of the academic senate in advance of the intended mailing or submission date.
- Refuse to sign materials that are incomplete or are proffered in circumvention of the senate’s established process. Such a refusal is not unprofessional if administration has not followed proper procedure.
- Insofar as possible, inform the faculty or administrators that materials requiring senate approval will be taken to the next senate meeting or officers' cabinet meeting as stipulated by senate bylaws or standing rules. "I will get back to you as soon as the senate has made its decision" is an acceptable and responsible statement.
- If a document or report requiring the senate’s approval arrives late for what appear to be legitimate reasons and such late submissions are unusual for the local administration, then exploring a method to expedite the approval in this specific case can be the collegial action. In contrast, if the administration makes a habit of such late submissions, that habit is unlikely to change unless the senate insists on following proper procedures and withholds approval until the process has been followed.

COMMITTEE APPOINTMENTS
All faculty appointments to any college body dealing with academic and professional matters as defined in Title 5 Regulations, with the exception of those specifically called out as being appointed by the bargaining agents, are to be made by the academic senate. Local academic senates may choose to delegate the responsibility for making certain appointments to the senate president without formal senate approval. Appointments to non-senate committees are made by the academic senate after consultation between the local senate president and the college president or chancellor (Title 5).

Reassigned Time for Participatory Governance Work
Although each college is different, the academic senate should engage in a dialog with the administration regarding reassigned time for the agreed-upon and legally-mandated work of the senate and its committees. Certain practices may help to facilitate this dialog:

1) Remind administrators that a properly functioning senate is essential to the governance and health of the college and its accreditation.
2) Compile a list of agreed-upon responsibilities.
3) Create a list of duties and identify the workload necessary to accomplish them.
4) Negotiate fair compensation or reassigned time based on the identified workload.
5) Ensure that all agreements are recorded in writing.

Strategies to Increase Participation
For a discussion on strategies for increasing faculty participation see Part IV of this handbook: Faculty Participation.
Part IV. Ensuring the Effectiveness of the Local Senate

Local shared governance policies codify the standing of local senates (for more on this topic see Part II in this handbook: Incorporating the Law at the Local Level: Board Policy, Regulations, and Delegation of Authority). This section of the handbook provides some effective practices for working with a college administration, running efficient senate meetings, adapting the ASCCC Resolution process for a local senate, keeping the faculty informed, and engaging faculty participation. This section also offers a list of resources to keep archived in senate files and an explanation of how a Technical Visit can assist in institutionalizing a senate's effectiveness.

PLACEMENT IN THE COLLEGE’S GOVERNANCE STRUCTURE

Education Code and Title 5 Regulations clearly indicate the purview and role of the local senate within the college’s governance structure. That delegation of authority places the local academic senate in a unique position: the senate president has direct access to the board of trustees and can bring forward items to be placed on the board agenda without filtering by administrators. The voice of faculty must be given primacy on the 10 +1 academic and professional matters called out in Education Code and Title 5 (See Part II of this handbook: The Legal Basis: Education Code, Title 5, Accreditation, and Local Implementation). Because Education Code §70902(b)(7) guarantees all college constituent groups the right to “participate effectively” in discussions of matters that may impact them, the local administration and the local academic senate are obligated to hear and give due consideration to all relevant voices in developing recommendations. However, the senate is not bound to accommodate or reach consensus with other constituencies regarding academic and professional matters, and allowing equal voice to all constituent groups in college or district decision making regarding issues that fall under the 10+1 areas violates both the spirit and the letter of Title 5 Regulations.

Even with the clear regulatory language in regard to the role of the academic senate in governance, senate presidents may find themselves in situations where academic and professional matters are placed on an agenda for a meeting of a college council or similar all-college governance group. If the academic and professional matters are placed on an agenda for information or general discussion and comment, that in itself is not necessarily cause for concern or alarm. On the other hand, if those academic and professional matters are placed on an agenda for some type of action or a recommendation to the governing board or to the chancellor or college president, such a practice is not appropriate because it does not respect the academic senate’s purview.

Under these circumstances the senate president must dissuade the body considering the item from taking action, using the opportunity to educate the body as to the privilege and primacy of the academic senate on academic and professional matters. The senate president might choose to distribute to the body the portions of Title 5 that define the senate’s purview and may further urge the body to declare the matter an academic and professional matter, indicating its acknowledgement of the senate’s official status on the issue at hand. As the document Participating Effectively in District and College Governance states,

> Many colleges have found coordinating councils useful, but some cautions are warranted . . . a coordinating council is not the appropriate body to make recommendations to the governing board or designee on academic and professional matters. These issues are appropriately within the purview of the academic senate. Furthermore, care should be taken in placing decision-making authority in the hands of coordinating councils. The strength of participatory governance lies in recommendations being made by those who have the necessary expertise and are most affected by the decision. (ASCCC & CCLC, Page 8, 1998)

While the senate should welcome and even encourage the interest and opinions of classified staff colleagues, management colleagues, and students, the recommendation must come from the official voice of the faculty, the academic senate, on academic and professional matters.
Clearly, a communication channel that permits timely and orderly exchange of information at every level of the governance structure is critical to the work of a senate president. A local senate president’s responsibility is to ask the senate to deliberate on policy and procedural questions that affect academic and professional matters, enabling the senate president to act both as the principal watchdog for the faculty and as their chief spokesperson once the senate has voiced its stance. At the same time, a senate president must avoid appearing to speak for the senate prematurely, for administrators may tend to assume that if they have consulted with the senate president, they have consulted with the senate itself. Local senate presidents must be nimble, articulate, persuasive, diplomatic, persistent, and, most of all, determined. Often when the senate president attempts to dissuade committees from taking action or recommending action to the governing board, chancellor, or president, others will cite expediency and urgency as reasons to bypass proper process and may even suggest that the senate president’s vote on the committee represents senate recommendation. On these occasions, the senate president should remind those present that proper and prudent expediency can be achieved through foresight and clear communication and that the senate cannot be reasonably represented on matters that have not be brought before it for deliberation.

EFFECTIVE SENATE OPERATIONS

The next section will offer some strategies to ensure that the senate itself benefits from effective participation. To be wholly effective and participatory, the senate must see the senate president’s own leadership as open, encouraging of a free exchange of information, and respectful of those who express divergent and even unpopular points of view. In exchange, as faculty serve the senate on committees and task forces, they must report back to and receive their direction from the senate: they must carry forth the expressed will of the local senate.

Constitutions and Bylaws

Each local academic senate needs a constitution, and each would benefit from having a set of bylaws in place as well. Though these terms are sometimes used interchangeably, technically the constitution of an organization sets out the fundamental principles that govern a group’s nature, function, and limitations of governance. A constitution also explains how the body is "constituted," and it typically defines who the officers are and how they are selected for and removed from office. Thus, the constitution might identify the purposes of the local academic senate and define which officers comprise the senate's executive committee. A senate’s constitution is typically voted on by the faculty at large and may require approval of the full faculty to amend.

Bylaws, on the other hand, are guidelines or operating procedures to implement the constitution and are often developed and revised by the senate itself. Bylaws spell out how the organization conducts its business and may even specify the time period during which business will be done. Thus, a typical set of bylaws will do the following:

- Articulate the senate's election process, including the composition of the election committee, voting procedure, vote counting procedure, duration of the election period, announcement of results, and assumption of office by elected faculty.
- Address development and distribution processes for meeting agendas and any other similar procedural matter.
- Delineate the job requirements of the senate’s executive committee (for more on this see Part III of this handbook: Organizing and Delegating Authority)

Constitutions and bylaws should be regularly reviewed to ensure that all senators are familiar with the requirements and procedures of the senate. Senate constitutions and bylaws should not be capriciously changed to solve singular issues. Revisions of senate constitutions and bylaws should be driven by significant organizational change, recognition that over time the operations of the senate might have evolved to ensure compliance, or response to new situations.

The Academic Senate website offers several examples of both constitutions and bylaws that local senates can use to develop or revise their own documents. [For samples of senate constitutions and bylaws see the Senate Constitution and Bylaw Codex (ASCCC, 2014).]

Goal Setting, Status Reports, and Annual Reports

Many local senates determine annual goals, building upon the previous years' achievements as well as residual tasks yet to be completed. If a senate has not considered developing a work-plan for the year, a good place to begin is with an examination of senate responsibilities as detailed in statute and policy.

Once the senate—or its officers, depending upon the senate’s bylaws—has articulated and publicized its goals, the senate may want to examine its progress periodically and produce a year-end report that can be shared with all faculty as well as with other governance groups and the local board. This annual report, such as the one shown in the Sample Senate Annual Report document, may include any recommendations for the coming year. The annual report can also provide the foundation for subsequent senates and their officers and permits them to set priorities that are proactive rather than reactive.

Compliance with the Open Meeting Acts

The people of this State do not yield their sovereignty to the agencies which serve them. The people, in delegating authority, do not give their public servants the right to decide what is good for the people to know and what is not good for them to know. The people insist on remaining informed so that they may retain control over the instruments they have created. (Government Code § 54950)

One of the obligations local senate presidents encounter with some trepidation is following the requirements of the Open Meetings Act (Government Code 54950-54960.5), also called the Ralph M. Brown Act. The requirement for community college academic senates to follow the Brown Act is explicitly addressed in California Attorney General Opinion 83-304, dated July 28, 1983.

The Attorney General concluded that academic senates are subject to Brown Act requirements because Title 5 requires that local community college governing boards must recognize their local academic senate and thus local senates are subordinate creations of local boards of trustees.

Due to the interpretation of the California Attorney General’s Office, local academic senates must follow the requirements of the Ralph M. Brown Act. Local senates should consult with their college or district legal counsel for advice on interpreting how the Brown Act may apply to the specifics of how their senates and committees operate. The information provided below is taken directly from the language of the statute and is provided for information purposes only; it does not constitute legal advice.

- Senates must “report any action taken and the vote or abstention on that action of each member present for the action.” (Government Code §54953)
- Senates may not hold secret votes. This includes voting for officers within the senate. (Government Code §54953)
- If a senate meeting is held via teleconferencing or utilizes other technological applications for remote participation, all votes taken must be by roll call. (Government Code §54953.b.2.)
- Unless the senate is conferring with legal counsel, it may not go into closed session (Government Code §54954.5.a to k)
- Senates must provide the opportunity for members of the public to directly address the senate. The senate may set reasonable limits on public comment. (See the code for specifics). (Government Code §54954.3)

Part IV: Ensuring the Effectiveness of the Local Senate

- Senate agendas must be physically posted 72 hours before a regular meeting in a “location that is freely accessible to members of the public and on the local agency’s Internet Web site, if the local agency has one.” (Government Code §54954.2.a.1)

For more information on the Open Meeting requirements for academic senates, see the following resources:

Setting and Posting Agendas

While the Open Meetings Acts outline the legal responsibilities for posting of an agenda, they do not fully spell out acceptable or pragmatic suggestions for setting and subsequently posting agendas for meetings of the local senate or its standing committees. Generally, the president meets with officers prior to the 72 hour deadline for posting of the agenda; at that time, the officers can identify carry-over items, new business, needed reports, and other matters of business called for by faculty or even administrators who have asked to have an item placed upon the agenda. While the determination of the agenda is conventionally the prerogative of the president alone, consultation with other officers is helpful. Moreover, to encourage faculty deliberation of academic and professional matters and to ensure the effective participation of other governance groups as required by law, the local senate should extend an open, standing invitation to the college community to present items to be considered for placement on an agenda. Some local senates hold regular Executive Council or Cabinet meetings between senate meetings to plan their agendas for the forthcoming weeks and to take up urgent matters. Such meetings provide a convenient deadline for the submission of items to be considered at future meetings.

District senates face the same obligations--and strategic dilemma--that college senates do. Agendas are generally distributed to the local senate presidents and committee chairs (e.g., curriculum, accreditation, faculty development) on each campus; the obligations of additional posting then fall to the local senates. Electronic posting of agendas makes it possible to email them to all faculty, depending upon local choice or need.

The Order of Business

The order of business of a senate meeting may well already be spelled out in local senate bylaws, or a senate may use the standard order of business recommended under the parliamentary procedures outlined in Roberts Rules of Order. A senate meeting can be organized in many ways; some common elements include the following:

- Call to Order
- Public Comment
- Record of the Previous Meeting
- Agenda of the Current Meeting
- Consent Calendar
- Reports of Standing Committees
- Reports of Special Committees
- Special Orders
- Unfinished Business
- New Business
- President's Report
- Announcements and Open Forum
- Adjournment

The Relations with Local Senates Committee has compiled a document with examples of different senate agendas Sample Agendas (ASCCC, 2014).

Public Comments at Meetings

A significant feature of an academic senate agenda is the placement of public comment, a requirement of the Open Meetings Acts. The laws permit the body to determine the placement and manner of public comment; in other words, the local senate can determine for itself the length of time allotted to each speaker, as well as the placement on the agenda when non-senate members can address the body both on matters on the agenda and on matters of a more general nature. A "Public Comment" item at the beginning of a meeting is generally intended to elicit comments on matters on the agenda for the current meeting, while an "Open Forum" section near the end of the agenda permits visitors--and senators--to bring to the floor matters not currently on the agenda, though action may not be taken on such items.
Again, the law permits the senate to establish time limits. Significantly, however, the law is explicit in its insistence that speakers do not need to sign "permission to speak" slips or in other ways provide identifying information about themselves other than on the most voluntary basis.

In weighing the options a senate has regarding public comment, a senate president might consider these strategies adopted by local senates throughout the state:

● Permit non-senators—including faculty, students, administrators, or other interested parties—to address the body on agenda items only at the beginning or the end of the meeting. This practice is more convenient for non-senators who may have difficulty remaining through the entire meeting until the agenda item of interest to them comes up. However, if this practice is employed, earlier comments will not be as fresh when the item comes up for discussion later in the agenda, commentators lose the opportunity to hear and participate in the more full debate on the issue, and speakers may be rushed or discouraged from participation when public comments are placed at the end of the agenda.

● Permit non-senators—including faculty, students, administrators, or other interested parties—to address the body on agenda items as those items appear on the agenda. Again, even under this arrangement, various options exist: non-senators may be allowed to speak before the senators, during the debate, or only at the end of the discussion prior to any vote taken.
   a. In the first arrangement, non-senate participants who speak before the senators begin their debate enable the senators to be fully informed about the views of others and to respond to their comments or questions.
   b. If allowed to participate in the debate itself, outside voices can raise pertinent questions and provide points of information or clarification. However, their voices may receive undue weight and extend their participation beyond any established time period generally allotted for public comment.
   c. If non-senate participants are asked to withhold their comments until the senate has conducted its debate, important observations may not be shared or may not subsequently be subject to refutation or rebuttal by the senate.

● Permit non-senators—including faculty, students, administrators, or other interested parties—to address the body on matters of interest not on the agenda at the end of the meeting or in writing.

● Create and use consultation forms to be circulated among other governance groups to afford them due opportunity to review and comment and to provide written or oral testimony at senate meetings if necessary. Sample forms are available in the document Samples of Decision Review Sign-off Sheets (ASCCC, 2014).

● Create combinations of these strategies to reflect the college culture while ensuring broad and effective participation.

Posting Agendas

Senate agendas must be physically posted 72 hours before a regular meeting in a “location that is freely accessible to members of the public and on the local agency’s Internet Web site, if the local agency has one” (Government Code §54954.2.a.1). A local senate must identify the means and location of posting to enable interested parties to attend the meeting or to communicate with their elected representatives prior to the scheduled meeting. This obligation is even more critical for colleges with affiliated centers or for district senates having multiple colleges with whom they must communicate. The following do not meet the requirements of the Brown Act:

● Bulletin boards in offices or other areas inaccessible to the general public 24 hours per day;
Local Senates Handbook
Part IV: Ensuring the Effectiveness of the Local Senate

- Affixed to interior windows or behind other barriers that do not permit viewing of the full document;
- Agenda being obscured by other documents or postings.

In addition to the legally required physical posting of agendas in a “freely accessible location” and on the senate’s website if the senate has one, some additional strategies for increasing the awareness of the work of the senate include the following:
- A bulletin board near the local senate office or in an administrative area or other boards accessible and available to the college community, perhaps at several locations on a larger campus.
- An email posting to the entire college faculty, staff, and student government.
- A website posting on the local senate website, in a form that can be easily down-loaded or reproduced.
- A combination of these methods.

EFFECTIVE STRUCTURES FOR CONDUCTING SENATE MEETINGS

Standing Rules

Local senate presidents, usually in conjunction with other officers, may generate local senate standing rules. Generally, the body need not adopt these rules, but an effective practice is to discuss the rules before implementing them. Standing rules cannot circumvent or supersede law, local policies, or bylaws; they can, however, enable the senate to prescribe implementation strategies, such as who speaks, in what order, for how long, under what conditions, how agenda items may be submitted, and by when. Standing rules can also stipulate deadlines for materials submitted for senate consideration or for the senate president’s signature.

About Parliamentary Procedures

Having established and posted an agenda, a senate president may benefit from reviewing the use of parliamentary procedures. In their excellent reference work, The Practical Guide to Parliamentary Procedure (1983), Edward S. Strotherland and David W. Shepard point to four essential benefits offered by parliamentary procedure. They argue that parliamentary procedure is
- An orderly way to conduct the affairs of an organization;
- A way to determine the will of the majority;
- A way to protect the minority; and
- A way to protect the rights of an individual member.

Some groups, particularly smaller committees, avoid using parliamentary procedure because of the misperception that it will inhibit their business. Such is not the case; in fact, parliamentary procedure generally helps to move business, particularly if the senate president or committee chair assists the group participants in remembering these simple guidelines:

ASSIGN A PARLIAMENTARIAN: The senate president can assign the role of parliamentarian to a senate officer for orderly and effective discussion following local senate adopted parliamentary rules.

LISTEN CAREFULLY: The senate president or chair will clarify what ideas or motions are under consideration and declare what sorts of comments are germane to a particular motion.

ASK QUESTIONS: The Academic Senate, at its plenary meetings, provides a parliamentary mic at which observers may ask the presiding officer for procedural clarifications, such as what sort of motion is relevant to the discussion, how to properly accomplish a desired goal, or how to challenge a ruling or determination. Participants at a senate meeting should be encouraged to seek such clarification, and if an avenue for such questions is not provided by the bylaws, the senate parliamentarian might make clear to those attending how to ask questions during discussion of business.
Local Senates Handbook

Part IV: Ensuring the Effectiveness of the Local Senate

SPEAK TO THE POINT: The senate president or chair will ensure that remarks apply to the specific motion on the floor or, if not, are ruled out of order.

Below is a brief illustration of how commonly used parliamentary motions may be responded to within a senate. The Leadership Resources page of the ASCCC website offers additional helpful information from the Academic Senate's official parliamentarian about conducting the meeting under parliamentary procedures.

A Strategy for Conducting Discussions of Agenda Items
To expedite discussions during senate meetings, the senate may wish to consider Standing Rules to provide order while ensuring that effective participation occurs. The senate may determine time limits and establish who may speak and under what conditions. The Academic Senate, at its plenary sessions, requires members wishing to speak to an item to queue before a "pro" microphone on one side of the room or at a "con" microphone on the opposite side or to ask questions about parliamentary procedure at a "parliamentary" microphone located mid-room. This procedure provides for an orderly discussion of the issues within the allotted time, enables the president to terminate discussion when no one appears to speak further in support or in opposition. This practice generally reduces redundant comments.

Strategies for Voting on Agenda Items
Procedures for voting during a meeting should be determined locally, particularly if the goal is to keep the meetings progressing in an orderly fashion.
Local Senates Handbook
Part IV: Ensuring the Effectiveness of the Local Senate

Some items on an agenda may be handled by what is known as approval by consent. If no opposition is perceived or expected to items such as approval of the minutes of the previous meeting, approval of the agenda, and acceptance of reports from various committees that do not require action by the senate, the president may list them on the agenda under the "consent calendar" and declare them passed by general consent after allowing an opportunity for opposition to be expressed. Should any senator wish to discuss, amend, or vote on such items, the party should ask to have the item removed from the consent calendar for separate consideration after the bulk of the consent items has been approved. The senate president should always honor such a request to have an item removed.

Senates may not hold secret votes, including voting for officers within the senate (Government Code §54953.c.), and therefore voting on action items must take place publicly. If a senate meeting is held via teleconferencing, all votes taken must be by roll call. (Government Code §54953.b.2.). Senates must “report any action taken and the vote or abstention on that action of each member present for the action” (Government Code §54953). The voting must be public, and therefore voting by email is not allowed. The Brown Act does not specify how legislative bodies must conduct their votes with the exception of teleconferencing; it only specifies that the results of the vote of each member must be reported. Voice votes are sufficient if the individual votes of each member can be determined and recorded.

Balloting for officers, candidates for committee seats, or other appointments, especially if the vote involves competition, is slightly more difficult within the context of the law. If the senate members are the electorate, then the vote of each member must be recorded and reported out. In colleges that have academic senates of the whole rather than representative senates, the vote of each faculty member must be recorded and reported out. If the faculty as a whole is the electorate but the senate is not a senate of the whole, then a secret ballot may be used.

In circumstances that allow secret ballots, voting may be conducted in various effective ways that protect the sanctity of the ballot box:

- A ballot for the election of a candidate is placed inside a blank envelope, which is sealed and then placed inside a second, outer envelope on which the voter—whether a senator or any faculty in a campus-wide election—has printed his or her name and affixed his or her signature.
- Course Management Systems (e.g., Moodle, Blackboard) may be set up to capture votes. Different systems have different levels of protection of the voter’s identity and should be thoroughly examined before use.

Local senates should consider carefully when a balloting system is being decided upon to make certain that the system ensures one vote per voter, is secure, and is verifiable by interested parties.

Regardless of the method used for the election, results should be announced or posted, although the decision of how to publicize the outcome of elections should take into account the emotional reaction of participants in the election. An elections committee whose membership is determined well in advance of an election can help determine appropriate logistics, provide necessary security, and supervise the counting of ballots. This neutral presence ensures the integrity of the process and enables the senate president to announce the results at the same meeting or within a reasonable time if the election is being conducted on a campus-wide basis.

Adapting the Resolution Process for Local Use
The Academic Senate for California Community Colleges conducts its business using the resolution process (see the ASCCC Resolutions Handbook (ASCCC, 2014) and recommends that local senates do likewise; many senates, however, reserve resolutions only for the most urgent of their statements and recommendations. Resolutions are designed for local senates to urge or recommend policy or action to the Board of Trustees, chancellors or college presidents, other local groups, or the Academic Senate for

Part IV: Ensuring the Effectiveness of the Local Senate

California Community Colleges. Resolutions differ significantly from motions made on the floor of a senate meeting. Consider the following points of contrast:

Motions
- Made by elected representatives or officers
- Made orally on the floor
- May be acted upon at that time
- May be enacted by a simple majority
- Do not retain the force of the arguments made on their behalf

Resolutions
- Presented by committee, senators, or officers
- Presented in writing prior to meeting as part of agenda and shared broadly with all faculty
- Often receive first reading and adopted at a subsequent meeting
- Retain the force of the argument in the "whereas" clauses of the argument
- Make clear the actions to be carried out

The suggestions below and the appendices associated with them illustrate how resolutions may become an effective implement for a local senate.

Writing Resolutions:
The following is an excerpt from the ASCCC’s Resolution Writing and General Advice (2014):

Since the resolution process guides the work of the Academic Senate, care should be taken in developing the resolutions. The following are some guidelines for Senate resolutions, as well as recommendations for proper resolution writing.

1. Four is the Limit: Resolutions cannot contain more than four “whereas” or “resolved” statements (this is a requirement per the published resolutions process for session).
2. An Introduction: Consider using the first “whereas” as an introduction, outlining the situation in general or providing background and indicating the people or groups involved before justifying your resolutions in the other “whereas” statements.
3. Make the Point: Be as direct and to the point as possible. Cleverness that makes a resolution less clear will likely cause confusion and lead to the resolution being defeated, amended, or referred.
4. Avoid Lumping: Limit yourself to one reason in support of or in defense of your resolution per “whereas” statement. Lumping too much into one statement causes confusion and is likely to provoke calls for revision.
5. Professionalism Preferred: Avoid personal attacks or insults of any person or group, even subtle ones. No matter how justified the statement or how offensive the target, such attacks will almost inevitably draw opposition from some members of the voting body.
6. Only Academic Senate Action: Remember that resolutions can only direct the Academic Senate to take action. The Academic Senate does not have the authority to direct or require action from any other group or individual, including local senates. Resolutions can also request or recommend actions from other entities, or it can endorse or support particular positions of other entities.
7. Reality Check: If your resolution directs an action by the Academic Senate, be certain that the action is possible for the Academic Senate to accomplish. Specifically, remember that the Academic Senate cannot absolutely ensure or prevent the actions of any other body. Some qualifying or alternative terms, such as “work with [other body] to ensure” rather than “ensure,” or “oppose” rather than “prevent,” may help to produce a more realistic resolution.
8. Word Choice: Judiciously use words such as “any,” “every,” “all,” “never,” “none,” or other qualifiers that make sweeping generalizations.
9. Models: You may benefit from reading some past examples of resolutions for ideas about structuring and phrasing your resolution. (See http://asccc.org/resources/resolutions for examples from the ASCCC)

10. Resolution Title: Be sure that the title of the resolution accurately reflects the content of the resolution, and follows proper rules of punctuation and capitalization.

11. Facts: Resolutions should focus on facts rather than empty rhetoric. Resolutions should include references to specific information such as legislation, previous resolutions, papers, and the like, and should include footnotes, appendices, or links to those references for the delegates to research and make an informed vote.

(See the ASCCCC guidelines on writing resolutions: Resolution Writing and General Advice and Sample Resolution Form for Use by Local Senate with a Sample Resolution, Annotated explaining what a resolution should typically contain).

Discussing a Resolution:

1. For many local senates, resolutions are submitted for first readings and then for action at a following meeting, but this process may be altered by calling for a "suspension of the rules" to accommodate urgent circumstances.

2. Resolutions should receive wide distribution prior to being acted upon; additional copies of a resolution should be available at the senate meeting at which it will be discussed.

3. Resolutions should be represented as a separate agenda item under the appropriate agenda category.

Revising Resolutions:

1. Resolutions may be amended for further clarification, additions, or deletions.

2. Preferably, amendments should be submitted in writing, although verbal submissions are possible depending upon the desire of the local senate and its bylaws or standing rules.

3. Resolution amendments or substitutions are considered prior to the original resolution.

Discussing and Adopting Resolutions

1. Discussion on resolutions or any amendments may have a pre-set time limit.

2. Any attendee at the meeting at which the resolution is discussed should be permitted to speak regarding the resolution. See the section “Public Comments at Meetings” above.

3. The president may recognize pro and con arguments alternately. When no speaker remains on one side of the motion, debate on that question may be closed, depending on local procedure.

4. Only official senate representatives may vote. The nature of the voting itself—voice, ballot, roll-call votes—as well as determination of what constitutes a successful or a failed vote should be spelled out by the local senate bylaws. (For more on voting requirements, see "Strategies on Voting" above.)

Disposition of the Resolution

1. Resolutions should be forwarded to the appropriate parties by the local senate president or designee with an expectation of a written reply that can be shared with the voting body.

2. The official record of the senate meeting should indicate the status of the resolution, and, if required by bylaws or constitution, the nature of voting itself.

3. Compilations of resolutions adopted by the local senate can be submitted as part of a year-end report and widely disseminated among governance groups as the senate’s statement of accomplishment as well as evidence of the senate’s philosophy. (See Sample Senate Annual Report.)
4. All resolutions, including their justifying "whereas" clauses, should be archived, perhaps in a single binder or file, as well as included as attachments to minutes and within related topic files.

KEEPING THE FACULTY INFORMED

An informed faculty is more likely to become involved in the work of the academic senate. The electronic convenience of email and the limitless possibilities of the internet enhance face-to-face communication and can increase faculty participation within the college community. Many of the suggestions below encourage use of these electronic opportunities, often in tandem with more traditional means of communication.

Develop a Governance Handbook

The handbook should include governance committee memberships, policies, and committee responsibilities. The policies and procedures in such a handbook will be somewhat dynamic and subject to formal alteration after appropriate consultation. However, a historical record and explanation of how and why processes occur will persist beyond changes in personnel and the inevitable erosion of institutional memory. The creation of such a handbook is even more crucial if the institution currently enjoys a healthy climate of participatory governance: the whims of one individual can change that atmosphere overnight. Having such a published governance handbook will provide clear evidence of past practice and consensus. The handbook might readily be posted on the senate's website. For examples of decision making handbooks, see the Resource Documents section at the bottom of the ASCCC Leadership Resources page.

Use the Resolution Process

A local senate resolution process can recommend or direct a particular action and provides the rationale for that action. Include the wording of the proposed resolutions in the agenda distributed before the meeting. Distribute draft and approved resolutions in the minutes to serve as an effective educational tool. Part IV of this handbook, Adapting the Resolution Process, provides additional information about the resolution process.

Local Senate Website

A senate website is a valuable resource for college faculty. A senate website on the college server, with appropriate links to other college and state governance groups, is an efficient mechanism to publicize meetings and showcase the accomplishments of the senate. The Academic Senate website provides a template that senates may use to build their local website. To aid the college community in building and using websites, senates may wish to approach their college public information officer for electronic photographs of the college or college events that can be electronically archived and made accessible for use by the senate and its faculty. While the senate website can be maintained by staff assigned to the senate, local senates without such support can create a senate officer position for this important communication function, can seek a stipend for a faculty member to do so, or can offer flex credit or other incentives to ensure that the necessary postings are timely and complete.

Senators and other faculty should be encouraged to use the state Academic Senate website as a means for keeping informed about state issues. The objective is to make senate business and faculty involvement in college and system-wide governance a very public and notable enterprise.

Equity and Access to Participatory Governance Meetings and Training

In Title 5, “effective participation” means that all stakeholders must be afforded an opportunity to review and comment upon recommendations, proposals, and other matters and to participate effectively in discussions of academic and professional matters. Many California community colleges and districts have
Part IV: Ensuring the Effectiveness of the Local Senate

Satellite campuses but hold governance meetings, trainings, and activities primarily or entirely on their “main” campuses.

The significance of location and expanded access is an issue of equity for faculty, staff, student, and administrative participation in local senates’ governance. The Academic Senate for California Community Colleges encourages local senates to rotate the location of senate meetings to include satellite or alternative campuses. In addition, local senates are encouraged to use technological applications to extend governance access and participation across college campuses when feasible.

Publicize Senate Meetings
Inform the faculty about each upcoming senate meeting. Notice should be published a reasonable amount of time ahead of the meeting or within the time frame required by the Open Meetings Act. An effective practice is to then send a reminder 24 hours prior to the meeting time. Voice mail messages or email messages are an excellent way to remind faculty, saving paper and avoiding the notice getting lost in the paper crush. A posted notice of the meeting located by faculty mailboxes will also serve as a last-minute reminder. These notices, also posted on the senate website, are important whether the college is small, where the questionable assumption is that all faculty already know the dates and agenda matters, or large, where communication is more difficult and faculty are more likely to feel disinterest or disengagement from governance work.

Publicize the Names of Senate Representatives
If all faculty know the names of their senate representatives, they will have increased opportunity for communication and involvement. Publish a roster of senators, senate officers and senate-appointed faculty members of college and district committees and include college phone numbers or email so that all faculty members may contact them for more information or to contribute to ongoing discussions. This roster can easily be included as part of the senate website, perhaps with convenient email links.

Publicize Senate Agendas and Minutes
Publishing the agenda of each senate meeting and making them available to faculty in advance of the meeting can generate interest in the issues and increase attendance. The agenda should provide readers sufficient information on the items to be discussed. If large agendas are sent to representative senators, send a one-page agenda with short, informative paragraphs on the issues to be discussed to each faculty member. Equally effective is an email message sent to all faculty and college staff. If these messages contain links to the agenda posted on the website, all may have immediate access to the information and may respond or download it as needed. Once approved by the senate, minutes should be widely distributed.

Develop a Senate Events Calendar
At the beginning of each year or semester, publish a calendar of all meetings and activities with times, dates, and locations and place it on the senate website for ease in accessibility. Regular meeting times lend a predictability that makes it easier for faculty to attend and participate.

Use College Email
Email can be an effective tool for communicating issues and soliciting input on senate concerns. With the deluge of email that everyone receives, the messages of the senate may get lost. The following strategies may help to maximize the effectiveness of email for the senate:

- Ensure that all faculty, full- and part-time, have access to email and are included in messages coming from the senate.
Local Senates Handbook

Part IV: Ensuring the Effectiveness of the Local Senate

- Create a campus-wide mail list containing only faculty so that messages from the senate can be addressed directly to faculty.
- Be judicious in sending out email messages so that the senate is not perceived as contributing to information overload, which may result in messages being ignored.

Maintain Senate Bulletin Boards—Electronic and Physical
The senate website might also offer an electronic bulletin board where faculty may post comments pertinent to senate deliberations or announcements of interest to the general college community. In addition to a senate website, a conveniently located bulletin board in each division or area is another good way to publicize senate events and issues. The bulletin board is an effective place to post copies of state correspondence and reports, senate agendas and minutes, and grant and conference opportunities. The senate will want to publish committee reports to keep faculty informed of the governance efforts that are taking place in senate, campus, and district committees.

Create a Senate Logo and Letterhead
Use a senate letterhead and perhaps a specific paper color for correspondence. These techniques readily identify senate information and communication among numerous documents in college mailboxes.

Publish a Newsletter
A regular senate newsletter can include summaries of meetings of the senate, the governing board, and the college council, photographs of senators and senate activities, department and individual faculty news, a forum for editorials, announcements of grants, workshops or other opportunities, statewide updates and opportunities (e.g., ASCCC Awards and opportunities to serve on a statewide committee), and information on senate issues and concerns. This newsletter can also be electronic in its format to save printing and publication costs.

Write a Column for the College Newspaper
A regular senate column in the college newspaper will communicate the responsibilities, views, and activities of the senate to the entire college and illustrate for students the vital roles their faculty assume on their behalf. Smaller community newspapers may also consider running a weekly or monthly column featuring the activities of college faculty.

FACULTY PARTICIPATION

Soliciting Diverse Faculty Participation
Soliciting diverse faculty participation will be an easier task with an informed faculty that realizes the need for and value of participation. However, some recruiting efforts are still needed to achieve the desired level of faculty broad-based participation. Leaders’ mettle is evidenced by their ability to include and accommodate those with alternative views and approaches, by their ability to showcase the talents of others, and by their ability to elicit constructive contributions from many. Equity, access and inclusion are core fundamentals of an effective participatory governance process. When making committee assignments or soliciting faculty participation, consider historical patterns of exclusion based on ethnicity, race, gender, sexual orientation, ability… to ensure that all faculty have an opportunity to engage in participatory governance on campus.

Below are some techniques recommended by other senate leaders for soliciting wider and more diverse faculty participation. For each point, senate presidents and senates should consider how they might apply these suggestions to address the needs of full- and part-time colleagues across the “main” campus and satellite campuses and how they might use appropriate technology effectively for these ends.
Recruit Part-time Faculty
The senate president may wish to explicitly recruit for service part-time faculty whose teaching experience, professional training, and sense of commitment to students may be highlighted in the academic and professional work part- and full-time faculty share. Many local senates have devised strategies to increase the participation of their part-time faculty, and the sample constitutions and bylaws available on the Leadership page of the Academic Senate website indicate how those senates formally give voice to their part-time colleagues. The Academic Senate has also adopted many resolutions urging local senates to consider ways to involve part-time faculty in our academic and professional work.

Meet Personally With the Faculty
The personal touch is the most effective means of communicating, particularly when making a request. Some senate leaders set the goal of visiting several faculty members each week. People need to be asked to participate and should be acknowledged when they do serve.

Listen to Opinions
The individual interests and skills of faculty members will be revealed in their comments, and these faculty members who speak out can be a valuable source of expertise for senate activities. Electronic bulletin boards, for example, can ensure that all voices are afforded an opportunity to be heard and their views responded to by an even broader constituency.

Conduct Faculty Opinion Polls
Formal or informal opinion polls allow faculty members to indicate their opinions on issues. Polls can be used to identify faculty concerns, establish senate priorities, and develop senate positions. While the senate will want to be careful not to include collective bargaining issues in senate polls, the senate may wish to collaborate with the bargaining agent as, in response to labor law, it seeks the local senate advice about issues the senate wishes to see addressed prior to entering into negotiations. Polling results should also be communicated to the faculty so that they are included in the entire process.

Turn the Suggestion Box into a Volunteer Recruiting Center
Faculty leaders frequently hear suggestions and complaints from colleagues on a variety of issues. Faculty members who care enough to talk about their concerns can also be the faculty members who are willing to develop a solution to the issue raised. A volunteer can be recruited with a simple comment such as this: "Thanks for bringing your concern to my attention. Could you get two other faculty members to work with you and present a resolution at the next senate meeting?" The faculty member is thereby encouraged to become involved, and valuable contributions may emerge. Comments that are ignored may breed ill will that is difficult to overcome.

Provide an Orientation for New Faculty
Too frequently, faculty orientation is seen as an administrative function with the senate being given five minutes to present an overview of its role. However, orientation to the academic and professional obligations--both as they apply to the larger profession and to the specific college culture--are generally more appropriately conducted by the faculty themselves. Title 5 specifically notes that the academic senate shall be responsible for "policies for professional development." If a senate has not reached a formal agreement, and particularly if it is excluded from such orientations, the senate president should ask to consult collegially on a process for this important orientation and professional development function.
Several faculty orientation models are used on campuses throughout California:

1. Arrange for an orientation session, or several brief orientation sessions, for new faculty members on an individual or small group basis. In the session, senators can encourage involvement and provide basic introductory information about the work of the senate and faculty within the larger governance structure. Past senate leaders and college administrators can be invited to present their perspectives.

2. Consider a semester-long or yearlong orientation process that may be awarded flex credit, committee assignment-status, or reassigned time. Meeting regularly with faculty members of a senate committee, the faculty new to full-time status at the college can discuss the campus' educational climate and educational philosophy, the general education model, the academic and professional roles of faculty, the governance structure, and the student and instructional support services available to them and their students.

3. Build into the probationary period opportunities for new faculty to have appropriate and meaningful participation in senate activities, including the orientation of new faculty in subsequent years.

Any such orientation program should also be open to part-time faculty, who need to understand shared professional responsibilities and the options they have to become more involved in the ongoing governance work of faculty.

Create a Faculty Governance Flex Activity
Flex activities can be an effective way to highlight specific faculty governance issues and other local senate activities. For example, the senate could sponsor a forum composed of senate leaders and administrators where faculty can ask tough questions and the presenters can explain the role of the senate and senate committees. The senate might survey the faculty to find topics or speakers of interest to them for such presentations.

Hold a Senate Retreat
Setting aside a day or two for a senate retreat is a good way to gain perspective about issues, share information and ideas, and set priorities for the year as well as train senators and generate enthusiasm for the work of the senate. If faculty members who are not senators are included, new people who might become valuable resources can be introduced to senate activities.

Make Committee Opportunities Known
Publicize a general request for volunteers, and, at the same time, ask individuals to volunteer for specific senate-appointed committee assignments. A variety of involvement opportunities, some with short-term responsibilities, will allow faculty members to match their interests and time commitments with senate needs. Invite volunteers and committee applicants to ensure broad representation and a plurality of views. Review the opportunities afforded to part-time faculty as well, including appointments on college and district committees; part-time faculty across the state serve on faculty development, part-time hiring, and curriculum committees, among others.

Invite State Academic Senate Representatives to Speak to Faculty
Senate presidents may extend invitations to Academic Senate Area Representatives, to members of the Relations with Local Senates Committee, and to other members of the Executive Committee of the Academic Senate for California Community Colleges to visit their campus, address specific needs, or bolster faculty enthusiasm for governance work. For more information see Requesting a Local Visit section of the ASCCC website.

Take Faculty to Academic Senate Sessions and Leadership Training
Local Senates Handbook
Part IV: Ensuring the Effectiveness of the Local Senate
The annual fall and spring plenary sessions, Area meetings, the Professional Development College, and the summer Faculty Leadership and Curriculum Institutes of the Academic Senate are all excellent opportunities to involve and train faculty. Campus staff development funds should be available for this purpose; most college presidents and chancellors understand the need for well-trained faculty leaders and can help identify appropriate local funds to enable a senate's full participation in these essential training opportunities.

Maintaining Faculty Participation
Once faculty members have become active, senate leaders need to reward and nurture that participation to enhance faculty's commitment to and enjoyment of senate and governance involvement.10

One of the major hurdles senate leaders face, regardless of their time on the senate, is finding faculty to participate in committee work. Unless the committee’s work directly impacts a faculty member, such as a hiring committee, or he or she is compensated, some faculty would much prefer to just teach and mentor students, while avoiding committee service. Senate leaders need to develop strategies to engage faculty so that they want to serve on committees, especially in cases where committee service is not a contractual obligation. Below are suggestions, compiled from senate leaders at breakouts at both the Spring 2011 Plenary Session and the 2011 Leadership Institute, that have assisted senate leaders in increasing faculty participation and from the Spring 2018 resolution 17.02. (link).

Use a Personal Approach
Something as simple as a phone call, rather than a mass email, may make the difference when persuading a faculty member to participate. A particularly effective tool is a face-to-face meeting over coffee about what the committee does and why the senate is asking that faculty member to become involved.

Clearly Define Commitments Ahead of Time
When senates are recruiting volunteers for committee work, the more information that can be provided, the more likely the senate will be to find someone who is willing and able to serve. Providing information including the time and dates of the meetings, expected length of the term of service, and work outside of the meetings can be very effective for recruiting faculty to serve on a particular committee.

Play to Their Strengths
For committees that serve a particular population or a very narrow purpose, recruiting people who can approach the committee with knowledge or experience regarding the topic can be very helpful. The more the senate president knows about how a committee operates, the better he or she can recruit for that committee.

Recruiting faculty is far easier when a senate president knows what the committee does and what its goals are for the next year. Senates should also attempt to avoid having personalities that conflict among the committee members; asking someone to serve on a committee with an individual with whom that faculty member has a conflict or negative history could be a recipe for disaster.

Use Senators
At colleges with smaller numbers of full-time faculty, the senate president may know most, if not all, of faculty; such familiarity with all faculty becomes much more difficult at larger colleges. Senators probably know most of their colleagues within their divisions and will be able to suggest faculty for service. They also may know part-time faculty who are interested in serving and can bring those

10 Section adapted from: Davison, D. & Bruno, J. (2011) Participate! How to get faculty engaged and involved. ASCCC Rostrum, Retrieved http://asccc.org/content/participate-how-get-faculty-engaged-and-involved individuals to the senate president’s attention if part-time membership is usual within the local college culture and appropriate for the particular committee. Faculty who teach at multiple schools bring an additional knowledge and new perspectives to committee work. For more information on part-time faculty participation see the ASCCC paper Part-Time Faculty: A Principled Perspective (ASCCC, 2002).

Show Appreciation
One of the most important things that a senate president can do is to thank committee members during and at the end of the year. Whether the recognition involves a note, an email, cookies at the last meeting, or acknowledgement in a public forum, letting those faculty know that the senate is grateful for their service is an effective way to encourage those faculty to return the following year to seek other committee opportunities.

Develop Professional Recognition of Faculty
Publicly recognizing the achievements of faculty is an important and effective element of building morale in any organization. The senate president may use memos, college and local newspaper articles, award ceremonies, and Board and Foundation presentations to highlight faculty accomplishments.

Give Credit Where Credit Is Due
A genuine "thank you" is very helpful in acknowledging faculty members who work on senate and participatory governance assignments. Senate presidents may wish to print the senate logo on thank you cards and send a note to faculty members and other college staff who have helped further the work of the college. Participation includes a host of division, area, department, and other college activities which may not be directly perceived as being the work of the local senate; however, faculty who serve on hiring committees, on college-wide and district-wide committees, or as advisors for student organizations are indeed furthering the senate obligations for effective participation in governance.

Make Senate Involvement an Evaluation Criterion
Often forgotten in tenure and post-tenure evaluations is the obligatory, professional responsibility faculty have for participation in governance activities. The senate may consider consulting with the collective bargaining agent to include and use involvement in governance as a criterion in the evaluation process to reinforce the importance of this serious professional responsibility.

Discuss Governance Participation in the Hiring Interview
Develop an expectation of involvement with each new faculty member by discussing it as a professional responsibility both in the hiring interview and during new faculty orientation. Suggest senate and other governance activities that the new faculty member may choose for participation.

Sponsor a Breakfast, Lunch, or Coffee Hour
Food is often a successful inducement to encourage faculty to attend an event. The event can then be used to inform, engage in discussion, train, acknowledge and thank those who participate.

Provide Incentives for Participation
Consult with the collective bargaining agent to develop incentives such as overload banking credit or professional growth step credits for participation in senate activities.

Linking Local Awards to ASCCC Statewide Awards
The Academic Senate presents three major awards each year. Local senates are responsible for nominating worthy individuals and for preparing much of the nomination materials. Senate presidents should watch for the announcements that open the nomination period and must adhere to the rigid and often compressed timelines for submission. These awards, however, honor the faculty and colleges of all nominees for these three awards. For more information see Part V of this handbook: Academic Senate Awards.

Increase Participatory Governance on Satellite Campuses

To promote equity and inclusion, local senate leaders are encouraged to reach out to faculty on satellite campuses, and to rotate meeting locations between the “main” campus and satellite campuses. The use of technological application to improve access to participatory governance opportunities may be beneficial in increasing diverse participation.

This list of ways to recruit and involve faculty is by no means exhaustive, but it can provide some guidance for encouraging faculty to become more engaged in committee service at a college and more involved in the body as a whole. Being a senate leader does not mean doing everything alone; the more that a senate president can increase participation, the more people and perspectives are present to help with decision making. A faculty with active participation by the majority of its members is key to a strong and effective senate on a campus.

Local senates should discuss the format in which their archives will be compiled. While some senates maintain filing cabinets full of decades worth of documents, many senates are moving to digital archives. These archives may be public with the documents all available on the senate website, semi-public with the documents available on a network drive available to the college community or only faculty, or private with the documents available on a secure drive only to senate leadership. Regardless of the format, the senate should discuss the ways in which these materials are maintained, backed-up, and passed down.

Institutionalizing a Senate's Effectiveness: Seeking Technical Assistance to Ensure Compliance
Local Senates Handbook
Part IV: Ensuring the Effectiveness of the Local Senate

This document and the rich resources of the Academic Senate for California Community Colleges, including its elected Executive Committee members and the office staff as well as its institutes, events, and publications, are dedicated to ensuring the success of local senate presidents. Despite best efforts, laws and regulations concerning participatory governance occasionally need further clarification, and on occasion a particular academic and professional issue can seriously divide faculty from administrators or trustees. Sometimes a local senate may regrettably experience serious discord with administrators or trustees concerning the appropriate roles of the faculty in governance or an interpretation of compliance issues. At other times, the college or district would profit from a workshop or presentation on a single feature of the governance process.

In such instances, the ASCCC is prepared to assist local senates, faculty, staff, students, administrators, and trustees in understanding their appropriate roles in effective participatory governance. The ASCCC partners with the Community College League of California (CCLC) to send representatives to meet with local personnel on the campus. This program, often called "technical assistance," actually includes four types of assistance available through the collaborative efforts of these two organizations. To identify which option is best suited for the particular needs of an institution, a senate president should review the options with his or her college or district administration.

Prior to a visit being scheduled, requests must be signed by representatives of both the local senate and the college president or chancellor as appropriate, and colleges or districts must underwrite the travel costs incurred by the visiting presenters. The ASCCC Website: Services section provides more information on the variety of technical assistance offerings and concludes with a link to the Request Services Form.

See Part V of this paper for more information on what the ASCCC does to help local senates.

FUNCTIONS OF THE ACADEMIC SENATE

In some senses, the statewide Academic Senate functions in much the same way as a local academic senate. As with local district governance, the California Community College Board of Governors articulates a vision for the California Community Colleges and their mandated missions; it then establishes system-wide policies and regulations to enact that vision and respond to the legal strictures imposed by the legislature or the governor's executive orders. The Academic Senate contributes its professional assessments and judgments and is “relied on primarily” by the Board of Governors for matters declared as academic and professional (Title 5).

The California Community Colleges’ Chancellor and staff operate under the Standing Orders of the Board of Governors that include descriptions of the consultation process. As part of that consultation process, the members of Consultation Council, much like a local chancellor's cabinet or council, provide appropriate advice and attempt to reach consensus on issues affecting the system. As with a local senate, the representatives of the Academic Senate express the collective voice of the community college faculty to the Consultation Council on all academic and professional matters at the system-wide level; additionally, under the Board's Standing Orders, the chancellor is compelled to seek the Academic Senate's input on all academic and professional matters.

Also present on the Consultation Council are leaders representing FACCC, CCC/CFT, CCA/CTA CCCI, CSEA, CEOs, CIOs, CSSOs, CBOs, CHROs, and CCLC/ACT. The ASCCC is the only body with two appointments to the Council, normally filled by the ASCCC President and Vice-President. Members of the Consultation Council can submit items for consideration, discussion, or action by submitting a Consultation Digest Item. For more information on the operations of the Consultation Council, see the Consultation Council Handbook, available on the State Chancellor’s website. As with consultation processes on a local college and within a district (Title 5 (d)), the governing board—in this case, the Board of Governors—has specifically agreed through its Standing Orders, Part II, Article 3, § 332 that the Board and its designees shall rely primarily on the Academic Senate regarding academic and professional matters.

The Academic Senate's primary mission is to serve faculty in California's community colleges, to "promote the best interests of higher education in the state and to represent the faculty of all California community colleges at the state level." To do so, the Academic Senate maintains an office in Sacramento and a professional staff who coordinates its many activities and provides continuity. The resolutions adopted by the delegates to the Academic Senate’s bi-annual plenary sessions provide direction to the Academic Senate Executive Committee, which uses those resolutions to develop priorities for the year.

11 For greater explanation of these many acronyms, consult the Academic Senate website or review its publication on acronyms, or the Acronyms document (ASCCC, 2012).

12 The Academic Senate for California Community colleges incorporated as a nonprofit organization in November 1970. While revising the ASCCC Bylaws in 2014, ASCCC legal counsel advised the Executive Committee that a nonprofit corporation is required to have a Board of Directors and that an “Executive Committee” was considered to be a committee of the officers of the board. This legal requirement is reflected in the 2014 ASCCC bylaws; however, the operation of the four officers, four area representatives, four north and south representatives, and two at-large representatives was not changed, and the tradition of referring to them as the “Executive Committee” outside of legally required documents continues.

- Delegate responsibilities to standing or ad hoc committees
- Publish senate papers and the Rostrum
- Report to delegates at plenary sessions

Provide statewide communication among local senates to coordinate actions and requests of faculty
- Maintain the ASCCC website
- Regularly publish the President's Updates, the Rostrum, and Senate-adopted papers
- Provide directory of local senate presidents and other leaders
- Conduct surveys on topical concerns and distribute results

Initiate policy positions relevant to CCC and their role in higher education
- Participate in ICAS (Intersegmental Committee of the Academic Senates);
- Contribute to intersegmental initiatives such as C-ID (Course Identification Numbering System)

OUTREACH FROM THE ACADEMIC SENATE

Area Divisions
All members of the Executive Committee except the officers are elected on the basis of geographic representation. The Academic Senate currently divides the state's community colleges into four areas (A, B, C, D) (for more information see the Area News and the Member Senates document, both available on the ASCCC website). The delegates from each area elect one Area Representative who serves for two years on the Executive Committee; two At-Large representatives are elected by delegates from all four areas, as well as two North (elected by the Area A and B delegates) and two South Representatives (elected by Area C and D delegates).

Area Meetings
The area representatives are responsible for coordinating two area meetings each year. At these meetings, held each fall and spring prior to the upcoming plenary session, faculty leaders, usually the delegates to the plenary session, meet at a college in their area. They discuss matters of concern to their areas, review proposed resolutions to be voted on at the plenary session, and generate additional resolutions. Each delegate represents the positions and perspectives of his or her local senate at these meetings and gathers information to take back to the local senate for direction before plenary session. Area representatives are also available to consult with or visit local senates. Requests for such visits should be forwarded through the Academic Senate Office.

Role of the Relations with Local Senate Committee
The Relations with Local Senates Committee serves to augment the work of the Executive Committee in its efforts to share information on issues of concern at the local and state levels. While members of the Relations with Local Senates Committee should be conversant with pertinent statutes and strategies for effective academic senates, their work is primarily as liaisons and conduits for information and requests for assistance. To contact the Relations with Local Senates Committee, visit the Academic Senate website or call the Academic Senate Office.

Senate Institutes
The Academic Senate sponsors institutes to address faculty and local senate needs in a variety of areas (see Events listing on ASCCC homepage). Most important to local senate leaders, especially for new presidents, is the Faculty Leadership Institute held each June. The Curriculum and Accreditation Institutes are appropriate to consider sending a team of faculty, classified staff, and administrators from a college.
Local Senates Handbook
Part V: Linking local senates to the ASCCC

Other institutes may focus on disciplines such as STEM, counseling, or career technical education, or issues such as general education, equity, and student success.

Local senate presidents should review the information about the planned institutes at the beginning of each academic year. Doing so well in advance will permit the senate president to

- Identify the appropriate sources of funding for faculty to travel and register.
- Encourage faculty to plan for and attend these institutes.
- Build into senate activities chances to respond to pre- and post-institute study materials and to examine the impact and implementation of strategies for new concepts and policies.
- Seek scholarships from the Academic Senate Office when appropriate.

For the most current information about institutes and to register for these significant professional development opportunities, senate presidents should visit the Academic Senate website frequently.

SENATE PLENARY SESSIONS

For many years, the plenary sessions have been held alternately in the North and South of the state, on Thursday through Saturday in fall and spring. The general and breakout sessions permit local senates--their officers, curriculum chairs, and other interested faculty--to be apprised of current topics, to receive new training to bolster the effectiveness of their senate, to select the representatives and officers of the Executive Committee, to determine ASCCC positions, and to provide the Executive Committee its direction through the adoption of resolutions. Each college may appoint one voting delegate to the plenary session, and each multi-college district that has a district academic senate may also appoint one delegate. The roles of these delegates are detailed in the document Senate Delegates Roles and Responsibilities available on the ASCCC website.

Resolutions

The Academic Senate resolution process is described in detail in the Resolutions Handbook (ASCCC, 2014). In short, that resolution process works as follows:

- Pre-session resolutions are developed by the Executive Committee, through its committees or by individual Executive Committee members, and submitted for pre-session review at the area meetings.
- At the area meetings, pre-session resolutions are discussed, and new resolutions are generated.
- The Resolutions Committee meets to review all pre-session resolutions and combine, re-word, append, or render moot these resolutions as necessary.
- Delegates and representatives of the local senates meet during the session in topic breakouts and give thoughtful consideration to the need for new resolutions and amendments.
- After all session presentations are finished each day, delegates and representatives meet during the resolution breakouts to discuss the need for new resolutions or amendments. Each resolution or amendment must be submitted to the Resolutions Chair before the posted deadlines each day. Additional Area meetings are held on Friday morning of each plenary session for discussing and amending resolutions.
- The Resolutions Committee meets again to review all resolutions and amendments and to combine, re-word, append, or render moot the resolutions as necessary.
- The resolutions are discussed and voted upon at the general sessions on the last day of the plenary session.

Resolutions passed by the body are promptly published, disseminated, and then acted upon by the Executive Committee. They are also posted on the Senate’s website.

Local Senate's Use of Academic Senate Resolutions

Local senates can and do make substantial use of statewide resolutions to guide their own practices, to provide direction and priorities, to provide justifications and support in their discussions within their own consultation procedures, and to provide impetus for their own activities. For more information see Resolution Guidelines for Local Senates.

Disciplines List Procedure

Every two years, in accordance with Title 5 Regulations, the Academic Senate reviews the document Minimum Qualifications for Faculty and Administrators in the California Community Colleges, commonly known as the Disciplines List. In February of every even year, the Senate distributes the Disciplines List Process to the field and solicits revisions, additions or modifications to the Disciplines List. Any proposed modifications are widely disseminated to professional organizations as well as faculty and administrative groups; they are also subject to hearings held at the fall and spring plenary sessions and are reviewed by the professional organizations for college administrators and bargaining agents. At the conclusion of the hearings, the body votes upon the proposed changes during its spring plenary session of each odd year.

Because the Academic Senate for California Community Colleges must consult with the discipline faculty across the state, resolutions in support of proposed changes to the disciplines list cannot be amended. The proposed changes must either be voted up or down as originally presented. Any proposed change on the consent calendar may be removed and voted on separately. To learn more about the Disciplines List Revision process see the Disciplines List Revision Handbook on the Senate website.

PARTICIPATION ON ACADEMIC SENATE COMMITTEES

The work of the Academic Senate is conducted primarily by its standing and ad hoc committees and task forces, often augmented by participants from other governance groups. The Executive Committee and its standing committees are identified in the Academic Senate Bylaws; their work is ongoing from year to year. Ad hoc committees, by contrast, are created in response to a particular issue or concern and, like task forces, generally have a sunset attached to their operation. Academic Senate committees are chaired by members of the Executive Committee, and committee minutes regularly appear in the agendas of the Academic Senate Executive Committee and on the ASCCC website. Committee chairs can submit Executive Committee agenda items calling for action or seeking advice and consent.

As with a local academic senate, committee members and chairs representing the Academic Senate on statewide committees have a particular obligation to report regularly to the larger body—in this case, the Executive Committee. All faculty members serving on statewide committees must understand that they represent the Academic Senate and its adopted positions; they must defer from making policy decisions without first consulting with the Executive Committee through regular written reports.

A list of current Academic Senate committees can be found on the ASCCC Senate website. A senate president should consider how members of their faculty or they personally might serve their colleagues throughout the state. Local senate presidents and past presidents frequently have the judiciousness and experience needed to examine academic and professional matters on a grander scale, and faculty with career and technical knowledge are needed to lend their expertise. Even faculty who feel fatigued by service at the local level can be invigorated by and can energize statewide committee membership. Faculty can indicate their interest in serving at the state level through the Application for Statewide Service form.

NOMINATIONS FOR STATEWIDE AWARDS AND SERVICE

Academic Senate Awards

The Academic Senate presents three major awards each year—Exemplary Program, Hayward, and Stanback-Stroud. Local senates are responsible for nominating worthy candidates and for preparing the nomination materials. Starting in August, a senate president or designee should be watchful for the announcements that open the nomination period. These awards have rigid and often compressed timelines for submission. Below is a brief description of each award. More information and the application are available on the Senate website under the Award tab.

The Exemplary Program Award recognizes outstanding community college programs. Each year the Executive Committee of the Academic Senate selects a different theme in keeping with the award’s traditions. Up to two college programs receive $4,000 cash prizes and a plaque, and up to four colleges receive an honorable mention and a plaque. The call for nominations goes out in October with an announcement letter, application, criteria, and scoring rubric.

The Hayward Award recognizes faculty from the four Senate areas for commitment to education, service to students' access and success, and service to their institution through participation in professional or student activities. Each year two areas recognize part-time faculty and two areas recognize full-time faculty on an alternating basis. The call for nominations goes out in November with an announcement letter, application, criteria, and scoring rubric.

The Regina Stanback-Stroud Award recognizes a faculty member or a faculty group making special contributions in the area of student success for diverse students. The call for nominations goes out in December with an announcement letter, application, criteria, and scoring rubric.

Service to the Board of Governors
The Board of Governors includes two faculty members, each serving a two-year term. Executive Committee members, local academic senates, or individuals may nominate appropriate candidates for consideration. As the two faculty terms are staggered, the Academic Senate seeks nominations each October. After Executive Committee interviews, successful candidates are forwarded, according to statute, to the Governor. Because of the importance of these faculty positions, the Academic Senate is best served by faculty members who have considerable statewide experience and who have demonstrated a commitment to effective participatory governance.

CONSULTATION PROCESS
The voice of the local senate is expressed through the resolution process (See Part V of this handbook: Adapting the Resolution Process) and gives direction to the Executive Committee of the Academic Senate for Community Colleges. In turn, the collective will of the body and the voice of the California community college faculty regarding system-wide academic and professional matters is carried to the Board of Governors. In order for the local senate voice to be represented effectively, the following must occur:

- Local senates must empower their delegates to represent their concerns and will.
- Delegates must articulate that will or those concerns, using the resolution process at the plenary session to give direction to the Executive Committee.
- The Executive Committee, through its representatives to the Consultation Council and in other venues, must then carry those directives into the consultation process (See Part V of this handbook: Functions of the Academic Senate for more information).

Inclusivity Statement
With the goal of ensuring the equal educational opportunity of all students, the Academic Senate for California Community Colleges embraces diversity among students, faculty, staff, and the communities we serve as an integral part of our history, a recognition of the complexity of our present state, and a call to action for a better future. Embracing diversity means that we must intentionally practice acceptance and respect towards one another and understand that discrimination and prejudices create and sustain privileges for some while creating and sustaining disadvantages for others. In order to embrace diversity, we also acknowledge that institutional discrimination and implicit bias exist and that our goal is to eradicate those elements from our system. Our commitment to diversity requires that we strive to eliminate those barriers to equity and that we act deliberately to create a safe and inclusive environment where individual and group differences are valued and leveraged for our growth and understanding as an educational community.

To advance our goals of diversity, equity, inclusion, and social justice for the success of students and employees, we must honor that each individual is unique and that our individual differences contribute to the ability of the colleges to prepare students on their educational journeys. This requires that we develop and implement policies and procedures, encourage individual and systemic change, continually reflect on our efforts, and hold ourselves accountable for the results of our efforts in accomplishing our goals. In service of these goals, the Academic Senate for California Community Colleges is committed to fostering an environment that offers equal employment opportunity for all.

As a collective community of individual colleges, we are invested in cultivating and maintaining a climate where equity and mutual respect are both intrinsic and explicit by valuing individuals and groups from all backgrounds, demographics, and experiences. Individual and group differences can include but are not limited to the following dimensions: race, ethnicity, national origin or ancestry, citizenship, immigration status, sex, gender, sexual orientation, physical or mental disability, medical condition, genetic information, marital status, registered domestic partner status, age, political beliefs, religion, creed, military or veteran status, socioeconomic status, and any other basis protected by federal, state or local law or ordinance or regulation. We acknowledge that the concept of diversity and inclusion is ever evolving, and thus we create space to allow for our understanding to grow through the periodic review of this statement.

CONCLUDING THOUGHTS

New local senate presidents may naturally feel somewhat overwhelmed by the requirements of the job they have undertaken. However, while serving as a president can be trying and exhausting, it can also be very rewarding and even at times enjoyable. To help them to do their jobs more effectively, senate presidents may use this handbook to remind themselves of new leadership opportunities and to help find answers to the inevitable questions that they will face. Most of all, senate presidents should enjoy the leadership moment they are in and know that the Academic Senate for California Community Colleges and its resources are available to empower local leaders and senates. New senate presidents may even look forward to the moment when they become past presidents and sage advisors to their senates and to the time when their continued service statewide acknowledges them as the experts they have become.

Executive Committee Agenda Item

Please note: Staff will complete the grey areas.

BACKGROUND:

North Representative Stephanie Curry is working with a groups of DSPS coordinators identified through the ASCCC and CCCCO to provide the expertise in DSPS needed to complete the paper. The team met in December 2019 to review the request for a paper from resolution 13.04 Spring 2018. The committee decided to move forward with requesting permission to write the paper. The committee met again in February 2020 and completed the ASCCC prompt for paper development and created a draft outline for exec review.

Providing Educational Access and Adequate Support for California Community College Students with Disabilities

Spring 2018

Resolution Number: 13.04

Whereas, Federal and state nondiscrimination laws stipulate that students with disabilities must have access to general college services and instructional programs; [1]

Whereas, The Board of Governors of the California Community Colleges implemented revisions to Title 5 regulations [2] on July 1, 2016 to address “academic adjustments, auxiliary aids, services and/or instruction through Disabled Students Programs and Services (DSPS), on and/or off campus, to students with disabilities”; [3]

1 Staff will review your item and provide additional resources to inform the Executive Committee discussion.
Whereas, Implementation of AB 705 (Irwin, 2017) may have a significant impact on the ability of California community college students with disabilities to complete transfer-level English, mathematics, and other coursework; and

Whereas, Faculty and colleges may find it challenging to provide adequate access, sufficient support, and reasonable accommodations while maintaining academic standards on and/or off campus to a diverse and growing student population with a wide range of disabilities;

Resolved, That the Academic Senate for California Community Colleges work with appropriate stakeholders to provide the needed resources to serve students with disabilities and by Fall 2019 Plenary Session develop a paper that reviews how effectively California community colleges are serving their students with disabilities, shares best practices, and provides guidance on how to ensure access to educational programs and adequate support for students with disabilities, on and/or off campus; and

Resolved, That the Academic Senate for California Community Colleges recommend that the AB 705 Implementation Task Force take into account and address the unique needs of students with disabilities when developing their implementation guidelines.
ASCCC Prompts for Paper Development

The purpose of this paper:
Proposed completion date: Spring 2021

1. Is this a new paper, a revision of, or an update to an existing senate paper?
   This is a new paper

2. Does the resolution ask for a paper? If so, please copy and paste the resolution below. If no, skip to question number 4.

   Providing Educational Access and Adequate Support for California Community College Students with Disabilities

3. Are there other resolutions or senate publications relevant to this effort? Are there other resources that should be taken into consideration when developing the paper?
Also supports Resolutions 09.07 Fall 2019 Clarify the Meaning of Fundamental Alteration When Providing Academic Accommodations and Academic Senate Resources for Serving Students with Disabilities 01.08 Fall 2019

The paper could address the meaning of fundamental alteration and provide the resources requested in the resolution.

4. If the paper is requested by resolution, do you believe that the paper as requested by the resolution is feasible?

Yes the paper if feasible with the expertise provided by the DSPS Coordinator.

- If no, why do you believe the paper is not feasible?

- Would a white paper, Rostrum article, session breakout, or some other form of communication to the field be more appropriate or effective?

The committee believes that the amount of data and recommendations needed to accomplish the resolution requires a paper. The approved recommendations will provide guidance for local senates in supporting faculty and students. Rostrum articles and breakouts may also be suggested in support of the paper recommendations.

- If the paper is feasible but the resolution does not provide clear direction, how will you find the focus? What information or direction will you need from Exec to complete the work?

5. If the paper is not requested by resolution, what is the justification for writing the paper? Where and how did the idea for the paper originate?

Several resolutions in 2018-2019 request guidance on implementing DSPS regulations and supporting DSPS students. Provided by experts in the field this data and recommendations will support faculty across the system in providing DSPS services. Resources and examples will be provided in the paper.

6. List the main points, topics, or section headers of the paper or a narrative describing the approach to the paper. Please describe any relevant data to be included in the content of the paper or data that is necessary to complete the paper. You may include this information in outline form if appropriate.

Main sections would include

- Purpose of the Paper
- DSPS, Federal Regulations, Title 5 and Ed Code
- Role of Faculty in DSPS Services
- Data, Equity and Disaggregation
- DSPS in Guided Pathways
- Working with our K-12 Partners
- Accessibility
Proposed Outline attached.

Data in the paper may include data from MIS, focus groups, Data Mart and RP group

7. Do you plan to include appendices in the paper? If so, what type? Provide an example, if appropriate.

Appendices may include regulations, research, data and effective practices

8. Do you need to gather information from the field (i.e., in the form of a survey or other) to inform the content of the paper?

No surveys anticipated for the paper

9. Do you have other information, comments, questions, or concern

None at this time.

Breakout Topics (from December Curriculum Committee meeting; add’l topics still being considered)

1. Curriculum and Legislation
2. All About the Credit Hour and Communicating Expectations
3. Curriculum Design through an Equity Lens (Distinguish more clearly from COR Nuts & Bolts)
4. Noncredit Distance Education
5. Stackable Certificates
6. Articulation and Transfer – What’s the Difference and How are they Used in Curriculum Review
7. AB 705 - Local Practice and Evaluation (Collapse into a blended 705 breakout – potential for facilitation or networking breakout. Also consider separating English and math and counseling perspectives – what do they see with students? (separate breakouts)
8. The Course Outline of Record – The Basics
9. Cooperative Work Experience (Include Alternatives to CWE and noncredit CWE alternatives)
10. Credit for Prior Learning
11. Brown Act and Your Curriculum Committee (Could public documents fit here?)
12. Developing and Maintaining Partnerships between Administrators and Curriculum Leaders
13. Noncredit Pathways to College and Career Readiness
14. Expanding AP Policies to include IB & CLEP
15. Roles and Responsibilities of Classified Professionals in Curriculum Processes (consider others besides specialists)
16. Submission of ADTs and Double Counting
17. Area of Emphasis Degrees in Guided Pathways and Meta Majors (Needs to be JOINT CO & Faculty. Change the focus w/in AOE’s 2 parts: submission streamlining and potpourri degree option)
18. C-ID and CTE: Model Curriculum Update
19. Supplemental Instruction, Learning Centers, and Tutoring Programs (include info re: earning apportionment, understanding prohibitions)
20. Credit ESL - AB 705 and Beyond (Update focus to include Title 5 placement revisions – potential for facilitated discussion like math, English)
21. Local Curriculum Processes—Closing the Feedback Loop on Curricular Changes (Modify: Considering impacts on students Erik can help define the direction for the future)
22. Sequencing and Scheduling in order to Facilitate Student Success (Consider 4 roles: CIO, specialist, curriculum, AO- impact on curriculum development and approval process)
23. Curriculum Design through an Equity Lens How to acknowledge and respond to the reality that some have been left out of curriculum
24. Implementing Inmate Education Programs *include incarcerated youth as well
25. Accessibility Standards in Instruction
26. Building Programs for Career Education
27. Examining the Results of Student Placement in the World of AB 705 *Consider combining with earlier breakout(s) or looking at results separately Engl/Math
28. PCAH Submission Guidelines (if finished)
29. Assigning Courses to Disciplines – Who Owns this Course Anyway? Include cross listing
30. Curriculum, Accreditation, and Catalogs
31. Things Credit Folks Need to Know about Noncredit
32. Opportunities and Challenges of the CCC Baccalaureate Degrees Most likely a moderated discussion. Could include overview of any legislation or budget developments
33. Noncredit Basics
34. Financial Aid and Curriculum – Parameters for and Implications of New Programs
   *Needs a strong CSSO or FA Director, *Some public document breakout stuff can come here (info for vets, FA, etc)
35. Accreditation and Curriculum Bring in some of 2019 public documents breakout
36. Program Submission Requirements (Breakout for Specialists)
37. Navigating Difficult Conversations (Approach pro-actively. Managing relationships...partnerships...maybe a facilitated dialog instead of presentation) (Share stories, effective practices)
38. Student Access and Accessibility Considerations
39. Access and Curriculum Design w OER *include ZTC OR could fit in Equity and Access
40. (save OERI for a partner presentation if needed for separate)
41. Advanced Credit Hour/Attendance Accounting (needs to be about scheduling and interface between curriculum & Scheduling)
42. Competency-Based Education (overview of 5C discussions and recommendations)
43. Chancellor’s Office Periodic Review Update (Intent, 1st semester findings, most common issues, etc)
44. UC Transfer Pathways OR Transfer Alignment (ADTs and UCTPs)
45. The Course is Approved. What Happens Next? (consider FA, AO-GE & articulation, schedule)
46. Emergency Guidelines and Considerations
47. Dual Enrollment – Effective Practices
48. English and Math Competencies (use info from planned Rostrum article)
49. Accommodations – When is a program fundamentally altered? (address Resolution F19)

Additional “maybe” topics
1. Curriculum and Instruction for the Disproportionately Impacted Students – A Pathway to Higher Education (Blend with others re: reverse design and equity)
2. What is a Program Anyway (covered in pre-session?)
3. Effective Practices for Training your Curriculum Committee *eliminate or use as a follow-up to training general session Friday morning
4. Distance Education: Definitions, Guidelines, and then Some... May need to be updated but still relevant. DE Accessibility should probably be separate
5. Impact of Curriculum Decisions Beyond the Classroom – Looking at the Data (Lessen data breakouts – reduce into one max. Change focus: Development criteria, addressing needs)
6. Effective Practices for Working with CTE Advisory Committees and Regional Consortia (LINK more clearly to Curriculum Process)
7. Course Sequencing and Program Mapping – Implications Considering the Student Experience (Maybe, with revision – not curriculum but could apply. Needs to be relevant to campuses. How do you keep implementation in mind during curriculum design and approval processes?)
8. The Chancellor’s Office Curriculum Inventory (Either as part of CO Update or brief general session if COCI update)
9. Ensuring Learning and Maintaining Standards in the Classroom through Curricular Processes
10. Forging an Unbreakable Bond: Strengthening the Relationship Between Local Senates and Curriculum Committees (could include in new chairs pre-session instead)
BACKGROUND: The Standards & Practices Committee has been asked to provide a definition of “professional organization” for inclusion in the Disciplines List Revisions Handbook. The committee recommends the following definition be added to the handbook:

Required investigation and statement of findings of the following:

○ Contact with the professional organization(s) to determine support of proposal

A professional organization should have three or more of the following attributes:

• a membership of professionals in the discipline
• provides professional development
• has regular publications
• has statewide or national recognition
• has published standards for professional membership

Examples

• MLA (Modern Language Association)
• APS (American Philosophical Society)
• California Humanities (affiliated with the NEH)
• ANA (American Nurses Association)
• IWU (Iron Workers Union)

Executive Committee Agenda Item

SUBJECT: Proposal to Make the Professional Development College (PDC) part of the ASCCC Open Educational Resources Initiative (OERI)

Month: March
Year: 2020
Item No: IV. I.
Attachment: No

DESIRED OUTCOME: The Executive Committee will consider approving a new approach to managing the PDC courses.
Urgent: No
Time Requested: 10 mins.

CATEGORY: Action Items
REQUESTED BY: Michelle Bean/Michelle Pilati
STAFF REVIEW: April Lonero
TYPE OF BOARD CONSIDERATION: Action

Please note: Staff will complete the grey areas.

BACKGROUND:

Recommendation: The Faculty Leadership Development Committee (FLDC) would like the Executive Committee to consider the management of the Professional Development College material/modules to be given to the ASCCC OERI.

Recently, the ASCCC Executive Committee placed all PDC courses on "hiatus." At the same time, the ASCCC OERI is looking to increase its professional development opportunities and views the self-paced courses that comprise the PDC as a model for doing this. As the PDC courses are openly licensed, it would make sense for the OERI to host an array of OER professional development opportunities for faculty - both opportunities directly related to OER and courses that are OER and could have OER integrated into them. Most notably, there are obvious OER connections with respect to curriculum and incarcerated populations.

Overview and Rationale: A component of the OERI’s work is professional development and the OERI has already offered a facilitated online course that it would like to make available as a self-paced course; the OERI has an interest in expanding the availability of OER-related online professional development opportunities and both expanding and supporting other OER-related professional development opportunities. Expanding an understanding and awareness of OER can serve multiple purposes, including expanding the reach of ASCCC in general and of the OERI in particular.

Presuming the approval of the ASCCC Executive Committee and the OERI Advisory Committee, the OERI could make the existing PDC courses available via its website after necessary updates and licensing determinations have been made. Emphasizing the open nature of PDC courses would invite colleges to repurpose PDC content to meet their own needs, such as combining elements of the various curriculum courses to create an orientation that meets their needs. Furthermore, we could encourage the sharing of these locally tailored resources.

There are a variety of Creative Commons licenses that can be employed. The nature of these licenses yields a resource more or less open. If, for example, it was deemed that all of the curriculum courses should be more open and that the governance course should be less so, the licenses chosen can reflect this. Below is a quick summary of the license options:

Creative Commons Licenses

- CC-BY – Attribution (who authored the resource) is required. “This license lets others distribute, remix, adapt, and build upon your work, even commercially, as long as they credit you for the original creation. This is the most accommodating of licenses offered. Recommended for maximum dissemination and use of licensed materials.”

- CC-BY-SA – Attribution is required and any derivatives or variations also have to be CC-BY-SA (SA = “share-alike” and means the same license must be carried forward)

- CC-BY-NC – Attribution is required, but you can’t make money off the resource.

- CC-BY-ND – Attribution is required, the resources can be reused – but it can’t be modified. “This license lets others reuse the work for any purpose, including commercially; however, it cannot be shared with others in adapted form, and credit must be provided to you.”

SA can be added to any of the other licenses, as can NC (non-commercial, money can’t be made)

BACKGROUND:

Recommendation: To update the standard ASCCC Event Surveys to include the attached updated questions to every evaluation tool/survey.

Rationale: The Faculty Leadership Development Committee aims to support the increase of professional and leadership development opportunities for diverse faculty, as called for in the ASCCC Strategic Plan 2018-2023 Goal 2 Objective 2.

The Executive Committee, at its February meeting, requested a revision to the gender, race, and ethnicity questions on the ASCCC Event Survey. The attached questions have been reviewed by FLDC for inclusive language. These questions will provide baseline data to begin measuring for continuous improvement in serving specific populations of faculty.

Requested additions to the ASCCC Event Survey:

The ASCCC aims to intentionally support the increase of development opportunities for diverse faculty, as called for in the ASCCC Strategic Plan 2018-2023 Goal 2 Objective 2.1. In order to design and lead professional development opportunities for diverse faculty, it is essential to begin gathering data to identify and meet the needs of the diverse faculty in our community college system. We ask that you please consider answering the following optional questions to help us identify the needs of our diverse faculty. Please know that we value your voice and confidentiality, and this information will be secure and not shared or published without permission.

Recommendation 1: FLDC would like Executive Committee approval to begin implementation of the Faculty Empowerment and Leadership Academy (FELA) Day 1 on June 17, 2020, as a afternoon pre-session option to the Faculty Leadership Institute (FLI) and Mentor Training on June 17 morning, using the FELA Framework as a foundation for curriculum and handbook design.

Cost List:
- Hotel room/space for Mentor Training June 17 morning prior to FLI
- Hotel room/space for Academy Day 1 (June 17 afternoon at pre-session) at FLI
- Lunch for mentors and mentees June 17 at FLI
- Accommodations for mentors and mentees on Day 1
- Travel expenses for mentors and mentees to Day 1

Recommendation 2:
Executive Committee to create a FELA Steering Committee to review FELA applications and complete the mentor-mentee matching process. The FELA Steering Committee will be composed of the Foundation president or representative, ASCCC Executive Director, FLDC chair or representative, ASCCC president or representative, and one FELA alumnus selected by the Executive Director and approved by the Executive Committee.

Recommendation 3:
Executive Committee to approve the FLDC chair or representative to lead the inaugural FELA class for 2020-2021.

Faculty Empowerment and Leadership Academy

Academy Mission

- TO CONNECT: Providing one-on-one mentoring to diverse faculty for personal and professional development with mentors who are campus leaders and/or administrators.
- TO EMPOWER: Creating safe and brave spaces for courageous conversations to investigate equity, diversity, and inclusion; to share personal and collective experiences on race, privilege, and oppression; and to embolden new faculty leaders to advocate for transformative change on their campuses.
- TO GUIDE: Providing networking opportunities and sharing guidance for navigating the systems of higher education. The focus of the mentoring will be to address the specific goals of the mentee.

Academy Objectives

- To provide opportunities for healing, support, and empowerment.
- To connect by engaging in networking opportunities with other faculty leaders and administrators.
- To create space for courageous conversations focused on understanding societal influences on race, ethnicity, gender, and their effect on leadership development.
- To provide guidance and accountability through regular check-ins (remotely or in-person if no travel cost).
- To honor mentor and mentee scheduling for balanced living by providing workshops coordinating with other ASCCC events (pre-sessions to other events).

Core Competencies

- Institutional Structures
  Outcome: Understanding of the barriers for advancement and advocacy and finding the options for faculty leadership in the community college system and on local campuses.

- Personal Path Development
  Outcome: Development of a career plan for future leadership opportunities or advancement.

- Equity-Mindedness
  Outcome: Exploration of the equity framework and lens and discussion of power dynamics. Development of advocacy skills to move a campus to more equitable outcomes and understanding of how to use power and privilege to advocate for yourself and others.

- Effective Leadership
  Outcome: Skill in using core competencies to be a leader on your campus, in your district, and/or in your state.

MENTOR APPLICATION

The Faculty Empowerment and Leadership Academy (FELA) is a one-to-one mentoring program designed to meet the needs of our diverse faculty in the California community college system. The program will provide opportunities for participants to engage in empowerment for personal and professional development, including networking opportunities and support through an entire year (starting in summer and ending in spring). FELA will focus on the development of faculty from groups historically underrepresented within higher education leadership, such as Black/African American, Latinx, Native American, Asian-Pacific Islander, and women. The academy will provide opportunities to connect with leaders, empower faculty to seek leadership roles, and provide regular contact with mentors. All activities in this leadership development program are designed to ensure participants are ready to meet the challenges of engaging in transformative leadership and equity-minded approaches to working with diverse student populations.

Program Mission:
- TO CONNECT: Providing one-on-one mentoring to diverse faculty for personal and professional development with mentors who are campus leaders and/or administrators.
- TO EMPOWER: Creating safe and brave spaces for courageous conversations to investigate equity, diversity, and inclusion; to share personal and collective experiences on race, privilege, and oppression; and to embolden new faculty leaders to advocate for transformative change on their campuses.
- TO GUIDE: Providing networking opportunities and sharing guidance for navigating the systems of higher education. The focus of the mentoring will be to address the specific goals of the mentee.

Application Process:
- Mentor applications are open to all community college faculty and administrators.
- Mentor application is due April 30, 2020.
- Mentor and mentees will be matched and paired based on the application information gathered from your preferences as noted from the questionnaire below (as best possible).

Program Requirements:
- FELA Mentor Orientation/Training Day (June 2020)
- Academy (FELA) Day 1 at ASCCC Faculty Leadership Institute (June 2020)
- 2 other FELA Days prior to other ASCCC events, such as fall and spring Plenary (note that registration, travel, and lodging for Plenary and other events is not included in program)
- Monthly check-ins with mentee (during fall and spring, either remotely or in-person, duration determined by mentor in coordination with mentee approximately one half-hour or more)
- Co-write a Rostrum article or co-present at an ASCCC event with mentee Fees and Reimbursement:
The Faculty Empowerment and Leadership Academy is free to mentees and mentors. The FELA program will cover the following expenses for Academy days only: lunches, cost of hotel, and travel expenses (travel and lodging will be reimbursed after attendance to each Academy day according to ASCCC policy and not to exceed $300, unless otherwise determined by ASCCC). The FELA program is not able to offer financial assistance to other ASCCC events.
Here are suggested entities to ask for funding for participation in other ASCCC events:
- Local academic senate--ask your senate president for support and/or guidance
- Professional development funds--seek out local/campus professional development grants; ask your professional development coordinator or senate president for assistance
- Administration--ask your vice presidents, deans, or president/chancellor for support and/or guidance in finding resources
- Equity funds or special funds/grants--ask directors or coordinators for support or other funding source ideas

Please know that the ASCCC recognizes that cost may be a barrier to participation, if financial support from your campus is unavailable, please email foundation@asccc.org to apply for an Academic Senate Foundation Scholarship or for assistance in navigating the system as you seek to secure financial support. We are here to help, guide, and support you during every step of the process while applying and participating in FELA!

Executive Committee Agenda Item

SUBJECT: Paper on Effective Transfer Practices

Month: March | Year: 2020
Item No: IV. L.
Attachment: Yes, forthcoming

DESIRED OUTCOME: The Executive Committee will consider for approval the draft of the paper Effective and Equitable Transfer Practices in the Community Colleges

Urgent: No
Time Requested: 25 mins.

CATEGORY: Action Items

REQUESTED BY: Sam Foster

TYPE OF BOARD CONSIDERATION:
Consent/Routine
First Reading Action
Discussion

Please note: Staff will complete the grey areas.

BACKGROUND:

Resolution (4.01 S18) requesting a paper was on effective transfer practices was approved. The resolution states:

Whereas, California Education Code, Title 5 regulations, local policies and procedures, and restrictions placed on colleges by the California State University (CSU), the University of California (UC), independent institutions, and out-of-state institutions result in a wide variety of transfer practices and standards around the state leading to confusion among colleges as well as the exclusion and inequitable treatment of transfer-bound students across the system; and

Whereas, The Academic Senate for California Community Colleges has numerous resolutions in support of transfer opportunities for students such as Resolution 4.01 F17 “Support Students Transferring to UC, CSU, and Private and Out-of-State Institutions”;

Resolved, That the Academic Senate for California Community Colleges develop a paper identifying effective practices around transfer to assist colleges to create and apply uniform and equitable transfer policies and bring the paper to the Fall 2019 Plenary Session for adoption.

An outline for the paper was approved during the September 28, 2019, Executive Committee Meeting. An initial draft was submitted during the January 2020 meeting and feedback was provided to the Transfer, Articulation, and Student Services committee which incorporated the feedback into this updated draft. The Executive Committee will discuss and consider for approval as the updated draft the paper Effective and Equitable Transfer Practices in the Community Colleges.

Executive Committee Agenda Item

SUBJECT: Providing guidance for colleges with respect to the implementation of SB 1359.

DESIRED OUTCOME: The Executive Committee will consider for approval the proposed “white paper” or define another course of action.

BACKGROUND:
A resolution from Spring 2019 calls on us to provide guidance regarding local implementation of SB 1359 by Spring 2020. The resolution is provided below for your reference. We have been doing annual surveys of OER Liaisons to assess how – and what – the colleges are doing. We’ve observed the concerns of the field move from the technical challenge of inserting a logo into the online schedule – to a very thoughtful consideration of what “full implementation means”.

Develop Recommendations for the Implementation of a No-Cost Designation in Course Schedules

Spring 2019; Resolution Number: 13.01

Whereas, SB 1359 (Block, 2016) requires all segments of public higher education in California to “Clearly highlight, by means that may include a symbol or logo in a conspicuous place on the online campus course schedule, the courses that exclusively use digital course materials that are free of charge to students and may have a low-cost option for print versions” (California Education Code §66406.9) as of January, 2018;

Whereas, Determinations of what course sections qualify for a no-cost identifier as required by SB 1359 (Block, 2016) are subject to interpretation, with some colleges opting to interpret the legislation very strictly and others opting to highlight all courses with no associated costs (i.e., including those courses that have never required a text); and

1 Staff will review your item and provide additional resources to inform the Executive Committee discussion.
Whereas, Developing guidance and suggested practices for local senates to consider for the implementation of SB 1359 (Block, 2016) may result in appropriate consistencies across the colleges;

Resolved, That the Academic Senate for California Community Colleges investigate the approaches used to implement SB 1359 (Block, 2016) across all segments of higher education in California and similar efforts in other states; and

Resolved, That the Academic Senate for California Community Colleges develop suggested guidelines, policies, and practices for implementation of SB 1359 (Block, 2016) no later than Spring of 2020.

PROPOSED COURSE OF ACTION AND RATIONALE:

There are a number of proximal issues that have made the implementation of SB 1359 challenging. Most notably:

1. technical difficulties with introducing a no-cost designation into online schedules.
2. the introduction of a definition of “no-cost” which differs from the definition of Zero Textbook Cost (ZTC) put forth by the CCC Chancellor’s Office and prior legislation.
3. the desire to implement the designation in a manner that is most useful to students – students who are likely more interested in knowing that a section does not have costs as opposed to understanding why (i.e., no-cost as defined by SB 1359, ZTC, or a course with no required text).
4. establishing a mechanism for identifying which course sections receive the designation.

In addition, there are a variety of distal issues that we hope to provide assistance with including:

1. ensuring references to no-cost resources in the schedule and bookstore are accurate, indicating where digital resources can be accessed and how print versions can be obtained.
2. ensuring digital resources are as readily available to students as purchasing options.
3. assisting faculty in identifying ways to make digital resources available to students at the time of course enrollment.

In response to the resolution, it is proposed that the most immediate needs by addressed through the passage of a resolution and the adoption of a white paper by the Executive Committee that provides the rationale for the resolution. In addition, resolutions will be put forward that address other aspects of the implementation of SB 1359.

The resolved clauses of the proposed resolution are as follows:
Resolved, that the Academic Senate for California Community Colleges recommends that colleges implement both:

1. a no-cost designation for course sections that require a text but no-cost is passed on to students and
2. a separate designation to recognize those courses that do not require a text and, consequently, have no associated costs for instructional resources;

Resolved, that the Academic Senate for California Community Colleges recommends that the no-cost designation be used to recognize those sections that use digital resources (consistent with SB 1359) and those sections that require a text yet are “no-cost” due to something other than a digital alternative;

Resolved, that the Academic Senate for California Community Colleges recommends integration of identification of a course section as being no-cost into the existing textbook selection process; and

Resolved, that the Academic Senate for California Community Colleges provide additional guidance and resources related to SB 1359 no later than the fall 2020 plenary.
Recommendations for the Implementation of a No-Cost Designation in Course Schedules – An Academic Senate White Paper
2-23-20

BACKGROUND

At the 2019 ASCCC Spring Plenary, the following resolution was adopted:

Develop Recommendations for the Implementation of a No-Cost Designation in Course Schedules

Spring 2019; Resolution Number: 13.01

Whereas, SB 1359 (Block, 2016) requires all segments of public higher education in California to “Clearly highlight, by means that may include a symbol or logo in a conspicuous place on the online campus course schedule, the courses that exclusively use digital course materials that are free of charge to students and may have a low-cost option for print versions” (California Education Code §66406.9) as of January, 2018;

Whereas, Determinations of what course sections qualify for a no-cost identifier as required by SB 1359 (Block, 2016) are subject to interpretation, with some colleges opting to interpret the legislation very strictly and others opting to highlight all courses with no associated costs (i.e., including those courses that have never required a text); and

Whereas, Developing guidance and suggested practices for local senates to consider for the implementation of SB 1359 (Block, 2016) may result in appropriate consistencies across the colleges;

Resolved, That the Academic Senate for California Community Colleges investigate the approaches used to implement SB 1359 (Block, 2016) across all segments of higher education in California and similar efforts in other states; and

Resolved, That the Academic Senate for California Community Colleges develop suggested guidelines, policies, and practices for implementation of SB 1359 (Block, 2016) no later than Spring of 2020.

As the final resolved asks for the Academic Senate for California Community Colleges (ASCCC) … to develop suggested guidelines, policies, and practices for implementation of SB 1359 (Block, 2016) no later than Spring of 2020”, this brief paper has been prepared to provide a rationale for recommendations regarding the implementation of this legislation that will be considered for adoption during the ASCCC Spring 2020 Plenary, with additional guidance to follow.

Senate Bill 1359 (SB 1359; Block, 2016) is codified in California Education Code as follows:

66406.9. (a) Each campus of the California Community Colleges and the California State University shall, and each campus of the University of California is requested to, do both of the following:

(1) (A) Clearly highlight, by means that may include a symbol or logo in a conspicuous place on the online campus course schedule, the courses that exclusively use digital course materials that are free of charge to students and may have a low-cost option for print versions.

(B) The course materials described in subparagraph (A) may include open educational resources, institutionally licensed campus library materials that all students enrolled in the course have access to use, and other properly licensed and adopted materials. Each campus of the California State University, each participating campus of the University of California, and each community college district shall ensure that these materials comply with the federal Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990 (42 U.S.C. Sec. 12101 et seq.) and the federal Copyright Act of 1976 (Public Law 94-553).

(2) Clearly communicate to students that the course materials used for the courses identified pursuant to paragraph (1) are free of charge and therefore not required to be purchased.

(b) For purposes of this section, the following terms have the following meanings:

(1) “Course schedule” is a collection of available classes, course sections, or both, published electronically, before the start of an academic term.

(2) “Open educational resources” are high-quality teaching, learning, and research resources that reside in the public domain or have been released under an intellectual property license, such as a Creative Commons license, that permits their free use and repurposing by others, and may include other resources that are legally available and free of cost to students. “Open educational resources” include, but are not limited to, full courses, course materials, modules, textbooks, faculty-created content, streaming videos, tests, software, and any other tools, materials, or techniques used to support access to knowledge.

(c) This section shall become operative on January 1, 2018.
While the intent of the legislation is laudable and aligned with the system’s success and equity goals, elements of its language are problematic. Most notably,

1. the requirement that “courses” be highlighted when it is individual course sections that would be marked in online course schedules and
2. the limit of the use of the designation to those course sections that are no cost because they “exclusively use digital course materials”.

While it is clearly the intent of the legislation to mark course sections as resource selections are typically identified by section, the more problematic element of the legislation is the requirement to limit the use of the designation to only those sections that employ no-cost digital resources. As of early 2020, it appears that most of the colleges have effectively implemented a means of providing a designation in their online schedules, but they are struggling with determining what to mark with that designation. This paper provides recommendations to address this need and is a partial response to the referenced resolution (ASCCC Resolution 13.01, Spring 2019).

OVERVIEW

As the implementation of SB 1359 roughly correlated with the introduction of the ASCCC Open Educational Resources Initiative (OERI) and one intent of the legislation appears to be to encourage use of open educational resources (OER), the OERI initiated an annual survey related to the implementation of SB 1359 in the fall term of 2018. It was anticipated that the use of the no-cost designation could be used to provide a rough estimate of the rate of OER adoption. The findings from fall 2018 revealed that many colleges were struggling with the technical component of implementation - determining how to code the designation into their schedules. A review of the fall 2019 data, however, indicate that the technical challenges have been addressed by most of the colleges. At present, in early 2020, we find that the colleges are struggling with the details of implementation, namely what criteria are to be used to identify sections for marking and how to ensure that information is gathered effectively.

While the Senate Floor Analysis of the bill (8/19/16) makes it explicit that the reference to “exclusively” digital resources was intentional, it is not clear that there was a consideration of no-cost efforts that were already in progress in the system when the legislation was introduced. Namely, significant investments were being made to increase the availability of Zero Textbook Cost (ZTC) degree pathways that consisted of course sections with no instructional materials costs. ZTC sections may achieve their no-cost status by employing digital OER, but they also may so do by other means, such as providing print versions of a text to students. In addition to sections which are no-cost to students because the required text is free or provided to the student, there are other course sections which require no text (as documented in the course outline of record) and are, consequently, no-cost sections. Across the state, each of the colleges has developed its own interpretation of which sections are to be marked or faculty are left to make the determination on their own as individuals, departments, or divisions.

Conclusions and Recommendations

If the true intent of the bill is to facilitate student identification of no-cost sections and to create pressure on faculty to adopt no-cost options, limiting the use of the designation to only those sections that rely on digital resources is not warranted. At the same time, excluding those sections with no text would also be inconsistent with the ultimate goal. If, however, tracking the use of the designation was intended to be a metric for assessing a college’s progress with respect to lowering textbook costs, including those courses that have no text would be problematic. After considering the presumed intent and the potential utility of the designation as a meaningful metric, it is the ASCCC’s recommendation that colleges implement both:

1. a no-cost designation for course sections that require a text but no-cost is passed on to students and
2. a separate designation to recognize those courses that do not require a text (per the course outline of record) and, consequently, have no associated costs for instructional resources.

The use of two such designations would both provide students with the information they need and facilitate useful data collection. While the focus here is on no-cost resources, many colleges are considering – or have – implemented low-cost designators. Ideally, we would have systemwide consistency with respect to the implementation of both the two no-cost designations and a low-cost one.

As colleges have always had clearly defined textbook selection processes, creating a separate process for identifying no-cost sections should not be necessary. The identification of no-cost sections should be integrated into the textbook selection process to ensure consistency in what is marked across the college and to ensure consistency in the available information regarding all course sections both in the online course schedule and the bookstore. This process integration may also have the benefit of spurring the conversations and collaboration that are needed to ensure that there is a “a low-cost option for print versions.”
Recommendations for the Implementation of a No-Cost Designation in Course Schedules

Whereas, Resolution 13.01 (Spring 2019) asked that the “…Academic Senate for California Community Colleges develop suggested guidelines, policies, and practices for implementation of SB 1359 (Block, 2016) no later than Spring of 2020.”;

Whereas, Most California community colleges have overcome the technical challenges associated with implementing a “no-cost” designation in their online course schedules and are now seeking to perfect this implementation by ensuring consistency in the criteria used to determine which sections are marked with this designation and establishing procedures to ensure that no qualifying sections are missed;

Whereas, The details of the legislation (i.e., the requirement that sections marked with the no-cost designation be those “that exclusively use digital course materials”) is inconsistent with how “zero textbook cost” (ZTC) had been defined by the California Community Colleges Chancellor’s Office and does not address how courses that have never required a text (as documented in the course outline of record) should be treated; and

Whereas, Consistency and transparency across the colleges is beneficial to students, faculty, and anyone with an interest in assessing the impact of efforts to reduce textbook costs;

Resolved, That the Academic Senate for California Community Colleges recommend that colleges implement both:

1. a no-cost designation for course sections that require a text but no-cost is passed on to students and
2. a separate designation to recognize those courses that do not require a text and, consequently, have no associated costs for instructional resources;

Resolved, That the Academic Senate for California Community Colleges recommend that the no-cost designation be used to recognize those sections that use digital resources (consistent with SB 1359[Block, 2016]) and those sections that require a text yet are “no-cost” due to something other than a digital alternative;

Resolved, That the Academic Senate for California Community Colleges recommend integration of identification of a course section as being no-cost into the existing textbook selection process; and

Resolved, That the Academic Senate for California Community Colleges provide additional guidance and resources related to SB 1359 no later than the fall 2020 plenary.

BACKGROUND: ASCCC holds elections for officers each spring with the promise and reality of a new dynamic moving forward. As the longevity of ASCCC positions is based on one’s individual trajectory and with new changes to the ASCC bylaws, a discussion from current Officers and the Executive Director to provide information for future candidates is requested. Questions for consideration:

What are the significant differences in the roles and responsibilities, as well as expectations of an ASCCC Executive Committee Member versus an ASCCC Executive Committee Officer?

What is the most rewarding part of being an ASCCC Executive Committee Officer?

What is the biggest challenge of an ASCCC Executive Committee Officer position?

What conflicts of interest might impede one’s ability to serve in the officer role capacity?

What changes may impact the roles/ responsibilities of an ASCCC Executive Committee Officer?

What is the best resource for preparing for the role of an ASCCC Executive Committee Officer?

What is one piece of advice you would give to future ASCCC Executive Committee Officers?

ALL ASCCC COMMITTEE: Are changes suggested to functionalize the efforts of the Elections Operational Committee (or other) to support future ASCCC Executive Committee Members/Officers? (Rostrum, breakout presentations, candidate forum, other?)

BACKGROUND:

In an effort to improve monthly meetings and the functioning of the Executive Committee, members will discuss what is working well and where improvements may be implemented.

¹ Staff will review your item and provide additional resources to inform the Executive Committee discussion.
I. Call to Order and Adoption of the Agenda

The meeting was called to order at 1:00pm and the agenda was adopted.

II. Selection of Minutes Taker and approval of last meetings minutes

Stephanie will take minutes. The Committee also reviewed the minutes from the last meeting.

III. Update on ASCCC Executive Committee review of and input on the second draft agenda for 2020 Accreditation Institute Committee discussed the recommendation from Exec to broaden the diversity of the speakers. Stephanie will reach out to additional speakers suggested by Exec and committee members.

IV. Action Items

a. Assigned Tasks

The committee reviewed the Institute Draft. Leaders, from the committee, were assigned to each breakout to facilitate the speakers and content.

Stephanie will reach out to all speakers in the new year and let them know their liaison. Committee members will then contact their groups to work on the breakouts. The committee agreed to try to get the PPTs completed and ready for upload to the website and app by February 14th.

Committee members will also review the breakouts titles, descriptions and types with their groups and send changes to Stephanie by January 20th.

The committee reviewed the Welcome Letter for the Institute and a Rostrum article on “Making Accreditation Student Centered”.

The Committee brainstormed ideas for Spring 2020 Plenary Breakouts.
V. Important Dates

- January 20, 2020 Changes to Institute Program due to Stephanie
- January 27, 2020 Final Program to ASCCC
- February 14, 2020 PPTs for Upload to App and Website.
- February 21-22, 2020 Accreditation Institute

VI. Next Meeting Date
   The next meeting date will be January 24, 2020

VII. Adjournment

   The Committee adjourned at 2:20 pm.
Minutes

I. Call to Order and Adoption of the Agenda

The meeting was called to order at 1:02 pm. The committee adopted the agenda.

II. Selection of Minutes Taker and approval of last meetings minutes

Stephanie will take minutes and the committee was sent the meeting minutes from the 12/16/19 meeting. Committee members were asked to review the minutes and send any changes to Stephanie.

III. Check in on Progress for Accreditation Institute

Each member of the committee gave an update on their progress in facilitating their assigned breakouts.

Committee members reviewed the final draft of the program and the welcome letter.

Stephanie will send the final program, welcome letter and list of speakers to Krystinne Mica at ASCCC.

IV. Institute Logistics

Committee agreed to meet for dinner on Thursday night before the Institute.

V. Potential Rostrum Articles/Resolutions

At the institute committee members will see if there are any emerging issues that may require resolutions for the Spring Plenary.
VI. Important Dates

a. PPTs for uploading to website and app goal (February 14, 2020)
b. 2020 Accreditation Institute (February 21-22, 2020)

VII. Next Meeting Date

The committee agreed to meet again the week of February 10th.

VIII. Adjournment

The meeting adjourned at 1:40pm
Minutes

I. Call to Order and Adoption of the Agenda
   The meeting was called to order at 1:04pm. The agenda was reviewed and adopted by the committee.

II. Selection of Minutes Taker and approval of last meetings minutes
   Stephanie will take minutes and the members were sent the last set of minutes after the last meeting, no suggested changes.

III. Check in on Progress for Accreditation Institute
   Members updated the committee on the breakouts for which they are responsible. Sheri Berger and Ted Blake who could not attend sent email updates. Committee members will send finalized PPTs to Stephanie as they are completed.

IV. Institute Logistics
   Committee discussed logistics including rooms, technology, and handouts. Committee members are encouraged to download PPTs to their computers due to potential Wi-Fi concerns, bring a PPT clicker if possible and make sure they have the correct connections for breakout room projectors.

V. Potential Rostrum Articles/Resolutions
   Committee members did not identify any potential rostrum articles or resolutions but will confirm at the meeting on February 20, 2020 at the committee dinner the night before the Institute.

VI. Important Dates
   a. 2020 Accreditation Institute (February 21-22, 2020)

VII. Next Meeting Date
    Accreditation Committee Dinner February 20, 2020 at 6:30 Hotel Restaurant

VIII. Adjournment
    The meeting adjourned at 1:31pm
ASCCC-DSPS Paper Workgroup
February 13, 2020 2019
9-10am

Attendance: Stephanie Curry, Debra Williams, Kimberly Bell, Edina Rutland, Stormy Miller

Minutes

I. Call to Order and Adoption of the Agenda

The meeting was called to order at 9am. Due to a confusion with the request for closed captioning there was no captioner for the meeting. Stephanie will double check the conformation of a captioner for the next meeting. The committee reviewed the agenda with no changes.

II. Select Minutes Recorder

Stephanie will take minutes

III. ASCCC Publication Guidelines

The Committee reviewed the ASCCC Publication Guidelines. The group reviewed all of the questions in the paper prompts discussing the purpose of the paper, scope, necessary data and suggested appendices.

The committee felt that it was important to have a paper that was reviewed and approved by the body and that the scope would not be able to be addressed in other modalities such as Rostrums or breakouts.

Committee members did feel that those could be used in conjunction with the paper to provide professional development and support the recommendations in the paper.

Stephanie will summarize the discussion and submit it to the ASCCC

IV. Review of Paper Outline

https://drive.google.com/drive/u/0/folders/1GS-banWJ_jlXZGTZbdruO3YsFq8naRLw

The committee also reviewed the proposed draft paper outline to address any potential gaps. Disability categories was added to the section on Data. This revised draft will be sent to the ASCCC Exec for review and Comment hopefully in early March

V. Next Meeting

Stephanie will send out a Doodle poll for the next meeting in March

VI. Adjournment

The committee adjourned at 9:50pm
DRAFT Meeting Summary

I. Member roll call
   Mayra Cruz - present  Darcie McClelland - present
   Cheryl Aschenbach - present  Jessica Ayo Alabi - absent
   Eileen Tejada - absent  Juan Burriel - present
   Karla Kirk - present  C. Kahalifa King - present

II. Meeting Called to Order. Agenda adopted by consensus. Cheryl will take notes for today.

III. Meeting summary from January 15, 2019 approved by consensus. Thanks to Juan for taking notes. (attachment)

IV. Check-in
    Members checked in by sharing work they’ve been doing.

V. March Meeting: In Person 10am-3pm (discuss) Members discussed the potential of an in-person meeting. March 11 did not work for everyone. Other dates were considered but it was agreed that an in-person meeting doesn’t work with everyone’s schedules. The March 11 meeting will remain a Zoom meeting.

VI. Reports
    A. ASCCC Executive Committee February Meeting Report Mayra and Cheryl reported about the ASCCC transfer alignment efforts and efforts to expand ADTs to more than 60 units in select, agreed-upon disciplines.

VII. Career and Noncredit Institute Request for Proposal (April 30th –May 2nd)
    A. Topics and authors (at least 2)
       a. Ideas:
          i. Program review and data – evaluating equity data in CTE programs (Karla, based on work being done at Fresno City College)
          ii. Using CTE MQ toolkit to hire diverse faculty in CTE programs (Mayra, Cheryl)
       b. Karla will prepare a title and description. Mayra will submit titles to CNEI leaders.

VIII. Spring Plenary (April 16-18th) (discussion)
      Sessions: determine presenters/session description
      A. Tools to Lead Your College’s Dialog About Systemic Change (Lead: Mayra, Presenters:
Kahalifa, Karla (April 17th)

B. Hiring through an Equity Lens: Evaluating the Second Minimum Qualification (Mayra/Luke Lara) (April 16th) *Darcie added to this presentation given her local work with hiring through an equity lens

C. Follow-up to Faculty Diversification general session (Mayra, others?) *Karla may also present/facilitate and may invite HR director from Fresno City.

Resolutions Topics and authors

- Recommendation to Update Title 5 Language for Second Minimum Qualification (Mayra, Luke Lara, Michelle Bean)
  You are able to review and add your thoughts or edit here.
- Support Anti-Racism Pledge
  - Anti-Racism Pledge
  - It was discussed that the pledge had a lot of historical information in it that could be shared more prominently and intentionally by being a paper. It was agreed that a resolution should be developed calling for a paper to be developed (see next resolution idea) and that the historical info would be pulled from anti-racism pledge. Juan was going to provide input to the pledge resolution to further emphasize the need for commitment and action rather than simply symbolism.
- Recommendation that in its effort to promote anti-racism education, ASCCC develop a paper highlighting historical structures that have created and maintained racism. *Darcie said she’d help with the paper if the resolution passes and it’s worked on over the summer.

IX. January 22, 2020 Faculty Diversification Meeting (attachment) (information)

Mayra shared a few highlights of the faculty diversification meeting with system partners. The Faculty Development and Leadership Committee, Equity and Diversity Action Committee, Standards and Practices Committee, and Educational Policies Committee all play a significant role in creating recommended tools, guidance, resources and perspectives as we move forward with our work to address the inequities inherent in our system. More info will be shared in March.

X. Committee Priorities (discussion and/or action)

A. Resolution S16 1903 Infusing Equity through College Processes- Collaboration with GPTF
   This is in progress although not much has happened recently.

B. Resolution S17 3.02 Support for Marginalized Students
   Action: EDI/Anti-bias and Anti-Racism module or webinar (Mayra, Darcie, Karla)

C. Resolution S19 13.01 In Support of All Gender Restrooms (referral from RwLS)
   i. Calls for all colleges to create gender inclusive building plans and campus maps
   ii. Rostrum article (reach out to Kelly Rivera)
   iii. Resource handout

XI. Work Plan Monitoring (Basecamp) (Reports, discussion and next steps)

A. Actions, assignments and To-dos
   1. Student Equity & Achievement Plan (Darcie, Jessica, Karla, Juan)
   2. EDI/Anti-Bias and Anti-Racism Education Tools (Mayra, Karla, Darcie)
   3. Faculty Diversification Tools to Engage in Dialog (Mayra, Cheryl & Karla)
   4. Presentations/Collaborations and Conferences
a. Spring Plenary (item #VI) (April 16-18th)

b. A2Mend Spring Conference (March 5 & 6th)
   i. Sessions have been assigned
   ii. Need progress report on preparing for the sessions
      Representation Matter (Lead: Karla)
      Black Masculinity on Campus (Lead: Jessica) Asking for Help is a Sign of Strength (Lead: Mayra with Darcie)

c. CCCOCO Diversification Summit March 19 & 20
   Presentation on Minimum Qualifications (Michelle Bean and John Stanskas) (morning)
   Group Activity led by EEO Committee (Mayra Cruz) (lunch time)
   Faculty Retention Panel (Luke Lara and Karen Chow) (afternoon)

   The Group Activity and Retention Panel are being organized by the Chancellor’s Office.
   Intended audience: academic senate presidents, CEOs, and HR managers and capped at a total of 200 attendees.

d. Supporting Undocumented Students
   - Rostrum article to respond to Resolution S17 3.02 Engaging local senates in dialogue with others to support all students. (Who?)

B. February Priorities (review and discuss/assign)

1. Rostrum Articles (Co-authors) due March 5th
   - Education Master Plan and Strategic Plans: Incorporating Equity (S16 19.03)
   - Stories from the field: How faculty of different colleges are involved in equity and lessons learn (From EDAC workplan Lead: Darcie/Jessica)
   - Engaging local senates in dialogue with others to support all students ("marginalized groups") (S173.02)
   - Best Practices for Involvement in the Student Equity and Achievement Plan and Implementation (Objective 2.2 EDAC workplan, Lead: Karla)
   - Support of All Gender Restrooms (Resolution S19 13.01)
   - Other ideas?

2. Equity Assessment of the Implementation of AB705 (Lead: GPTF Lead (TBA), Ty Simpson; EDAC Lead: Juan with Jessica, Eileen, Kahalifa) next steps
   i. With GPTF develop a tool to examine implementation instead of a rubric

3. A2MEND 13th Annual African American Male Summit sessions preparation
   “Choosing Our Race: Defining Our Own Pathway for African American Success” March 5-6, 2020 (due Feb 21 Leads: Karla, Jessica, Darcie, Mayra)

4. Celebrate successful Collaborations in equity and student achievement (attachment) Communication to the field sent on Feb 3rd

5. Outline EDI, Anti-Racism Education module/webinar
   (revise the date: Mayra, Karla, Darcie)

6. Tools for Colleges to Engage in Dialogue- develop and/or adapt (Discussion/Action)
   1. Systemic bias dialogue (attachment) (Luke, Mayra, Karla, Cheryl)
   2. Cultural change and improvement (Karla, Mayra, Cheryl, Luke)
   3. Benefits of multiple world view and lived experiences
XI. Meetings
   b. We still need to schedule April-June meetings.
   c. Next meeting March 11, 2020 (8:30am-10:00am via Zoom)

XII. Announcements
   d. Events
   e. Other

XIII. Closing comments and appreciations
   Appreciations were expressed to Mayra and to committee members.

XIV. Meeting adjourned at 10:30am.

Tasks in Progress:
1. Review the DEI Integration Plan Assignments
2. Follow-up with the EDAC previous chair to see if Committee Priorities comments were placed anywhere else. (Mayra)
3. Discuss next steps to support Undocumented Students.
4. Discuss the referral from the RwLS committee, Resolution S19 13.01 In Support of All Gender Restrooms
5. Tool development
6. Preparation for conferences- A²Mend Conference (March 5); Spring Plenary (April 15-18); APAHE Conference (April 10)

Completed Tasks:
1. EDAC Work Plan (approved 10/9/19)
2. EDAC charge review
3. Recommendation to Adopt the CACC Diversity, Equity & Inclusion Statement
4. Rostrum article Subtle Support for Our Undocumented Students in the Classroom by Juan Buriel
5. Partner with the Foundation CCC and CCCO Undocumented Students Week of Action Follow-up with Input To-Dos on Basecamp and assignments (Note: Incorporate resolutions in Action Plan)
6. 2019 Fall Plenary Resolutions submitted and adopted by the body.
   - Resolution 3.02 on anti-racism/no hate education was approved.
   - Resolution 3.03 on replacing the ASCCC Inclusion statement with a new Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion Statement was approved by acclamation.
7. A²Mend Spring Conference workshops- titles & descriptions
8. Spring 2020 Plenary EDAC Proposed Topics/Activity
   - Implicit bias in faculty diversification
   - Anti-racism education (Related to the content of the 3.02 F19 Support Infusing Anti-Racism/No Hate Education in Community Colleges)
     - Identify how bias, stereotyping, and discrimination have limited the roles and contributions of individuals and groups, and how these limitations have challenged and continue to challenge our society, including faculty diversification
Examine assumptions and prejudices, including, but not limited to, racism, sexism, and homophobia, that might limit the opportunities and growth of students and employees.

Explore inherent racism embedded in societal institutions, including the educational system and individually examine their personal role in the support of racist structures and the commitment to work to dismantle structural racism.

Effective practices to dismantle racism
- Culturally responsive teaching and practice (ie. infusing cultural competence)
- How faculty are involved in advancing equity
- Student services and instruction integration for student success
- Assessment or evaluation of equity in the implementation of AB705 implementation (Rubric)

Equity Driven Systems Paper topics
- Where is Equity in the 10+1?
- Applying a Theory of Action framework to Equity: Nots and Bolts
- Transforming the college into an equity driven institution: The Local Academic Senate Action Plan
- Critical conversations: Shifting ideologies to foster an equity-driven institution to improve student outcomes
- Hiring through an equity lens: Rethinking policies and procedures
- Assessing racial equity

Proposed Activity
Showcase: Celebrate successful collaborations to support equity and student achievement
(it requires that we develop a criteria and announcement)

9. Rostrum article Best Practices for Faculty Involvement in the Student Equity and Achievement Plan Tejada, Kirk, Cruz

10. Discussed with the Executive Committee concern of committee members financial ability to attend Plenary.

11. Celebrate successful Collaborations in equity and student achievement announcement, criteria and application completed.

Submitted by Cheryl Aschenbach
I. Roll Call, Call to Order, and Agenda Adoption—all present. Meeting began at 3:03 p.m.
Michelle Bean—Chair
Sam Foster—2nd Chair
Elizabeth Day
Elizabeth Imhof
Christy Karau
Luke Lara

II. Minutes Volunteer: Thank you, Sam!

III. December Minutes were approved.

IV. Shout Outs and Affirmations
   A. Congratulations Elizabeth Day, who shared that she passed certified medical surgical nurse exam.
   B. Congratulations to Santa Barbara College Faculty Mentor Program for receiving the ASCCC Exemplary Award Honorable Mention. Thank you, Elizabeth Imhof for sharing.
   C. Thank you to Emilie Mitchell for contributing to the Faculty Empowerment and Leadership Academy redesign with Elizabeth Day and for writing a Rostrum article with Michelle for the winter issue.

V. Evaluating Professional Development Activities
   A. Standard ASCCC Event Survey Tool
   B. Additional survey questions and verbiage to suggest to Exec to add to event tool—click here.
   Thank you, Luke, for helping to create the new questions. The committee reviewed the document and made a suggestion for question #16 regarding tenure process education; no other concerns. Consented to move forward with the new questions to be sent to Exec for its February meeting.

VI. Faculty Leadership Academy
   A. New Academy Proposal—click here. Recommended some modifications for the process including starting the recruitment earlier than May. Foundation recommended increasing the number of mentors/mentees to 15-20. Exec would like to see a line item request for the ASCCC 2020-21 budget.
   B. CSU Credit or Flex Credit: Check with the Executive Director to see if CSU credit is a viable option.

C. Next steps: Develop a workplan for implementation. Michelle and Elizabeth Day will meet with Emilie Mitchell on Monday to review the next steps.

 Minutes

Present: Dolores Davison, Ginni May, Kelly Kulzer, Erik Reese, Robert Stewart, Randy Beach

I. Call to Order; Adoption of the Agenda; Notetaker
Ginni May will take minutes.

II. Status of Previous Action Items
Dolores Davison discussed the Legislative Advocacy information.

a. Current Cycle
i. Two Year Bills – that may come continue to live: SB291 (Leyva); AB1314 (Medina); AB897 (Medina) we are just watching this one because it falls under working conditions, the CCLC took an opposed position, this bill moved out of appropriations on Thursday – we will just continue to watch;

ii. New Legislation – not a lot yet but quite a bit of discussion of bills that could be coming down: SB874 (Hill) a spot bill about the baccalaureate degrees, waited on the release of the report on the Baccalaureate degrees, this report can be found here. The tone of the report was interesting, and not real supportive of the baccalaureate degree programs. Interest in a bill on part-time office hours, again we would watch and most likely not take a position; a bill on student housing may come forward again; interest in giving both students a vote on the BoG and equitize role of students on local governing boards;

iii. January Budget Update – Discussion about the requests and needs of the CCCs took place. There is hope that some of the requests will be met in the May-Revise. The SCFF and Calbright funding did not change in the January Governor’s Budget. There will be a hearing on Calbright, where the ASCCC has been asked to provide testimony around curriculum, accreditation, and role of the academic senate. Title 5 §51016 requires that the Board of Governors recognizes the accrediting commission that accredits a CCC.

ACTION: Check to see what the Apprentice Council is looking for in regard to budget, budget issues on CBE and Workplace learning.

III. Legislative and Advocacy Day
a. Travel:
   i. Rooms will be reserved at the hotel for Tuesday, 3 March for all committee members ii. Flights need to be booked by the individual and will be reimbursed; same for driving.

b. Training: 3-6pm on 3 March, location TBD; dinner to follow immediately after – Evan Hawkins, FACCC Executive Director and Wendy Brill-Wynkoop, FACCC Board member will do the training; dinner to follow

c. Actual Leg Visits: Meet morning of on 6th floor of the Capitol in the café to review visits and discuss visits - Plan to be available 8:00-4:00 on that day; each group will be led by an ASCCC officer and will include an Executive Committee member and a LAC Committee member. Expect to do about 4 visits per team.

d. Depending on flights, possible debrief after visits

IV. Plenary Planning

   a. Legislative and Budget Update breakout on Thursday morning (16 April) Same breakout as in fall except with new legislation.
      Robert will be there, Kelly is a firm probably, Erik is a probably, Randy is a no

V. Other Legislative Efforts at this point

   a. CCLC Conference – just finished this morning
   b. ACCT Visit in Washington DC – Dolores and Ginni are both attending
   c. FACCC A&P Conference (8-9 March) – takes place right after the ASCCC Legislative days, ASCCC does not advocacy visits during this event
   d. ICAS Legislative Day (10 March) – advocacy visits will take place with CSU and UC academic senate colleagues

VI. Announcements

      ii. Reviewed Online Ed GOOGLE DRIVE for updates/changes.
      iii. Carrie indicated that our work on the Rostrum can be done through this prior to the next Rostrum due date: March 9th, 2020 (Resolution 11.01 S17: Using Savings from Adopting Canvas)

   b. Other ASCCC Committee Reports
      i. Ingrid updated the committee on CalBright: Chief of People & Culture Officer: Calbright request to share information about HR related initiatives: position posting/interview process, interview training, and draft Calbright salary schedules. Ingrid will follow up with information disseminated and committee will determine if action is needed.
      ii. Discussion of CCCCO Non-Duplication follow up memo 1.10.2020
      iii. Geoffrey provided a DE Guidelines update: Recommendations came from DEETAC in consultation with TTAC to CCCCO. Guidelines do not relate to face-to-face web-enhanced courses. Timeline for DE guidelines dissemination to the system is still TBD.

   c. CVC-OEI Local Peer Online Course Review
      i. Autumn Bell/ Michelle Pacansky-Brock from CVC-OEI
      ii. Does the lead course reviewer need to be outside of the college?
      iii. Policy or agreements needed? Philosophical discussion about internal and external review of courses.
         1. Ensure standards
         2. POCR vs. local college review
         3. Validation versus detailed examination
         4. Timing for review (bottleneck?)
         5. Noncredit considerations?
      Action: Committee supports notion of internal review for POCR and will bring to the ASCCC Executive Committee.
IV. Wrap-Up
   a. Expense Reimbursement Form & Policy
   b. Determine meetings dates/times
      i. Spring meetings via ZOOM- Carrie will send out a Doodle

II. Update regarding the request for ASCCC to seek legal advice regarding current technology and the Brown Act

There is no update regarding this item. The Executive Committee is meeting tomorrow and Saturday in San Jose.

III. Update regarding the ASCCC Executive Committee’s approval of the Local Senate Survey revision https://asccc.org/resources/surveys

There is no update regarding this item. The Executive Committee is meeting tomorrow and Saturday in San Jose.

IV. Local Senates Handbook review and revisions https://drive.google.com/drive/folders/1iEB2TEs3X_T207-efXjFZFeAYIK7PzY

The committee thoroughly reviewed the revised document and made some additional edits. Anna will submit the document for the Executive Committee’s meeting in March.

V. Brainstorm webinar topics

This item was postponed till the next meeting because the Handbook review and revision took most of the meeting time.
VI. Updates regarding committee priorities identified in the work plan:

a) Rostrum article
b) Paper on defining collegiality in the workplace
c) Library of resources – Travis is working on this item.

This item was postponed till the next meeting because the Handbook review and revision took most of the meeting time.

VII. Next steps to address the Fall 2019 assigned resolution 3.07 (Enable the Canvas Name Preference Option; https://asccc.org/resolutions/enable-canvas-name-preference-option)

This item was postponed till the next meeting because the Handbook review and revision took most of the meeting time.

VIII. Update and next steps regarding reaching out to colleges that have not been visited in the last five years:

MEETING SUMMARY

I. Welcome at 6:31 p.m. Geoffrey Dyer, Michelle Bean, Roy Shahbazian, Eric Thompson, Angela Escheverri, and Christopher Howerton all checked in.

II. Status of Disciplines List Revisions Submissions:
   A. Executive Committee Action in January 2020—voted to move the Registered Behavioral Technician proposal forward for second hearing. The Exec discussed that the Film Studies proposal required more evidence to move forward, especially since the change required narrowing the list of qualifying degrees. The proposing college could refine and resubmit in the next Disciplines List revision cycle.
   B. Resolution—Geoffrey will write the standard resolution for the Registered Behavioral revision request to change the Disciplines List.
   C. Last Year’s Cycle: Homeland Security update to the Disciplines List finally went to Board of Governors and approved.
   D. Begin Next Annual Cycle
      1. Updating website soon
      2. Question: Roy asked if we could update the ASCCC process to allow for changes mid-cycle (e.g., after the first hearing, allow changes resulting from the feedback)?
      3. A Rostrum article about the Disciplines List process and actions was written by Eric and Geoffrey.

III. Awards
   A. Exemplary Program Winners and Recognition—Rostrum article still in draft form.
   B. Hayward Award—readers should make their selections by February 6.
   C. Regina Stanback-Stroud Diversity Award—applications being received third week of February and read by EDAC.
      1. Suggestion: Combine descriptions about the two awards above for the Rostrum article.
      2. Award criterion suggestions:
         a) Clarification on fairly applying the rubric to both part-time and full-time is needed.
         b) Committee suggested the addition of equity-minded language and a diversity question to all award rubrics.
   D. Local Use of Awards—do we need to write criteria on how to use the award money? Geoffrey will clarify with Exec Director Krystinne about the sharing and distributing of checks to individual program winners.

IV. Faculty Diversification Strategies
A. Report of Faculty Diversification Strategies Partners Discussion—ACHRO, CIOs, ASCCC, CCCCO attended. Brainstormed ideas about how to provide guidance on faculty diversification for local campuses.
B. Equivalence Paper—we have developed the CTE MQ Toolkit and now need to update the Equivalency Paper to incorporate need for broader look at equivalency for faculty diversification. This idea received positive response from the CCCCO Diversity Workgroup on January 22.
C. Measuring the Second Minimum Qualification—Diversity Workgroup discussed the idea of threading questions related to second MQ on “sensitivity to and understanding of diversity” throughout the hiring process (e.g., behavioral questions during interview or teaching demo). EEO Workgroup will be recommending changes for the EEO plan requirements and Title 5 language (i.e. “sensitivity to”). Ideas to make it more than just compliant and more responsible for outcomes to move beyond compliance to faculty diversification systems change with a peer review of plans for tangible ways to measure the second MQ.

V. Updated Election Procedures:
A. Potential Resolution to Revise Rules—resolution from Geoffrey will be sent in email soon regarding vacancies happening as a result of positions opening from a preceding election seat won.

VI. Face-to-face Meeting: Will be on Tuesday, February 18, 2020 from 10 am to 3 pm at Los Angeles Mission College
A. Travel Request
B. Reimbursement Request Form: The form contains the reimbursement policies, which include that members will only be reimbursed for the lowest cost of travel. The committee plans to be in and out of the meeting on the same day.
C. Planning
1. Awards Rubrics—diversity
2. Disciplines List Handbook—amending mid-cycle
3. Second MQ—rubric to measure
4. Update Equivalency Paper—faculty diversification
5. CTE Toolkit Next Steps—possible CTE/Noncredit Institute Breakout
6. Taskforce to Review Disciplines List—Resolution 10.01 Spring 18

VII. Schedule of Upcoming Meetings
1. February 18 at Mission College in Sylmar
2. March 23 at 6:30—8:00 p.m. Zoom
3. April 20 at 6:30—8:00 p.m. Zoom

VIII. Committee Priorities from Adopted Resolutions
A. 17.09 Fall 17—ensuring MQs for apprenticeship in Disciplines List has been addressed, but other Resolveds have not been. Much work has been done already on this resolution.
B. 10.01 Spring 18—calling for taskforce to review that all disciplines are updated and current. Do we have a list that shows the last update to each discipline? Consider a Rostrum article for this process.

C. 19.03 Spring 18—oppose efforts to permit single course equivalency. 2016 paper addresses this, but maybe more information needs to be sent out to remind body.

IX. Adjournment at 8:07 p.m.

I. Call to Order and Adoption of the Agenda
At 4:00 p.m. Sam Foster (chair) welcomed the committee members participating in today’s meeting: Anna Bruzzese, Jose Lara, Mark Osea and Miles Vega. The committee unanimously adopted the agenda.

Absent: Lorraine Burnham-Levy

II. Volunteer note taker
Anna volunteered to take notes.

III. Fall Plenary Breakout Session on Transfer Pathways Debrief
Sam, Jose, Lorraine and Craig Rutan co-presented on this topic at the Fall Plenary in Newport Beach. The presentation was interactive and went well, even though not all slides got covered. The audience had a lot of questions, in particular about the alignment of UC and CSU transfer pathways. Sam suggested that we may want to ask Craig to help us, especially with a section of the paper that deals with UC transfer pathways.

IV. Update on Resolution 7.01 F17 Creating Guidelines for Veteran Resource Centers
a. Updated survey questions (see attached)
Sam submitted the proposed survey to the ASCCC Executive Committee for their December 6-7 meeting. We will have their feedback by our committee’s next meeting on December 11.

V. Update on Survey on Open Educational Resources (OER)
Sam reached out to Michelle Pilati to ask about what was needed and who should be consulted but did not get a clear answer/direction. One suggestion was that we need to know if anything about OER/low cost textbooks is included in the orientation. This will be put on our agenda for our December 11 meeting.

VI. Update on Transfer Paper
a. Review of preliminary draft
b. Timeline
   i. Draft edits to chair—Dec 5
   ii. Submit to Exec for First Read—Dec 10
   iii. Submit to Exec for Second Read—Feb 12

Sam compiled the sections and sent it out to the committee members before today’s meeting. The committee reviewed the current draft and discussed some currently missing pieces: section III of the outline needs some additional information. We need something on the support services. Jose will work on disability to support services. Anna will work on section III a, Sam and Anna will tackle III f. Jose will tackle III b. Miles will take section III e and g. Jose will also write something about AB 705 and its impact on the transfer center, and Mark can talk about the impact of AB 705 on articulation and transferability of courses. And, Jose will also discuss the impact of AB 705 on strengthening the transfer path/completion. Mark will also expand the section on the role of the counseling faculty. Jose also suggested referencing “Through the Gate” study in the introduction. Sam mentioned Umoja and Puente as additional strategies and interventions that helped with increasing transfer among underrepresented student populations. This would go under IV b. This would also be linked to equity. Another thing to include in the introduction is the Vision for Success. Sam went over the deadlines, the first deadline was changed from December 2 to December 5.

VII. Future Meetings
   a. Next Zoom meeting December 11 at 4 p.m.
   b. In-Person Meeting January 30 at Rio Hondo College

VIII. Other Items for Discussion
      There were no additional items.

IX. Announcements/Events
    a. Part Time Faculty Institute – Napa Valley – January 24, 2020
    b. Accreditation Institute – San Diego – February 21, 2020

X. Adjournment
    The meeting adjourned at 5:05 p.m.

Minutes respectfully submitted by Anna Bruzzese.

I. Call to Order and Adoption of the Agenda
At 4:02 p.m. Sam Foster (chair) welcomed the committee members participating in today’s meeting: Anna Bruzzese, Lorraine Burnham-Levy, Mark Osea and Miles Vega.

Absent: Jose Lara

II. Volunteer note taker
Anna volunteered to take notes.

III. Update on Resolution 7.01 F17 Creating Guidelines for Veteran Resource Centers
a. Executive Committee feedback on proposed survey
The Executive Committee provided some feedback but also felt that maybe we don’t need a survey to get this information. A suggestion was made to reach out to colleges directly. Sam contacted Dolores to start the process of reaching out to VRCs about effective practices.
b. List of Community College VRCs (attached)
As the distributed list demonstrates, almost all colleges have a VRC already, except for one which is sharing a VRC with another college.

IV. Update on Transfer Paper
a. Review of draft
b. Timeline
   i. Submit to Exec for First Read—Dec 12
   ii. Submit to Exec for Second Read—Feb 12
Sam has been working on combining all the information that committee members sent to him. He will make some additional edits before submitting the draft to Exec for first read. The committee talked about recommendations/conclusions, including adequate/stable funding and support for positions such as the Articulation Officer, as well as for Transfer Centers. Also, there is an issue of geography and distance from transfer institutions. The student to counselor ratio also continues to be a problem. This is linked to the FON and the 50% law. We also need to use counselors we have more effectively.

V. Update on Survey on Open Educational Resources (OER)
There is no update on this item today. This item will remain on our agenda.

VI. Fall Resolutions Assigned to TASSC
a. 9.01 F19 Local Determination of International Baccalaureate Credit at California Community Colleges
There is concern regarding the urgency of this resolution. Sam reached out to John Stanskas, and John put Sam in touch with Cheryl Aschenbach from 5C. John said we could make recommendations that can inform 5C because 5C makes systemwide recommendations. Cheryl said that 5C has already been working on a related policy, but the work is not yet finished, and they welcome our input. The committee reviewed the resolution. This item will be on our agenda for January.

b. 16.01 F19 Develop Standards of Practice Resource for Learning Assistance and Tutoring in the California Community Colleges, including the role of Learning Skills Coordinators or Instructors, and Tutoring Coordinators
   The committee reviewed this resolution. The due date is July 30, 2021, so if we have time, we will develop some suggestions for next year’s committee.

VII. Future Meetings
    a. In-Person Meeting January 30 at Rio Hondo College
    b. Plan Meetings for spring semester—best times
       The committee members talked briefly about their schedules and will plan its spring meetings during its January meeting.

VIII. Other Items for Discussion

I. Call to Order and Adoption of the Agenda
At 10:10 a.m. Sam Foster (chair) welcomed the committee members participating in today’s meeting: Anna Bruzzese, Jose Lara, Lorraine Burnham-Levy, Mark Osea and Miles Vega.

II. Volunteer note taker
Anna volunteered to take notes.

III. Planning for future meetings
a. Spring schedules and best times
   The committee decided that the best meeting time would be on Thursdays at 5 pm. Next meeting will be on February 13th and the following meeting will be on March 12th.

b. Frequency of needed meetings
   We will need at least two more meetings before submitting the final version by March 16.

IV. Breakout at CTE/ Noncredit institute
   a. Topics on promising counseling practices for CTE and noncredit
   b. Proposals due on February 7
      c. Call for Proposals can be found at: https://docs.google.com/forms/d/e/1FAIpQLScVnA4_3MsQiLB2on6TmhGpG9uC4oG2g4XvE8gdbesrLg3WQ/viewform

Key Messages: CVC-OEI January 2020 Advisory Committee Meeting

2019-20 CVC-OEI Strategic Focus
● Committee members were reminded of the strategic focus of the initiative, with the top priority for the current year to scale up CVC Exchange implementations so that more students can access cross-enrollment and accelerate their program completion. The goal is to achieve system-wide implementation of cross enrollment by June 2023.

CCC Distance Education & Educational Technology Advisory Committee (DEETAC) Report
● The revised Distance Education Guidelines have been submitted to the Telecommunications & Technology Advisory Committee (TTAC) and are on their way to the CCC Board of Governors.
● The committee is now working on recommendations regarding the coding of correspondence courses and guidance to the field on how campuses can respond to emergency closures in relation to distance education.

Call for Consortium Participation
● Colleges interested in joining the consortium and implementing the CVC Exchange need to complete a self-assessment process and submit the self-evaluation packets, which will be accepted on a rolling basis. Also required is a local academic senate resolution or statement of support, and intent to sign the Master Consortium Agreement, which provides the foundation for participating in cross enrollment and defines college commitments.
● Colleges wanting to join the consortium must provide a CVC Exchange implementation timeline, which is developed after a scheduled meeting between their Chief Technology Officer and CVC-OEI implementation staff.

2020-21 Ecosystem Update
● CVC-OEI is moving to a student support ecosystem model that can be sustained over time an account for increased student usage of tools/services, an increase in the number of colleges, and commitment of funding resources to CVC Exchange implementation.
● Moving forward, the ecosystem will focus on the core services that most directly impact online student success based on a set of criteria that was shared with the Advisory Committee.
● Beginning July 01, 2020, the CVC-OEI will provide online tutoring (NetTutor and Pisces), an online counseling and student services platform (Cranium Cafe), student readiness modules (Quest for Success), a student health and wellness resource (Wellness Central), and proctoring (Online Proctoring Network). This subsidy applies to current Consortium colleges as well as new colleges joining the Consortium.
● Colleges wishing to continue funding Namecoach, Proctorio, and SmarterMeasure on their own are encouraged to explore other funding streams (including Student Equity and Achievement dollars) or take advantage of statewide pricing discounts.

Local Peer Online Course Review
● The Consortium Agreement now references incremental benchmarks colleges and faculty complete in order to provide high quality, inclusive learning across all courses. The goal is to improve the quality of all online courses while also moving toward more courses aligned to the rubric. The benchmarks include faculty preparation for online teaching, faculty competency in course design, course design standards, course design support, and quality teaching.
● The Course Design Rubric will be streamlined to incorporate accessibility elements into the Sections A-C, shifting the focus from accessibility compliance to universal and inclusive design for learning. The streamlined rubric will be available in the next few months.

Improving Online CTE Pathways
● In spring 2020, 130 online CTE courses that have been improved or converted to online as a result of the IOP grants are being offered. It is estimated that 99,000 students will be served by the IOP grants in the 2020-21 academic year.
● Additionally, the project team is developing a series of promotional videos highlighting the various grant projects, which will appear on the cvc.edu and be shared with individual colleges.
● The CVC-OEI is partnering with the ASCCC as they develop C-ID descriptors for CTE programs, and is presenting at the spring Noncredit and Career Education Institute on the IOP grants.

B. Standing reports from constituent groups

- ASCCC (Kathy O’Connor, Geoffrey Dyer, Deborah Nolan) – The Executive Committee is already planning for Plenary on April 16-18. They have new rules for their election procedures. The Online Education Committee (chaired by Carrie Roberson and co-chaired by Geoffrey) is working with Autumn Bell from CVC-OEI on local Peer Online Course Review (POCR) and external faculty review.

- CAPED (Thad Selmants) – no update
- CCC Tech Connect (Heather Schmidt) – Over the break captioning funds were depleted but more was found so they are up and running again. This is common occurrence. Playposit, a video overlay tool that allows instructors to use quizzes to assess whether students are paying attention to the material, is moving forward with onboarding schools. Heather will send an email request to Joanna and Erin to formally present the project to DEETAC.
- CCL (Susan Hines) – not present at the time of the update
- CCLC BOT (Laura Casas) – no update
- CEOs (Tammeil Gilkerson) – 260 people attended the conference on housing and food insecurity. This event was akin to a celebration of what our community colleges doing. California community colleges have garnered national attention on efforts to address housing and food insecure students.
- CIOs (vacant)
- CISOA (Joe Moreau) – Preparing for the annual conference in Monterey during the first week. Usually sells out. Engaging in conversations with the Chancellor's Office about other common systems, like an ERP, with the goal to save money and improve services as other large scale programs (Canvas, tutoring, libraries).
- CSSO (vacant)
- CVC-OEI (Jodie Steeley) – Focus on cross enrollment continues especially getting IT departments on board. CVC-OEI is suspending some tools because of lack of funding: NameCoach, Proctorio, and Notebowl. Opportunity to continue those tools through the Foundation at discounted rates.
- DECO (Lisa Beach / Joanna Miller) – Preparing for the full meeting in June prior to OTC.
- RP Group (vacant)
- Student Senate (vacant)
- CCCCO
  - Educational Services (Erin Larson) - Today is the last day to donate to the Campaign to Fight Student hunger.
  - Michael Quiaoit – Thank you for work the committee has done on the DE Guidelines. Expressed appreciation for the connectivity of this group to other committees and constituency groups. Good stewards for our system to get better.
  - DSPS (Linda Vann) - CCCCCO is participating in an intersegmental basic needs summit next month.

C. DEETAC reviewed their Bagley-Keene requirements.

Link to PowerPoint for Bagley-Keene Overview – Past meeting practices of DEETAC will have to change. A majority of members cannot collaborate outside of meetings (via email, google doc, etc.). Formal workgroups of less than a majority can meet but will have to report to the full group on their activities. Online meetings will require participants to list their locations on the agenda as open to the public. Chancellor’s Office staff confirmed with the Legal Division that this is a requirement. (Following the meeting, the Legal Division referenced the State of California Attorney General’s Handy Guide to the Bagley-Keene Open Meeting Act (p. 7). If the group finds themselves out of compliance with Bagley-Keene, they intend to be transparent, upfront and provide full disclosure.

Urgency items now have a process for adding to the posted agenda and taking action during the meeting. DEETAC will set up a system for public comments for in-person and online meetings.

D. Charter Changes & Approval

DEETAC reviewed proposed changes to the charter. (Link to the Draft Charter)

The committee discussed the representation of the group.

- Specifically for Calbright, DEETAC decided that they would not have a voting seat as a member. However, DEETAC will again invite them to participate and/or present on their status.
- At the November meeting, DEETAC voted against having a CCCCO chair or co-chair. The CCCCO will participate as a member but does not vote.

VOTE: Moved to approve the Charter as Amended - Joe Moreau, Second - Laura Casas. Passed by Unanimous Consent

[Link to the final charter approved January 8, 2020.]

E. Approval of Meeting Notes:

a. October Notes

VOTE: Moved – Tammeil Gilkerson, Second – Jodie Steeley, Yes - 10, No – 0, Abstain – Deborah Nolan

b. November Notes

VOTE: Moved – Kathy O’Connor, Second – Jodie Steeley. Yes - 10, No - 0, Abstain – Deborah Nolan

c. December Notes

VOTE: Moved – Jodie Steeley, Second – Heather Schmidt. Yes - 10, No - 0, Abstain – Deborah Nolan

F. Review [Draft DE Guidelines]

Members discussed the issue that web enhanced face-to-face classes that may be considered partially online because the note about on-campus instruction with technology-assisted delivery follows the “partially online” definition section of the Distance Education Guidelines.

VOTE: Move to approve the DE Guidelines as amended - Kathy O’Connor, Second – Tammeil Gilkerson. Passed by unanimous consent.
VOTE: Move to take agenda out of order – Kathy O’Connor, Second – Tammeil Gilkerson, Approved by unanimous consent

G. Competency Based Education – Guest Cheryl Aschenbach

The California Community Colleges Curriculum Committee (5C) has started discussions on competency-based education (CBE). The plan to moving forward is to implement in our system and not at just one college, as it is currently. They will have facilitated discussions around structure, equity, definitions, and a common understanding of what CBE means. Ultimately, what policy or regulation changes or recommendation can be made to implement CBE system-wide?

Schedule of topics:

- January – Structures, Role of Faculty
- February – Schedule, Flexible Scheduling, Academic Calendars
- March – Transcripts (including blended CBE and non-CBE), Grades, Course Equivalency, Student Progress and/or Achievement
- April – Apportionment, Faculty Load
- May – Policy Recommendations,
- June – Policy Recommendations

5C is made up of Faculty, CIOs, CTE representative (appointed by CCCAOE), Noncredit representative (appointed by ACCE), 2 voting CCCCO members, CSSO, Student Senate representative, Chancellor’s Office staff as resources

5C intends to bring the CBE conversation to conferences this Spring and is looking for additional places they can engage the stakeholders.

5C will share information and provide reports on their progress.

H. Emergency Conditions and Curriculum – Guest Cheryl Aschenbach

5C began conversation on how colleges can response to emergencies (like fires and power outages) and what happens to instructional hours and students’ potential loss of credit. Current emergency plans address facilities and operation but not instruction. 5C will develop considerations for before, during, and after emergencies.

I. 2019-2020 DEETAC Goals

Members reviewed and prioritized the 2019-2020 DEETAC Goals as edited at the November 6 Meeting (Final Approved and Prioritized DEETAC Goals for 2019-20)

VOTE: Move to adopt the goals as amended with the one priority of updating DE MIS data elements – Kathy O’Connor, Second – Joe Moreau, Yes – 11, No – 0, Abstain – 0.

J. Correspondence Courses (postponed to next agenda)
Update on reclassifying “correspondence” courses and proposed MIS data changes (Link to proposed DED XF01: Session Instruction Method changes)

K. Process for Adoption of System-wide Educational Technology (postponed to next agenda)

DEETAC will discuss how system-wide educational technology is adopted and the committee’s responsibilities in this process.

Summary of DEETAC Goals

- Update the DE MIS data elements
- Endorse a SARA information event and revisit a letter of support
- Explore inclusion of a new MIS data elements for Zero Textbook Cost degree programs
- Develop guidance for DE audit tests for the field
- Establish DEETAC as an “advise and consult” body for system wide educational technology procurement
- Collaborate with 5C to develop guidelines for competency-based education
- Recommendation for changing noncredit DE funding

Completed:

- [x] Adopt the DE Guidelines, set process for continuous revision
- [x] Revise the charter

CALIFORNIA COMMUNITY COLLEGES CHANCELLOR’S OFFICE EQUAL EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITY (EEO) AND DIVERSITY ADVISORY COMMITTEE
Thursday, December 12, 2019 (10:30 a.m. – 2:00 p.m.)
Conference Room 630, 6th Floor, Sacramento, CA 95811

Co-Chairs: Dr. Daisy Gonzales (Chancellor’s Office)
Albert M. Moore (West Valley-Mission CCD)

I. Introductions & Meeting Purpose

Attendees:
Hildy Aguinaldo, Board of Governors Member
Beth Au, CCC Registry, Yosemite CCD
David Betts, ACCCA, Chabot-Las Positas CCD
Mayra Cruz, ASCCC, Foothill-De Anza CCD
Fermin Villegas, CCCCO, General Counsel’s Office
Greg Smith, Shasta College
Sussanah Sydney, Santa Rosa Jr. College
Stacy Zuniga, State Center CCD
Tanya Bosch, CCCCO
Susan Bray, Executive Director, ACCCA
James Todd, San Joaquin Delta CCD
Sean Madden, IEPI, CCCCO

Phone Participants:
Silvester Henderson, Contra Costa CCD
Marisa Perez, Cerritos CCD Board of Trustees
Cheryl Massa, Executive Assistant, WVMCCD

II. Approval of the August 29, 2019, Meeting Minutes
Suggested correction – add Chabot-Las Positas CCD in David Betts’ title on the attendance list.
Group approved meeting minutes through show of hands.

III. Registry Update – Beth Au
- Recruitment trips to UC Davis and UCLA were successful – met with over 100 students
- Attended ACHRO in October
- Attended a local job fair in December, local school career fair.
- Job Fairs:
  - January 25, 2020: Westin – 33 districts registered 75% capacity
  - February 1, 2020: San Francisco – 30 booths sold out, 26 districts registered – 2 are out of state
- Have about 300 pre-registered job seekers in LA and 30 pre-registered in SF
- Ad campaign started on Monday.
- February 23, 2020: Napa, Part-time faculty Institute (panel on recruitment)
- In February, going to West Valley Mission CCD to talk to faculty interns about recruitment and job opportunities using the registry.

IV. Chancellor’s Updates: (Daisy)

a. 2020-21 Budget & Legislative Proposed Update (letter handout to attendees)

Diversity and Inclusion Task Force concluded. BOG wants implementation plan. Assignments to stakeholders:

- Appoint state-wide group reps
- Identify who is responsible for what in groups

Items Board of Governors voted on at the November board meeting. I would like to share the work we did. Agreed on three things submitted:

1. Increasing base funding
2. Increasing of COLAS
3. Financial aid for students and funding for EEO and diversity

Oversight hearing on November 4th. Now hearing that assembly committee would like a hearing on EEO and Diversity.

Main questions: What did you do with the money from 2016? Daisy walked them through advancements and challenges (she was not there at time). Informed the committee we want to model for rest of state. We will know more on January 10, 2020. Identified need for additional funding to continue EEO committee’s work.

b. Update on Vision for Success Diversity, Equity and Inclusion Task Force:

Provided recommendation to Board in September. Further action to return in January and provide Board with implementation plan.

Creating a working group:
- Sixteen page plan to make move in 5 years
- Partner across system with other stakeholders
- The lead has to be the Academic Senate, create working group
- Then send 1 or 2 statewide representatives to those working groups.

We will hear more at the January 2020 meeting. Task force...how do we move this? A twenty-page report was created on institutional change and what resources committee had. It chronicles that history. Meant to be a document to frame how the BOG and task force was thinking on how to move EEO and Diversity.

c. Faculty & Diversity Symposium Update, March 19 – 20, 2020 Legislative briefing in State Capitol for 60 minutes.
Reception – legislators to meet with attendees. The Board of Governors will be there.

Summit planned content:
1. Day one: Legislative briefing in State Capitol on March 19 at the Sacramento Kimpton Hotel (60 minutes). Feature two case studies on what committee has done and potential. Daisy will tie into what Professional Development committee has done.
2. Chancellor Oakley speech and reception
3. Day two: Pre-hiring best Practices: Los Rios has been asked to walk us through how they connect their EEO data as a model for folks to learn.
4. Academic Senate report on standardizing minimum qualifications statewide.
5. lunch break
6. About 45-60 minutes = Team time: CEO of college, HR Mgr. (CHRO) and Academic Senate President. Three members from committee to identify an activity. They will get on stage to lead and inspire attendees. (Daisy asked for 3 volunteers from EEO group to help them reflect on what they need.) The last 20 minutes, Academic Senate, John Stankas presenting.
7. Retention (panels)

Feedback from group:
James: dual enrollment, middle colleges: how to expand pools in these areas.

Sean: Capacity is 200. This work has to include the buy in of local leaders.

Susan from ACCCA would like us to share outcomes with her to share with ACCCA membership.

Beth: What about equivalencies? Will this be addressed? Ultimately, it will need to be. More and more people with degrees that do not exactly fit the discrete degrees listed in minimum qauls.. Minimum qauls. are more defined already. Daisy asserted this is step 1- the equivalencies for standardization. Part of 16 page plan.
Mayra: Academic Senate Developments: CTE minimum quals. Created tool kit and a way to address equivalencies. It is a bigger issue and that is an area in which we will continue our conversations.

Silvester: In addition to Diversity summit, curriculum and methods of teaching would help to attract a large group of individuals. In framework of higher ed., people are uncomfortable hiring people that do not look like them. Diverse instructors are more open to broadening perspectives.

Susannah: Do they really understand how equivalency works? Shared understanding needs to be created.

Mayra: Do not really have such documents. Example of misunderstanding: How to apply equivalencies in fair and constructive manner. (She will ask to see if they have something.)

Daisy: Team Time will focus on equivalency process. Attendees will have to locate their college equivalency webpage. Is there a schedule for equivalency? If they apply and do not get it, whom do they contact with questions or for information?

James: Could someone know how to apply? How long would it take? Operational concerns.

Greg: Equivalency will definitely impact diversity. Second minimum quals. becoming better utilized – will help even more. How do you successfully teach students with different experiences from your own? (Mayra and Luke will address this in minimum quals. section.)

Daisy: Need 3 volunteers to work on exercises.

Need conversation on can we film, turn into modules or webinars. We will target the 3 people and ask them to collaborate. We do have planned guidance on standardizing minimum. quals.

Sixteen pages are part of the to do list. Equivalency requires longer conversations with the Academic Senate. If we can’t fix, legislative changes to Title 5 needed.

Suggested start of conversation about equivalency process; can you find it on your website. Require 3 people to find equivalency on their website similar to test (give them 10 minutes). Suggests technology and information sharing collaboration (team time).

Silvester: Use of curriculum integrated into the diversity question on experience.
Mayra: Thinks they can incorporate Silvester’s concerns into their section. (Silvester, James and Greg are the small group to work on exercises.)

Hildy: Will hiring include not only external candidates, but part-time faculty too?

Susannah: Part-time instructors assume people know them and do not market themselves in the hiring process for full-time.

Silvester: Final workshop could require curriculum and how it relates to minimum quals. Volunteered to be part of team of 3 for workshop.

Daisy: Need 3 people from this group to help us lead March 20 in Sacramento. (Silvester, Greg and Todd volunteered to attend.)

Daisy: Transition from part-time to full-time faculty is conversation and something we would like to look at.

d. EEO Fund Update (Fermin):

Expenditure Report
We were able to get the unpaid FON penalties on the trailer Bill SB 109 passed in Sept. An additional $139,000, which will provide each district with an additional $5,000. Should be distributed in the next apportionment. (Fermin will send out update to colleges regarding the additional $5,000.)

Group discussion on impact of less money:

Hildy asked question about what $45,000. Is it really enough?

Albert: Currently a lot of districts use the money to supplant what they have lost. When we participated in Los Angeles symposium, for me to take a group of people cost $10,000. Prep and follow-up. Those things typically would not be able to be covered by the $45,000.

Stacy: We spent more than that – District contributed to costs ($300,000.)

Mayra: Greater integration – student equity plans together with HR. Need to avoid “silo living.”

Daisy: If we get additional monies in 2020-21; do we want to use the money for travel?...something this committee will have to come up with.
Mayra: How do we motivate and incentivize? It is about the mission of our system, (not about the money). The questions are about how to restructure and reshape.

e. Legislative EEO Report (Fermin):

Working on EEO report for the legislature:

1. In the past each year we were able to show compliance by the districts, such as prep of EEO plans, multiple methods...up to 100% compliance.

2. Want to highlight all the things we are doing:
   -Building Diversity Summit
   -Creation of EEO Task Force
   -Leg work throughout the state
   -Collaboration with partner groups
   -Creation of EEO plans working group. Rethink/revamp EEO Plan and multiple methods templates.
   -Recommendation: work around the state with other groups to communicate goals of the task force and what we need to do going forward.
   -Inform Legislature of the plan for EEO working group.

f. EEO Plans and Multiple Methods Working Group. (See below)

V. EEO Plans and Multiple Methods Working Group (Albert)

Group met ...talked about the previous template and looked at most recent template. Discussions on anything that was related to Title 5. Also talked about experiences with our own EEO Plans. Group established a plan for review and is looking at the resources that are available. At our next meeting, we will provide more information on our timeline. The group is aware of what the expectations are. We may need to poll some committee members. It is hoped committee members are all receptive to working group reaching out.

Question: ACHRO conference – template provided by Laura Schulkind. Was that the new template?

Albert: It was a crosswalk of what you could incorporate. We might come up with something similar to that.

VI. Establish Goals for 2020-2021 (Daisy & Fermin)

a. August of 2018 – BOG requested review of task force, committees etc. What was their charge and looking to see if there was overlap? They reviewed all the groups, committees etc., and provided report to BOG in September.
• Groups that were created by legislation or created by regulations; prescribed membership
• Created by Chancellor’s Office to facilitate or assist in the implementation of certain programs are able to be created, amended etc.
• Groups created in conjunction with another organization

Category B group - Created by CCCCO
Category C group – Created in conjunction with another group (also controlled by CCCCO, Foundation or other agencies)

Our group is Category B. CCCCO can propose amendments, ask group to self-assess, etc. We as a group have been determined useful with emphasis on EEO. We want to make sure we focus the group going forward. What our goals are going to be going ahead.

We had 56 tasks forces and advisories. Since November 2018 thru 2019, we went from 56 to 42. When I presented in November, the Board asked how the Chancellor’s office made this decision to consolidate and integrate. Our recommendation to the Board is that we would keep this EEO and Diversity Advisory group. Recommend three Goals that group will commit to that will align with the Vision for Success. (Handout and group activity commenced).

b. Group activity Feedback:

1. Title 5 Regulation changes to include Equity/Diversity & inclusion (DEI) statement Clarification of minimum quals #2 and additional Training to Trustees.

3. Revamping CCC Registry:
   a. Branding
   b. Consideration of universal application.

4. Removing barriers to employment – Tool kit. Partnership with other divisions, host PD to help remove barriers. Measure impact.

VII. Future EEO Committee Meetings 2020

Group reviewed proposed dates for future meetings:

February 13, 2020
May 14, 2020
August 13, 2020
December 10, 2020
I. December 12, 2019 Meeting Minutes approved.

II. Chancellor’s Office updates provided
   a) 2020-21 Budget & Legislative Proposal Update and Engagement (Daisy and Nadia) Budget proposal included the 15m. allocated for a Faculty Fellowship Program. Legislative proposal for additional investments is being developed. Members discussed these questions: What would the fellowship program look like? Stipends? Hours per week? How do we ensure diversity?
   b) Updates of the Vision for Success Implementation Workgroup provided. (Daisy) It was reported that this workgroup will help us advance the commitment from the Board of Governors and the Chancellor’s Office to advance equitable and inclusive hiring practices across California’s community colleges. The workgroup was created to mobilize the strategies identified in the Vision for Success Diversity, Equity and Inclusion integration plan (see attachment) and to provide the Board of Governors oversight on our statewide progress. The Implementation Workgroup is required to provide the Board of Governor’s an annual update, with the first update set for September 22, 2020.
   c) Update provided on the 2020 Faculty & Staff Diversification Symposium. The agenda was reviewed. (Fermin)
      o Day 1 – Evening reception with the Chancellor Oakley (3/19)
      o Day 2 – Welcome by Chancellor Oakley, Series of sessions on Pre-hiring, hiring, retention and an activity to improve local processes, closing remarks by John Stanskas.

III. 2020 Goals for the EEO & Diversity Advisory Committee (Daisy)
    Group reviewed and finalized the goals developed in December.
(A) Title 5 changes to integrate the adopted Diversity, Equity and Inclusion statement
(B) Update EEO templates and Multiple Methods
(C) Disseminate guidance on the implementation of minimum quals
(D) Conduct a survey on technology tools (including centralized tool) needed
(E) Partner with CCCCCO and stakeholders to host annual professional development events

IV. Update on EEO Plans & Multiple Methods Working Group and Multiple Method requirements (Albert). Group has begun to look at the revision to the EEO templates and Multiple Measures. More information to come.

V. Budget Engagement Strategies/Methods (Lizette) This item was not discussed. Not enough information available.

VI. Update and Discussion on Outline of Exercises for Faculty & Staff Diversification Symposium (Mayra, Greg, & James) Members were provided with the outline which consist of the following: website activity with a scenario, small groups debrief, and a share out with technology. The activity aims to identify barriers in hiring processes.

VII. Registry Update (Beth) Members received and update on the 2020 Registry job fairs, almost 1,000 attendees in LA and SF.

VIII. Announcements from Committee Members
   a) Thank you Albert Moore! Members celebrated with Albert.

   Action: The consent calendar was approved by consensus.

II. Committee Priorities – Resolutions
   A. S18 17.01 Noncredit Instruction in Guided Pathways Efforts
      The group discussed ASCCC resolution 17.01, Spring 2018, which called for the inclusion of noncredit instruction in Guided Pathways efforts. The Guided Pathways Taskforce (GPTF) previously began to address the resolution by appointing a noncredit representative to the GPTF, however, that representative had to recently step down from participating. A suggestion was made to seek two new GPTF members with expertise in noncredit - potentially looking for a member from a college with a well-established noncredit program, as well as one member from a college with a relatively new program or one that is still in the development stage. The group discussed working with the noncredit GPTF members to identify which colleges are using noncredit in their pathways, perhaps through a survey to CCCs or reaching out to specific campuses for data.

Follow up:
May and Mica will seek two additional GPTF members with expertise in noncredit. May will work with the new members to connect with the ASCCC Noncredit and Curriculum committees to address Resolution S18 17.01 Noncredit Instruction in Guided Pathways Efforts.

B. F18 18.01 Guided Self Placement
The group discussed ASCCC Resolution 18.01, Fall 2018, which resolved that the ASCCC urge local senates to implement policies that give all students access to local guided self-placement processes for English and mathematics as well as assessment tools for credit English as a second language. In order to address the resolution, GPTF members May and Fulks are developing Guided Self Placement (GSP) onboarding tools for colleges to use. One of the challenges in developing the tool is the various local processes used throughout the CCCs. It was noted that these tools are for colleges to use as a guide for their college and are being developed to ensure they are not too prescriptive. Once complete, the tools will be made available on the GP Canvas page, as well as the ASCCC website. It was suggested that the ASCCC website is reviewed to ensure that there are not discrepancies between the ASCCC Guided Pathways Resource page and the GP Taskforce page.

Follow up: Fulks and May will develop a Rostrum article on how to use the tool by January 6, 2020. May is to work with Mica and the Senate office staff to organize the GP canvas page and the Senate web pages, making it easier to navigate and store resources.

C. S19 5.02 Guided Pathways Budget Development
The group discussed strategies to address resolution 5.02, Spring 2019, and it was stated that there is a need for transparency from the CCCCO regarding budget allocation for the implementation of Guided Pathways. Further discussion is needed between the ASCCC, local senates, Guided Pathways Advisory Committee (GPAC), and CCCCO, to gather budget data. A suggestion was made for the group to hold a breakout session for Guided Pathways budgets at the upcoming 2020 ASCCC Spring Plenary Session. In addition, the group felt that it will be beneficial to develop rostrum articles to address each of the 3 resolved areas of resolution 5.02 listed below.

Resolved, That the Academic Senate for California Community Colleges urge local academic senates to ensure proper collegial consultation and transparency in developing guided pathways budget processes, including supporting comparability between colleges in multi-college districts;
Resolved, That the Academic Senate for California Community Colleges work with system partners to ensure collegial consultation and transparency in local guided pathways budget development processes; and

Resolved, That the Academic Senate for California Community Colleges work with the California Community Colleges Chancellor’s Office and system partners to make available information regarding how statewide resources have been invested in the design and implementation of guided pathways.

Follow up:
- Bruno, Hernandez, and May will draft rostrum articles that address each of the 3 resolved areas of resolution 5.02.
- A breakout session regarding Guided Pathways budgets will be suggested for the ASCCC 2020 Spring Plenary.
- May will bring this to the Guided Pathways Advisory Committee (GPAC) to discuss how data regarding budget allocation can be obtained.

III. Reports
May invited team leads to share their experiences on each of the GPTF teams, offer suggestions for improvements, and request changes or additional support. The group discussed the work conducted by the various GPTF teams throughout the semester and suggested changes to assignments for team members. It was suggested that additional support can be provided to GP liaisons through regional meetings designed around the GP liaison role. The group agreed to discuss potential GP Liaison oriented regional meetings at a later date.

May provided an update to the group and discussed upcoming meetings and ideas for webinars such as:
Upcoming Meetings
- Meeting with CCCOO GP Coordinators at their Convening on December 10. Will share the work of the GPTF and learn of the work of the CO GP Coordinators. Gina Anderson and Annie Morgan are very interested in collaboration in the areas where our work overlaps.
- Guided Pathways Advisory Committee (GPAC) meeting on December 11
- Conference on Pathways to Equity to take place September 29-30 at the Newport Beach Marriott Hotel and Spa.

Webinar ideas for spring
- The SOAA-what the academic senate president signature means, rating or level implementation, documentation of implementation, equity questions.
- Analyzing AB705 Implementation in a GP Framework; equity gaps.
- English, mathematics, and reading competencies in a GP Framework.
- GP Liaisons and working with the CO GP Coordinators.
- GP and noncredit curriculum.

Follow up:
- Cruz will be included on the Technical Visit team, and removed from the Tools Development team.
Bruno will be removed from the Webinar team.
Simpson will be included on the Technical Visit and GP Liaison Support teams.
Wada will be included on the Technical Visit team.

IV. GP Regional Meetings Debrief
The GPTF held 5 regional meetings at CCC campuses, at which over 140 faculty and students attended. The group discussed the meeting outcomes and ways to improve the meetings for the Spring 2020 semester. Strategies included developing a meeting format that can be used for all meetings in order to ensure that a consistent message is being conveyed. It was noted that while a consistent format is needed, the group should allow the presentation to be tailored to address local needs as well. Suggestions for the meetings included activities and discussion that focus on the GP Liaison role, counseling faculty, and faculty advisors, as well as extending invitations to Institutional Researchers (IRs) and student representatives. It was noted that care should be exercised when sending messaging to the field to ensure that the desired target audience is reached. Faculty from Santa Ana College, Fresno City College, Yuba College, and the Peralta District, were represented the most during GPTF webinars over the Fall 2019 semester and the group agreed that the Spring 2020 workshops should be held at the campuses if possible.

Follow up: OERI staff will begin organizing the workshops at Santa Ana College, Fresno City College, Yuba College, and a college from the Peralta District.

V. Solutions for Improvements.
Group members suggested improvements to consider for the upcoming semester including data coaching; workshop follow up; funding for GP Liaisons to attend GPTF workshops; and collaboration between ASCCC GP Liaisons and CCCCO GP Regional Coordinators. In addition, posting to the GP Basecamp message board and latest activity updates would be helpful to the team so that all members are informed of the work being done by other teams.

VI. Future Agenda Items and Dates.
The GPTF be convened monthly on the following dates:
January 30, 2020
February 28, 2020
April 3, 2020
May 15, 2020
- Noncredit Instruction in Guided Pathways efforts.
- Spring Plenary planning (Resolution, Rostrum, breakout session).
- GP Liaison Regional Meeting

Meeting minutes respectfully submitted by Jennifer Valencia.

Staff:
Miguel Rother, Director of Grants and Initiatives, ASCCC
Megan Trader, C-ID Program Coordinator, ASCCC

I. Introductions and Announcements
Chair Roberson welcomed committee members and introductions were made.
Chiabotti announced that due to a new professional role, she will not be continuing on MCW.
II. Approval of the Agenda
Shaw requested moving the CTE C-ID Research Update to Item IV.

Action:
By consensus, the agenda was approved with the suggested change.

III. Approval of October 10, 2019, Meeting Minutes

Action:
October 10, 2019, Meeting Minutes were approved by consensus.

IV. Career Technical Education (CTE) C-ID Research Update
Shaw presented information on her research on the process and administration of CTE C-ID, noting that she recently spoke with the former ASCCC CTE Leadership Committee Chair, CTE C-ID Faculty Discipline Review Group (FDRG) members, CTE Liaisons, and members of the C-ID Articulation Officers (AO) Subgroup. Some of the topics that arose during the conversations included the function and purpose of the Model Curriculum Workgroup (MCW), increasing collaboration with industry partners in CTE C-ID development, and self-certification which most CTE faculty, as well as AOs support. Shaw will present her findings and recommendations to MCW at the next meeting.

The group discussed the benefits to students in relation to online CTE courses. If C-ID were to develop MC and descriptors that aligns with online and hybrid courses, it could potentially provide the opportunity for colleges to develop partial programs even if the campus does not offer all of the courses in the core courses of the MC, since students would be able to complete those courses online. Shaw stated that she will reach out to the California Virtual Campus – Online Education Initiative (CVC-OEI) to see how we can best connect the work of C-ID and CVC-OEI.

Follow up:
- Shaw will reach out to CVC-OEI to discuss how best to connect the work of C-ID and CVC-OEI.
- Shaw will provide recommendations to the group at the next MCW meeting.

V. Dual Enrollment
Mica provided background on the College Futures Foundation Planning Grant proposal submitted by Kathy Booth at WestEd. The proposal asked that MCW consider collaboration in relation to CTE dual enrollment efforts. Mica noted that the proposal did not receive funding, however, WestEd intends to move forward with the work outlined in the proposal. This item is being brought before MCW to consider whether CTE C-ID should begin collaboration. Concerns were expressed regarding language in the proposal, the overall intent, and duplicating work already completed by the Statewide Career Pathways project. It was stated that this is the purview of the ASCCC and that MCW should not pursue this at this time due to complex issues that could arise within the CCC.

Follow up:
Mica and Chair Roberson will reach out to Kathy Booth at WestEd to inform her of MCW's decision not to pursue CTE C-ID dual enrollment development at this time.

VI. MCW 2019-20 Priorities
Chair Roberson invited the group to discuss potential priorities of MCW for the current and upcoming academic years. The group discussed the need to review the current process that C-ID is using and discuss it in relation to previous processes implemented. Shearer suggested examining the C-ID structure holistically, and then considering MCW priorities. This can be done by reviewing the role of the Intersegmental Curriculum Workgroup (ICW) and C-ID Advisory Committee, policies related to each committee, and determining which disciplines will be involved in developing a future process for CTE C-ID. Based on this, Shearer provided the group with a draft 5-step process to evaluate the function and necessity of the MCW committee, as well as determine the priorities of the MCW committee.

Follow up:
The committee agreed to postpone the MCW meeting scheduled in mid-December due to the holidays and finals. A doodle poll will be sent to the group to identify a date to meet in January 2020.

Members will review the MCW Priorities document (with questions) sent by Shearer for relevance and understanding. Rother and Chair Roberson will provide an overview to collectively review and discuss at the next meeting.

VII. Digital Media
The 7 Digital Media MC were brought before MCW previously for approval, however, group members expressed concerns and there were unanswered questions regarding the intent and development of the MC. Follow up attempts to the FDRG were made to clarify the questions, although C-ID staff does not have responses to provide MCW. The committee discussed the delay in finalizing the MC submissions as well as potential solutions to avoid such delays in the future. It was stated that the MC should move forward based upon the discipline expertise and recommendation of the FDRG.

Action:
The group agreed to move forward with the approval of the Digital Media MC. The MC will be posted to the C-ID website as final and announcements will be sent to the field.

X. Adjournment
XI. Summary of Action/Follow-up Items

1. Shaw will reach out to CVC-OEI to discuss how best to connect the work of C-ID and CVC-OEI.
2. Shaw will provide recommendations to the group at the next MCW meeting.
3. MCW members will provide updates for the CTE Liaison memo by December 13th. C-ID Staff will send a reminder to the group.
4. Mica & Chair Roberson will relay the group’s decision not to move forward with dual enrollment at this time.
5. 2019-2020 MCW priorities will be included on the next meeting agenda and Rother will provide an overview of the C-ID development process to the group.
6. The December 17th meeting will be canceled, and a Doodle poll will be sent to the group to determine the date for the next MCW meeting.
7. The Digital Media MC will move forward. Rother will provide Water and Wastewater descriptors to the body for review & approval. A deadline will be provided and no response to the email will be considered approval of the C-ID materials.

Respectfully submitted by Megan Trader, Programs Coordinator
