NONCREDIT PROGRESS INDICATORS

- Spring 2012: 14.01 Progress Indicator Implementation for Noncredit Coursework

Resolved, That the Academic Senate for California Community Colleges work with the Chancellor's Office to change Title 5 to allow MIS (Management Information Systems) submission of the noncredit progress indicators of A, B, C, D, F, P and NP with the addition of SP (Satisfactory Progress) where SP indicates satisfactory progress towards the completion of a course and A, B, C, D, F, P and NP are used as currently defined in Title 5 for credit and noncredit courses (§55021/§55023

NONCREDIT PROGRESS INDICATORS

Spring 2012: 13.01 Noncredit Education and ARCCC Reporting

- Resolved, That the Academic Senate for California Community Colleges advocate for educational metrics, progress indicators, and grades consistent with the Noncredit Task Force and Association of Community and Continuing Education (ACCE) recommendations which include the following:
 - ☐ Correct reporting for noncredit CDCP (Career Development and College Preparation) certificate completion in MIS (Management Information Systems);
 - ☐ Appropriate definitions of cohorts;
 - ☐ Appropriate demographics;
 - ☐ Appropriate definitions of success;
 - ☐ Inclusion of noncredit students, who previously took or are concurrently enrolled in credit coursework, in noncredit cohorts;
 - ☐ Appropriate definitions of persistence for noncredit; and
 - ☐ Noncredit course success rate, as a measure of success, is defined as students earning P, SP, A, B, C

Where Are We Now?
